Praying with My Eyes Wide Open Jerold E. Beeve, 2012 Dr Jerold Beeve hadn't uttered a serious prayer for more than 20 years But when an anniversary vacation to Fiji turned into a long term mission project that all changed A highly experienced ophthalmologist Dr Beeve was horrified by the lack of eye care in Fiji that allowed many even children to become unnecessarily blind He and his wife Dorothy immediately made plans set up a clinic on the island But how could they afford all the additional equipment and its transportation Could they rely on the IRS to approve their 501 c 3 request at the last minute And would the United States ambassador to Fiji ever answer his phone Just when Dr Beeve began to question his calling he decided to pray Within days everything fell into place with perfect precision That was only the beginning When the irreplaceable instrument needed for surgery broke when an emergency caused siblings Beni and Sally to require prompt attention in the States when Dorothy lay hours away from death th

Social Justice Education Kathleen Skubikowski, Catharine Wright, Roman Graf, 2023-07-14 This book addresses the combination of pedagogical curricular and institutional commitments necessary to create and sustain diversity on campus Its premise is that the socially just classroom flourishes in the context of a socially just institution and it invites faculty and administrators to create such classrooms and institutions This book grew out of a project involving deans and directors of teaching centers and diversity offices from six institutions to instigate discussions among teachers and administrators about implementing socially just practices in their classrooms departments and offices The purpose was to explore how best to foster such conversations across departments and functions within an institution as well as between institutions This book presents the theoretical framework used and many of the successful projects to which it gave rise Recognizing that many faculty have little preparation for teaching students whose backgrounds culture and educational socialization differ from theirs the opening foundational section asks teachers to attend closely to their and their students relative power and positionality in the classroom and to the impact of the materials resources and pedagogical approaches employed Further chapters offer analytical tools to promote inquiry and change The concluding sections of the book demonstrate how intra and inter institutional collaborations inspired teachers to rise to the challenge of their campuses commitments to diversity Among the examples presented is an initiative involving the faculty development coordinator and faculty from a wide range of domains at DePauw University who built upon an existing ethics initiative to embed social justice across the curriculum In another professors of mathematics from three institutions describe how they collaborated to create socially just classrooms that both serve mathematical learning and support service learning or community based learning activities The final essay by a student from the Maldives describing how she navigated the chasm between life in an American college and her family circumstances will reinforce the reader's commitment to establishing social justice in the academy This book provides individual faculty faculty developers and diversity officers with
