Edmonds The First Century:

Edmonds, the First Century ,1990      Translation Jan Steyn,2022-09-22 Translation practice its contexts and its broader consequences too often studied separately are here brought into conversation      A Republic of Mind and Spirit Catherine L. Albanese,2007-01-01 In the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Mexicans and Americans joined together to transform the U S Mexico borderlands into a crossroads of modern economic development This book reveals the forgotten story of their ambitious dreams and their ultimate failure to control this fugitive terrain Focusing on a mining region that spilled across the Arizona Sonora border this book shows how entrepreneurs corporations and statesmen tried to domesticate nature and society within a transnational context Efforts to tame a wild frontier were stymied by labour struggles social conflict and revolution Fugitive Landscapes explores the making and unmaking of the U S Mexico border telling how ordinary people resisted the domination of empires nations and corporations to shape transnational history on their own terms By moving beyond traditional national narratives it offers new lessons for our own border crossing age

College Voices Clare Davidson,2018-11-30 College Voices tells the story of Christ s College Aberdeen a theological college of the Church of Scotland from its beginnings in the 1840s to the present day This is a rich and colourful story vividly told and peopled with many fascinating characters and stories Written by the College s administrator who saw how the personalities of teachers and students alike shone through the formal language of minute books and other records College Voices relates how the College grew and evolved alongside the history not only of Scotland but of the world It demonstrates the effects on ministerial training of two world wars and is honest about times when the College was threatened by closure and scandal      Dying from Improvement Sherene Razack,2015-01-01 Razack s powerful critique of the Canadian settler state and its legal system speaks to many of today s most pressing issues of social justice      Miracles in Greco-Roman

Antiquity Wendy Cotter,2012-11-12 Miracles in Greco Roman Antiquity presents a collection in translation of miracle stories from the ancient world The material is divided up into four main categories including healing exorcism nature and raising the dead Wendy Cotter in an introduction and notes to the selections contextualizes the miracles within the background of the Greco Roman world and also compares the stories to other Jewish and non Jewish miracle stories of the Mediterranean world This sourcebook provides an interdisciplinary collection of material which will be of value to students of the New Testament

The Songs of Sappho Sappho,Marion Mills Miller,1925      Carbon Management National Research Council,Division on Earth and Life Studies,Board on Chemical Sciences and Technology,Chemical Sciences Roundtable,2001-08-15 Considerable international concerns exist about global climate change and its relationship to the growing use of fossil fuels Carbon dioxide is released by chemical reactions that are employed to extract energy from fuels and any regulatory policy limiting the amount of CO<sub>2</sub> that could be released from sequestered sources or from energy generating reactions will require substantial involvement of the chemical sciences and technology R D community Much of the public debate has been focused on the question of whether global climate change is occurring and if so whether it is anthropogenic but these questions were outside the scope of the workshop which instead focused on the question of how to respond to a possible national policy of carbon management Previous discussion of the latter topic has focused on technological economic and ecological aspects and on earth science challenges but the fundamental science has received little attention This workshop was designed to gather information that could inform the Chemical Sciences Roundtable in its discussions of possible roles that the chemical sciences community might play in identifying and addressing underlying chemical questions Implications of the Euro Mark Baimbridge, Brian Burkitt, Philip Whyman, 2006-05-02 To date critical analysis of the EMU project has largely been advanced from the centre right spectrum of British politics Comparable questions from the centre left have failed to find a coherent voice Although the European fault line cannot be characterized as a neat Left Right issue there are noticeable divisions in opinion across British business the trade union movement and within the Labour Party Offering a unique insight into this key debate from the centre left eurosceptic view point this book provides a rigorous analysis of all the salient economic and political issues of concern such as the economics of a single currency employment and social implications sovereignty political determination The arguments presented in this volume highlight the emergence of a coherent alternative to deepening economic integration as a platform to build a just and equitable society Contributions are drawn from leading academics trade union leaders and prominent politicians both from the Labour Party and the wider progressive Left in British politics This informative and thought provoking book will be indispensable reading for students and practitioners in economics politics and international relations as well as those interested in this highly contentious topic

"The" Historians' History of the World Henry Smith Williams, 1907 Breaking the Surface Douglass Whitfield Bailey, 2018 In Breaking the Surface Doug Bailey offers a radical alternative for understanding Neolithic houses providing much needed insight not just into prehistoric practice but into another way of doing archaeology Using his years of fieldwork experience excavating the early Neolithic pit houses of southeastern Europe Bailey exposes and elucidates a previously under theorized aspect of prehistoric pit construction the actions and consequences of digging defined as breaking the surface of the ground Breaking the Surface works through the consequences of this redefinition in order to redirect scholarship on the excavation and interpretation of pit houses in Neolithic Europe offering detailed critiques of current interpretations of these earliest European architectural constructions The work of the book is performed by juxtaposing richly detailed discussions of archaeological sites Etton and The Wilsford Shaft in the UK and Magura in Romania with the work of three artists who cut Ron Athey Gordon Matta Clark Lucio Fontana with deep and detailed examinations of the philosophy of holes the perceptual psychology of shapes and the linguistic anthropology of cutting and breaking words as well as with cultural diversity in framing spatial reference and through an examination of pre modern ungrounded ways of living Breaking the Surface is as much a creative act on its own in its mixture of work from disparate periods and regions its use of radical text interruption and its juxtaposition of text and imagery as it is an interpretive statement about prehistoric architecture Unflinching and exhilarating it is a major development in the growing subdiscipline of art archaeology Ancient Food Technology

Curtis,2021-11-15 Employing a wide variety of sources this book discusses innovations in food processing and preservation from the Palaeolithic period through the late Roman Empire All through the ages there has been the need to acquire and maintain a consistent food supply leading to the invention of tools and new technologies to process certain plant and animal foods into different and more usable forms This handbook presents the results of the most recent investigations identifies controversies and points to areas needing further work It is the first book to focus specifically on ancient food technology and to discuss the integral role it played in the political economic and social fabric of ancient society Fully documented and lavishly illustrated with numerous photographs and drawings it will appeal to students and scholars of both the arts and the sciences Garum and Salsamenta

Curtis,2018-07-17 Fermented fish products fulfilled multiple functions in Graeco Roman society They were a source of nutrition a medicine with both dietetic and therapeutic value and a commodity of trade Their production and commerce provided employment even wealth for many individuals in the western and eastern provinces of the Roman Empire The work defines ancient salt fish products and clarifies their relationship with modern counterparts Following discussion of the perceived and actual utility of these products in human and veterinary medicine the author employing literary archaeological epigraphical papyrological and numismatic evidence provides a province by province survey of the areas which produced and exported them The book closes with a discussion of the social status of those involved in their manufacture and trade the methods used to market them and their fate in the post classical period This study explores an important facet of the Roman economy having continuity with the modern world Studies on the

Derveni Papyrus, volume II Glenn W. Most,2022-09-01 Studies on the Derveni Papyrus volume II brings together two new editions of the first fragmentarily extant columns of the Derveni Papyrus and seven scholarly articles devoted to their interpretation The Derveni Papyrus is by far the most important textual discovery of the 20th century regarding early Greek philosophy religion exegetical theory and practice linguistic ideas and a host of other areas and issues But the editorial and interpretative history of this extraordinary document has been very checkered While the interpretation of the better preserved later columns is still highly controversial in many regards at least the text of those columns has by and large found a scholarly consensus but the editorial and interpretative situation with the worse preserved first columns is quite different This volume offers not one but two editions of the first columns by Richard Janko and by Valeria Piano given that it is not currently possible to agree upon a single edition and it explains clearly and in detail the papyrological problems and doubts that lead to these two editions making it possible for readers even non papyrologists to form their own informed judgment about the most likely readings to be adopted Furthermore it contains a number of articles by leading scholars on the Derveni Papyrus above all offering original solutions to the question of the relation between the earlier and the later columns but also providing analysis and interpretation of other related problems      Studies on the Derveni Papyrus Glenn W. Most, 2022

Jabar, Renad Mansour, 2019-11-28

The Kurds are one of the largest stateless nations in the world numbering more than 20 million people Their homeland lies mostly within the present day borders of Turkey Iraq and Iran as well as parts of Syria Armenia and Azerbaijan Yet until recently the Kurdish question that is the question of Kurdish self determination seemed to many observers dormant It was only after the so called Arab Spring and with the rise of the Islamic State that they emerged at the centre of Middle East politics But what is the future of the Kurdish national movement How do the Kurds themselves understand their community and quest for political representation This book analyses the major problems challenges and opportunities currently facing the Kurds Of particular significance this book shows is the new Kurdish society that is evolving in the context of a transforming Middle East This is made of diverse communities from across the region who represent very different historical linguistic political social and cultural backgrounds that are yet to be understood This book examines the recent shifts and changes within Kurdish societies and their host countries and argues that the Kurdish national movement requires institutional and constitutional recognition of pluralism and diversity Featuring contributions from world leading experts on Kurdish politics this timely book combines empirical case studies with cutting edge theory to shed new light on the Kurds of the 21st century      Class, Culture, and Race in American Schools Stanley Rothstein, 1995-03-23

Class culture and race have influenced the educational experiences of children for centuries As a new wave of Latin American and Asian peoples enters the United States public schools are faced with the challenge of educating children from a culture of poverty and who have varying racial and cultural backgrounds This reference work employs historical anthropological sociological and theoretical perspectives to overview current information on class culture and race in U S schools The volume is organized systematically with broad sections on class culture race and prospects for the future Each section begins with an introductory chapter that defines the theme of the section and places it within a larger context The chapters that follow then examine the impact of class culture or race on schooling with special regard to particular groups The volume focuses primarily on Hispanics African Americans and Asians as they struggle to survive and prosper in the United States Because of its approach the book is also a guide to the effects of poverty language and race on the educational experiences of children Civil Society Organisations, Governance and the Caribbean Community Kristina Hinds, 2018-12-14 This book offers a unique analysis of the participatory spaces available for civil society organisations CSOs in Caribbean governance It reveals the myriad ways in which the region's CSOs have contributed to enriching Caribbean societies and to scaffolding Caribbean regionalism and also uncovers that despite their contributions Caribbean CSOs and civil society more broadly have found limited space for involvement in governance The author peers into Caribbean state civil society participatory dynamics using in depth country case studies Barbados and Trinidad and Tobago mini case studies and evaluations of the approaches to inclusion within the regional institutions of the Caribbean Community CARICOM and the Organisation of Eastern Caribbean States OECS This novel contribution to the Caribbean civil society literature uses these assessments to make a case for regularising state civil society collaborative practices to enhance the quality of democracy in the region The Food-Energy-Water Nexus Peter Saundry, Benjamin L. Ruddell, 2020-04-06 This will be the first textbook on the integration of food energy and water systems FEWS In recent years the world has seen a dramatic rise in interdisciplinary energy and environmental courses and degrees at the undergraduate and graduate levels In the US for instance the number and variety of such programs has increased significantly over the past decade Simultaneously national and international initiatives that integrate food energy and water systems have been launched This textbook provides a substantive introduction to the food energy water nexus suitable for use in higher level undergraduate and graduate level courses and for scholars moving into the field of nexus studies without a strong background in all three areas and the many aspects of nexus studies Chasing Religion in the Caribbean Peter Marina, 2016-09-11 Focusing on ten islands through the Caribbean this ethnography examines how charismatic religious leaders develop creative transnational religious networking strategies that help spread the movement and increase its potential to become a greater force in shaping the future in the English speaking Caribbean The large and explosive global Charismatic movement spread in powerful ways in the small and tranquil English speaking Caribbean It is here in the deep Caribbean world of demonic possessions spiritual demons and supernatural healers where the Charismatic movement continues to shape a resilient culture Placing the Charismatic movement in the realm of culture provides some highly surprising findings that reveal the potential of a religious movement and its ability for change in a late modern social world
