Unseeing Empire Bakirathi Mani,2020-10-26 In Unseeing Empire Bakirathi Mani examines how empire continues to haunt South Asian American visual cultures Weaving close readings of fine art together with archival research and ethnographic fieldwork at museums and galleries across South Asia and North America Mani outlines the visual and affective relationships between South Asian diasporic artists their photographic work and their viewers She notes that the desire for South Asian Americans to see visual representations of themselves is rooted in the use of photography as a form of colonial documentation and surveillance She examines fine art photography by South Asian diasporic artists who employ aesthetic strategies such as duplication and alteration that run counter to viewers demands for greater visibility These works fail to deliver on viewers desires to see themselves producing instead feelings of alienation estrangement and loss These feelings Mani contends allow viewers to question their own visibility as South Asian Americans in U S public culture and to reflect on their desires to be represented Edward S. Curtis Edward S. Curtis,Browntrout Publishers,2000 Legislative Branch Appropriations for 1999 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Legislative Appropriations,1998 Edward S. Curtis: Portraits of Native Americans Calendar Pomegranate Communications, Inc,2002-12-01 Before the turn of the twentieth century Edward S Curtis 1868 1952 embarked on a monumental project to document the traditions music and legends of Native Americans before they were lost forever He took more than 40 000 photographs for his twenty volume work The North American Indian The twelve reproductions in this calendar accompanied by information about tribal culture and history are from first generation photoprints and the original volumes of photogravures held by the Library of Congress Important events in Native American history are noted throughout The North American Indian: Southern California Shoshoneans. The Diegueños. Plateau Shoshoneans. The Washo Edward S. Curtis,1970 A comprehensive and permanent record of all the important tribes of the United States and Alaska that still retain to a considerable degree their primitive customs and traditions The value of such a work in great measure will lie in the breadth of its treatment in its wealth of illustration and in the fact that it represents the result of personal study of a people who are rapidly losing the traces of their aboriginal character and who are destined ultimately to become assimilated with the superior race It has been the aim to picture all features of the Indian life and environment types of the young and the old with their habitations industries ceremonies games and everyday customs Though the treatment accorded the Indians by those who lay claim to civilization and Christianity has in many cases been worse than criminal a rehearsal of these wrongs does not properly find a place here General introduction Edward S. Curtis Edward S. Curtis,2007 Legislative Establishment Appropriation Bill United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations,1999 Pacific Northwest

Quarterly ,1997 U.S. Museum Histories and the Politics of Interpretation Laura Schiavo,2023-12-08 U S Museum Histories and the Politics of Interpretation is the first collection to examine the history of museums in the United States through the lens of the political and ideological underpinnings at the heart of exhibitions collecting and programming Including contributions from historians art historians anthropologists academics and museum professionals the book argues that museums have always been embedded in the politics and culture of their time whether that means a reification of hegemonic notions of race gender and progress or a challenge to those normative structures Contributions probe the political nature of collection and interpretation as concept and practice and museum work as both reflective of and contributing to the politics and circulation of power in different historical moments As a whole the volume provides detailed readings of museums that demonstrate the ways in which these trusted cultural institutions have intervened in shifting concepts of nation community indigeneity race citizenship inclusion identity localism and memory U S Museum Histories and the Politics of Interpretation makes arguments about the historically and politically rooted nature of cultural production in museums that apply to institutions across the globe It is essential reading for students and scholars of museum studies public history cultural history art history and memory Encounters at the Heart of the World Elizabeth A. Fenn,2014-03-11 Encounters at the Heart of the World concerns the Mandan Indians iconic Plains people whose teeming busy towns on the upper Missouri River were for centuries at the center of the North American universe We know of them mostly because Lewis and Clark spent the winter of 1804 1805 with them but why don t we know more Who were they really Elizabeth A Fenn retrieves their history by piecing together important new discoveries in archaeology anthropology geology climatology epidemiology and nutritional science By 1500 more than twelve thousand Mandans were established on the northern Plains and their commercial prowess agricultural skills and reputation for hospitality became famous Recent archaeological discoveries show how they thrived and then how they collapsed The damage wrought by imported diseases like smallpox and the havoc caused by the arrival of horses and steamboats were tragic for the Mandans yet as Fenn makes clear their sense of themselves as a people with distinctive traditions endured Source nconnue Native Americans Information Directory Gale Group,1998-08 This directory covers nearly 4500 organizations agencies institutions programmes services and publications concerned with native American institutions The Artists Bluebook ,2005 all of the artist names listed on AskART com Native American Folklore, 1879-1979 ,1984 Faces of the Twentieth Century Mark Edward Harris,1998 This book is a collection of portraits in words and images of twenty of the finest photographers of this century *Edward S.
