Edward Hopper Carol Troyen, Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, National Gallery of Art (U.S.), Art Institute of Chicago, 2007 The creator of pictures that John Updike called calm silent stoic luminous classic Edward Hopper produced many works now considered icons of modern art Canvases such as Drug Store New York Movie and the universally recognized and often parodied Nighthawks reshaped what painting looked like in America and devised a visual language for middle class life and its discontents This extensive new assessment of Hopper which accompanies a major traveling exhibition examines the dynamics of his creative process and discusses his work within the cultural currents of his day showing parallels not only with other painters but also with such media as literature and film While most writers have tended to limit Hopper to being the great painter of alienation this book takes a much broader more nuanced and ultimately more representative view of a highly complex extremely varied artist Spanning the entirety of Hopper s career but with particular emphasis on his heyday in the twenties thirties and forties Edward Hopper highlights his greatest achievements while discussing such topics as his absorption of European influences critical reactions to his work the relation of realism to modernism his fascination with architecture his depiction of women and the struggle in his last years to produce original works Illustrated with more than 150 of his oils watercolors prints and drawings and including essays by several noted scholars in the field and an extensive chronology and bibliography this is the most comprehensive volume on Hopper to be published in many years Jacket flap
