Christophorou,2005-12-27 This is an engrossing book It is also an unusual book it is written by a scientist who is quite willing to talk about the softer side of life about things such as love and respect and responsibility and to try and position them in the context of his science He is also willing to talk about religion the manner in which it relates to science and science to it and to attempt reconciliation of both He sets himself a tough task to tread the narrow path between the maudlin and the severely sober In this he is eminently successful He is successful not because he aims at any grand synthesis but because he has chosen the more modest path of simply laying out the cards on the table This work is also unusual for another reason The majority of books that attempt to explain science to a lay public that try to describe its workings its raison d tre its hidden contents its societal impact its implications for our future etc are written by theorists This is hardly surprising The theoretician after all is expected to think deeply to be the great unifier to be concerned with meaning Very few books about science are written by scientists ones who spend their time in a working experimental laboratory This is such a book And because it is it is also a very different book Web-Teaching David W. Brooks,Diane E. Nolan,Susan M.

Gallagher,2006-04-11 This book delves into a review of current research active learning strategies Web courseware metacognition strategies for Web discussions promoting student self regulation building interactive Web pages basic HTML coding managing Web sites using databases automated testing and security and legal issues It helps readers pick and choose what aspects of the Web to employ to achieve the greatest student learning gains Field Trips in Environmental Education

Martin Storksdieck,2011-01-01 HauptbeschreibungField trips are a popular method for introducing students to concepts ideas and experiences that cannot be provided in a classroom environment This is particularly true for trans disciplinary areas of teaching and learning such as science or environmental education While field trips are generally viewed by educators as beneficial to teaching and learning and by students as a cherished alternative to classroom instruction educational research paints a more complex picture At a time when school systems demand proof of the educational value of field trips large gaps ofte

Shadows & Light (Volume 2: Talks & Reflections) Francis J. Kaklauskas,Carla J. Clements,Dan Hocoy,Louis Hoffman,2020-06-10 Shadows Light Theory Research and Practice in Transpersonal Psychology is a groundbreaking 2 volume series covering many essential topics in transpersonal psychology Shadows Light Vol 2 builds on the tradition of transpersonal psychology to cover vital contemporary psychological topics ranging from mindfulness creativity compassion and the real world application of the integration of spirituality and psychology The range of topics and contributors is broad diverse and inclusive and will bring the reader on many inward and outward journeys of human growth and potential This collection contains talks and reflection pieces that are enjoyable and fascinating in the immediacy of the authors voices and their messages for the individual and the collective A wonderful selection of pieces by established leaders such as Charlie Tart angel Kyodo williams Judy Lief and Roger Walsh as well as influential emergent scholars such as Ian Wickramesekera II Dan Hocoy and Louis Hoffman These volumes are destined to become a classic text in the field Global Perspectives in the Geography Curriculum Alex Standish,2008-10-07 For geographers across the globe this book provides the arguments for a return to the teaching of geography and why they should reject the politicisation of the subject by education policy makers and politicians Standish s careful critique shows the necessity of a depoliticised geography curriculum the irony of which would be that it would ensure that every child could point to Iraq Iran and Afghanistan on a map Prof Dennis Hayes Oxford Brookes University UK A prescient and critical analysis of the changing face of geography teaching This book deserves to be widely read and debated Alex Standish s book puts current trends in geography teaching in historical and critical context It comprises a forthright and timely defence of geographical education for its own sake Dr Jim Butcher FRSA Department of Sport Science Tourism and Leisure Canterbury Christ Church University Since the early 1990s educational policy makers and some subject leaders have been seeking to fundamentally change the teaching of geography in UK and US schools from a subject which encourages students to explore spatial concepts ideas and skills to a more ethics based subject concerned with the promotion of environmentalism cultural diversity and social justice In this book the new approach is critically examined within a historical and ideological context addressing a number of fundamental questions Should geography be used as a tool for the delivery of citizenship ideals How does this affect the intellectual and moral value of geographical education for young people If the state and teachers are taking more responsibility for the values attitudes and emotional responses of students how will they learn to develop these qualities for themselves If global perspectives shift the focus of education from learning about the outside world to learning about the self what is its vision of social progress and conception of social change This book advocates a return to liberal models of education arguing that the new approach to geography currently being promoted for schools fundamentally undermines the educational value of the subject and the freedom of young people to shape the world in which they live A vital resource for teachers and student teachers alike Global Perspectives in the Geography Curriculum makes a significant contribution to the growing debate about the future direction of the discipline itself Schooling for Sustainable Development in Chinese Communities John Chi-Kin Lee,Michael Williams,2009-04-29 This book focuses on the academic foundations trends and traditions of environmental education for sustainable development principally in Chinese contexts It highlights contexts and case studies that illuminate recent Chinese initiatives It includes case studies of green schools and reports on recent initiatives in school based ESD curriculum development programmes in China Hong Kong Macao and Taiwan The book concludes with an overview chapter that points to likely future developments The assumption underpinning the book is that experiences gained in such a major country as

China will be of real interest to geographical and environmental educationists professional educators and teachers elsewhere Not only will it generate interest and create greater awareness but also it is hoped that these experiences will provide a platform for scholarly exchange and contribute insights on education policy and curriculum changes across Asian Pacific communities in an increasingly globalised world Environmental Education ,2008 Design & Technology David Barlex,2007 Work, Learning and Sustainable Development John Fien,Rupert Maclean,Man-Gon Park,2008-10-26 This book is the first that provides a comprehensive overview of the way countries education systems and institutions have responded to the call for an integration of learning for work citizenship and sustainability at the Second International Conference on Technical and Vocational Education which was held in Seoul in 1999 Discussions on the central theme of the Seoul Conference lifelong learning and training for all a bridge to the future led to the conclusion that a new paradigm of both development and Technical and Vocational Education TVET was needed This book showcases the wide range of international initiatives that have sought to put such exhortations into practice It includes case studies of national TVET policy reforms reoriented curricula sustainable campus management programs and examples of innovative approaches to integrating learning in TVET with on the job training and in community service It also focuses on the issues and challenges being faced and ways of moving forward Case studies feature initiatives in a wide range of world regions and countries and include authors from UK Germany Finland Canada USA Australia South Africa China Republic of Korea India Pakistan and the Philippines A Love of Discovery Robert G. Fuller,2013-04-17 Robert Karplus a professor of physics at the University of California Berkeley USA became a leader in the movement to reform elementary school science in the 1960s This book selects the enduring aspects of his work and presents them for the scientists and science educators of today In an era when science education for ALL students has become the clarion call the insights and works of Robert Karplus are as relevant now as they were in the 1960s 70s and 80s This book tries to capture the essence of his life and work and presents selections of his published articles in a helpful context Stumbling Toward Sustainability John C. Dernbach,2002 In 1992 at the United Nations Conference on Environment and Development in Rio de Janeiro the nations of the world agreed to implement an ambitious plan for ecologically sustainable human development This book is a comprehensive review of U S efforts to achieve such development since Rio The U S has unquestionably begun to take steps toward sustainable development Yet the nation is now far from being a sustainable society and in many respects is farther away than it was in 1992 Nevertheless legal and policy tools are available to put the U S on a direct path to sustainability This book brings together 42 distinguished experts from a variety of backgrounds and academic disciplines It is among the most thorough assessments ever conducted of U S law and policy concerning the environment Curriculum 21 Heidi Hayes Jacobs,2010-01-05 What year are you preparing your students for 1973 1995 Can you honestly say that your school s curriculum and the program you use are preparing your students for 2015 or 2020 Are you even preparing them for today With those provocative questions author and educator
