The International Handbook of Educational Research in the Asia-Pacific Region J.P. Keeves,Ryo Watanabe,2013-11-11 The aim of the Handbook is to present readily accessible but scholarly sources of information about educational research in the Asia Pacific region The scale and scope of the Handbook is such that the articles included in it provide substantive contributions to knowledge and understanding of education in the Asia region In so doing the articles present the problems and issues facing education in the region and the findings of research conducted within the region that contribute to the resolution of these problems and issues Moreover since new problems and issues are constantly arising the articles in the Handbook also indicate the likely directions of future developments The different articles within the Handbook seek to conceptualize the problems in each specific content area under review provide an integration of the research conducted within that area the theoretical basis of the research the practical implications of the research and the contribution of the research towards the resolution of the problems identified Thus the articles do not involve the reporting of newly conducted research but rather require a synthesis of the research undertaken in a particular area with reference to the research methods employed and the theoretical frameworks on which the research is based In general the articles do not advocate a single point of view but rather present alternative points of view and comment on the debate and disagreements associated with the conduct and findings of the research Furthermore it should be noted that the Handbook is not concerned with research methodology and only considers the methods employed in inquiry in so far as the particular methods of research contribute to the effective investigation of problems and issues that have arisen in the conduct and provision of education at different levels within the region

Educational Technology in the Classroom Patricia Ann Brock,1994 The Routledge International Handbook of European Social Transformations Peeter Vihalemm,Anu Masso,Signe Opermann,2017-11-22 This book focuses on social transformations as one of the central topics in the social sciences The study of European social transformations is very valuable in the context of universal discussions within social sciences explaining invariable universal attributes of societies and examining changing attributes The book consists of 20 chapters on European social transformations written from the perspectives of distinguished scholars from such disciplines as economics political science educational science geography media and communication studies public management and administration social psychology and sociology The temporal and spatial range of the book is wide including such global changes as time space compression focusing particularly on change processes in Europe during the last two decades The book consists of four main parts beginning with an overview of the theoretical and methodological approaches and then focusing separately on post communist transformations institutional drivers of social transformations in the European Union and European transformations in the context of global processes The book presents current theoretical empirical and methodological approaches that complement the scientific literature on social transformations This book is both an invaluable resource for scholars and an indispensable teaching tool for use in the classroom and will be of interest to students academics and policy makers studying how this diverse region has changed over recent years Annual Meeting Program American Educational Research Association,1999 Encyclopedia of Microcomputers Allen Kent,James G. Educational Computing Reza Azar, 1991 Online Distance Education Margaret Gorts Morabito, 1999 Many educators and the public are interested in online distance education in particular Internet based schooling The underlying assumption is that this is a new and untested fad in education This is due in part to a lack of documentation within academia of the early development of online distance education and in part to a shortage of experienced practicing online schools On the Internet one may become confused by the flurry of activity and by the various claims from organizations that they are providing a revolutionary method of instruction online teaching Furthermore many people are unaware of the long and distinguished history of distance education itself that is the root of current day Internet based schooling Despite the uncertainty the public is clearly demanding online distance education This dissertation helps to resolve these problems This study fills various needs for the purpose of showing the effective application of online distance education Educational administrators teachers and the public must be assured that online distance teaching is a valid and proven instructional method Furthermore administrators and teachers need to know what to expect when planning operating and teaching in an online school Through historical analysis and the presentation of a practicing Internet based school this study fills these needs This dissertation results from fifteen years of independent study and research by the author combined with professional experience in the field of online distance education including Internet based school design and operation Conclusions result from published studies in distance education from research conducted in the 1980s concerning publicly available online distance education and from experience in developing administering and teaching in an international Internet based school that has been in continual operation online since 1986 The author concludes that 1 online distance education has a proven track record 2 there is continual demand from the global community for Internet based instruction as well as a public demand for traditional institutions to accept this nontraditional method of study and 3 administrators and teachers can economically create and operate an effective Internet based school that is accessible to and affordable for individual learners using low cost personal computers Global Perspectives on Adult Education and Learning Policy Marcella Milana, Tom Nesbit, 2015-07-21 The worldwide appearance and expression of adult education and lifelong learning have changed significantly during the past 20 years This book explores recent changes in their related national and international policies how they intersect with developments in higher education and how they may contribute to debates on citizenship and democracy Choosing and Using Educational Software David Squires, Anne McDougall, 1994 An investigation into the interactions between users of educational software is given in this book providing theoretical frameworks for studying educational software The existing approach to selection of educational software is examined and shown to be limited Role of Educational Technology in the Education of Limited English Proficient Students, 1988 Rethinking Multicultural Education Wayne Au, 2009 Moving beyond a simplistic focus on heroes and holidays foods and festivals Rethinking Multicultural Education demonstrates a powerful vision of anti racist social justice education

Practical rich in story and analytically sharp Rethinking Multicultural Education reclaims multicultural education as part of a larger struggle for justice and against racism colonization and cultural oppression in schools and society The book features 40 chapters split into 4 sections Anti Racist Orientations Language Culture and Power Transnational Identities Multicultural Classrooms and Confronting Racism in the Classroom Winner of the 2010 Skipping Stones Honor Award Educational Publishing in Global Perspective Shobhana Sosale,1999 The chain of stakeholders associated with educational books is long and impressive By contrast our information about the educational book publishing industry has been fragmented at best To consolidate and share this information a seminar on Understanding the Educational Book Industry was organized by the World Bank in Washington D C September 9 10 1997 This report reflects the deliberations that emerged from that seminar The seminar focused on four themes policies for the provision of educational materials the publishing industry growth in developing countries thorny issues such as procurement protection and copyright and longer term solutions Over the last three years the World Bank has lent approximately US 550 million in one form or another for textbook components within education projects With textbooks continuing to be such a rarity in developing countries we need to pause and ask the questions Are current processes effective Do we know enough about the educational book industry to claim that we have helped to promote literate societies This report attempts to answer these and other questions toward the ultimate goal of educating society
