Morrison, 1976 Education Policy Formation in Africa, 1994 Comprises two analytical overview chapters and five case studies reflecting developments up to late 1992 A Sociology of Education for Africa Kenneth Blakemore, Brian Cooksey, 2017-04-28 This book first published in 1980 provides a summary of the major research findings of previous studies of the sociology of education in Sub Saharan Africa within an original and stimulating general framework whilst also devoting space to their own research findings The major themes of the book are education and social inequality the sociology of the school the teacher and the curriculum and education and development The student of the sociology of development will find a stimulating discussion of education in relation to socio cultural economic and political change in contemporary Africa

International Feminist Perspectives on Educational Reform David H. Kelly, 2017-05-18 Originally published in 1996 This volume brings together articles by Gail Paradise Kelly spanning a twenty year period It represents an aspect of the history of the feminist movement as related to education Early articles from 1970 onwards consider experiences of the students campus feminist movement of the late 60s and then move on to focus on education of women in the Third World Some co authored articles are included which looked at school process and directions for research As a whole the articles input to the discussion on how to study education and its meaning in society with particular reference to feminist thinking The Palgrave Handbook of Language Policies in Africa Esther Mukewa Lisanza, Leonard Muaka, 2024-07-08 This handbook explores language policies and their impacts in Africa examining the different language policies in each country from pre colonial to post colonial times Most African countries are multilingual apart from a handful which are said to be quasi monolingual The authors in this handbook investigate language policy in education media legal courts government documents and other public domains and show how these policies shape learning and delivery of services to the citizens The volume also pays special attention to the roles assigned to minority languages in Africa most of which are endangered The contributions also investigate how these language policies are influenced by the history of colonialism and language attitudes emanating from colonial rule This handbook will be of interest to a diverse audience of readers including those interested in African languages language planning and policy and African history and education Language in Education in Africa Casmir M. Rubagumya, 1990 This text aims to provide a realistic approach to the theoretical and philosophical aspects of ethics and the advancement of medical practice It reports on the clinical application of ethical concerns in an actual healthcare setting Mathematics Education Across Time and Place Thomas O'Shea, 2016-05-25 What is mathematics and what aspects of it should be taught in schools How and to whom should it be taught and how should its understanding be assessed These questions continue to drive curriculum development school organization teaching methods and research agendas No one today doubts that mathematics should be taught in our schools but this was not always so Mathematics

Education Across Time and Place aims to help mathematics teachers teacher educators and anyone else interested in mathematics education appreciate the path this discipline has taken through the ages To understand the historical and social context for schools and the place of mathematics within them we meet a variety of mathematics educators from different times and places Though fictional their lives and social circumstances are based on historical documents and professional sources They range from ancient Greece to modern Zimbabwe from Persia to British Columbia from Islamic Baghdad to revolutionary Paris from Elizabethan England to twentieth century New York and from the rural one room schools of North America to the modern comprehensive secondary school By sharing the teachers lives we come to understand how they developed their love for teaching mathematics and how their work fit into the larger social context of their time

Education as a Social Institution and Ideological Process Mbukeni Herbert Mnguni, Africa and particularly South Africa is in a stage of creating an inclusive education system It is a necessary starting point to first recognize the voices of those who are excluded and marginalized and then to develop strategies which will ensure their inclusion Tanzania And The Imf Horace Campbell,Howard Stein,Joel Samoff,2019-06-18 The recent debate on the consequences of structural adjustment for developing economies which took place between the World Bank and the United Nations Economic Commission on Africa underlines the need for further investigation of this important economic strategy Tanzania which for a decade had stood as a symbol of opposition to the International International Comparative Perspectives on Religion and Education Charl C. Wolhuter,Corene de Wet,2014-05-31 This book scrutinises religion in education in ten countries It reveals much about the tension between religion and education in secular countries and the blending between religion and education in religious countries such as Iran and Malaysia as well as secular countries such as the Netherlands It also shows the important role the church currently plays in education in developing countries such as Tanzania Church and State in Tanzania Frieder Ludwig,2023-09-29 Based on interviews and archival material this volume examines the different periods in the relationship between church and state in Tanzania from independence to 1994 Planning and Development in Education J.C.S. Musaaazi,2010-11-26 This reissue first published in 1986 offers a comprehensive treatment of educational development in four countries in West and East Africa Nigeria Uganda Kenya and Tanzania The author focuses on the role of education in promoting or hindering national development the way the educational system varies in response to societal and dialectical forces the place of education in major theories of change and development and the contribution made by education to economic social and political development Clearly and concisely written the book will be of interest to teachers administrators educational planners and scholars in comparative education and the history of education Black Africa Robert C. Mitchell,Donald G. Morrison,John N. Paden,1989-07-17 Black Africa presents political economic and social data for 41 black African nations The first edition was published in 1972 and included only data on 32 countries which was the total number of independent African nations at that time Enlarging on the first edition this second edition covers in detail important aspects of the countries included from demography to political development and social mobilization to a modern comparative analysis of African states Black Africa is a complete and comprehensive handbook The first edition of Black Africa won a Book of the Year Award from the American Library Association A Bibliography on Education in Development and Social Change in Sub-Saharan Africa Mark A. Grey,1989 This reference includes 700 sequentially numbered entries gleaned from journals institutions and other bibliographies during research at major collections of Africana It includes country and subject indexes The Development of Tertiary Education in the Eastern African Region Isabella M. Musyoka-Kamere,Daniel Namusonge Sifuna,Kisilu Kombo,2023-11-16 This book gives a riveting account of the higher education advancements made in five East African countries each presenting unique characteristics While some of the counties enjoyed relative calm throughout their years of growth and development others have endured a turbulent past marked by civil war coups and other forms of unrest including one of the most atrocious genocide events ever recorded in the history of mankind It is a known fact that the past defines the present and describes the future The book specifically tracks the historical development of teacher education technical and vocational education and training and university education in Kenya Uganda Tanzania Rwanda and Burundi The extensive research and up to date accounts provide a rich overview of tertiary education in the five countries with candid reviews of the past the current situation and perspectives on the future The book is a refreshing addition to the books of history and education and a must read for students professionals and policy makers in the field of higher education as well as scholars of history Learner-Centred Pedagogy in the Global South Nozomi Sakata,2022-10-21 Learner Centred Pedagogy in the Global South Pupils and Teachers Experiences shines light on learner centred pedagogy LCP which has gained popularity within global and national governments albeit resulting in puzzling and inconsequential appropriation Nozomi Sakata draws on award winning research on learner centred pedagogy conducted in Tanzania that looks to shift the focus from teachers and teaching to students and learning The recent spread of LCP through global policy discourse meets Tanzania s historical and contemporary in compatibility in local schools The book explores how pupils perceived classroom experiences are formed through pedagogical elements beyond the classroom It also enquires into how observable LCP activities and or pupils perceptions of classroom practices relate to their academic performance and learning attitudes The book highlights the multidimensionality of pedagogy and the need to consider multiple viewpoints from both teachers and pupils and to consider the historical and socio cultural contexts in any pedagogical research This book will be of value to researchers and students interested in pedagogy policy transfer and education reforms in the global South The Chapters 5 6 and 8 of this book are available for free in PDF format as Open Access from the individual product page at www.routledge.com It has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4 0 license Language of Inequality Nessa Wolfson,Joan Manes,2012-04-17 No detailed description available for Language of Inequality Language Planning and Education Gibson

Ferguson, 2006-03-13 Language Planning is a resurgent academic discipline reflecting the importance of language in issues of migration globalisation cultural diversity nation building education and ethnic identity Written as an advanced introduction this book engages with all these themes but focuses specifically on language planning as it relates to education addressing such issues as bilingualism and the education of linguistic minority pupils in North America and Europe the educational and equity implications of the global spread of English and the choice of media of instruction in post colonial societies Contextualising this discussion the first two chapters describe the emergence and evolution of language planning as an academic discipline and introduce key concepts in the practice of language planning The book is wide ranging in its coverage with detailed discussion of the context of language policy in a variety of countries and communities across North America Europe Africa and Asia Making Nations, Creating Strangers Sarah Rich Dorman, Daniel Patrick Hammett, Paul Nugent, 2007 This book explores the instrumental manipulation of citizenship and narrowing definitions of national belonging which refract political struggles in Zimbabwe Cote d'Ivoire Cameroon Somalia Tanzania and South Africa where conflicts are legitimated through claims of exclusionary nationhood and redefinitions of citizenship
