Navigating the Ubiquitous, Misunderstood, and Evolving Role of the Educational Leadership Program Coordinator in Higher Education Noelle A. Paufler, Ellen H. Reames, 2023-11-01 Navigating the Ubiquitous Misunderstood and Evolving Role of the Educational Leadership Program Coordinator in Higher Education is an edited volume of chapters focused on the role of the program coordinator PC in educational leadership The book is a recent addition to the book series Dimensions of Leadership and Institutional Success Exploring Connections and Partnerships edited by Ellen H Reames Noelle A Paufler and Ellen H Reames editors created this book to examine various aspects of the PC role because it has been largely ignored in the educational leadership preparation literature The book examines various aspects of the PC role to include responsibilities navigating the politics and policies of higher education and educational agencies internal and external problems and barriers related to the role and recommendations and possibilities for enhancing the PC role The book is divided into 3 sections Section 1 centers on the roles of the PC and also includes a model that can be used to structure PC responsibilities within programs Section 2 focuses the readers attention to present misunderstanding of the PC as a quasiadministrative role which appears to be gaining in clarity through present research Section 3 gives a glimpse to future trends which includes the growing use of clinical faculty as PCs The primary audience is higher education faculty and administrators The term program coordinator spans across all disciplines and is used in most higher education institutions across the United States Higher education institutions are also interested in sustaining partnerships within the university and the communities beyond This book can assist with nuances of partnership development for any higher education field of study The audience also includes faculty in higher educational leadership program development and school university partnership development and enhancement across public and private enterprises who are educating future leaders Other interested groups are university and school based professionals who are seeking to improve relationships partnerships and collaborations between educational leadership preparation programs and K 12 districts and related agencies The book would also be of value to those who conduct research in the areas of partnership creation and implementation and to those who conduct research which improves educational leadership preparation and development The role of the PC in educational leadership is critical to the success of higher education leadership preparation programs and is often very different than PCs in other higher education disciplines

Current Issues in School Leadership Larry W. Hughes, 2005 Examines controversies about and affecting school practices Focusing on two questions what is important to today s school leaders and what is interfering with schooling processes it includes chapters by a broad range of authors

Successful School Leadership James W. Guthrie, Patrick Jude Schuermann, 2010 The introductory volume in the Peabody Educational Leadership Series Successful School Leadership provides readers with a solid overview of the primary topics that current and aspiring leaders will be faced with when making decisions regarding education organizations Blending leadership theory and practice this foundational leadership text provides cutting edge content in each of the key domains of responsibility facing current and aspiring school leaders while weaving case studies current media articles and reflection point into each chapter to enhance student synthesis and application The book is divided into four frames of reference for optimal learning Planning Politics Performance and Power the functions with which educational leaders must continually grapple In each section readers are presented with information about what school leaders need to know to successfully surmount the modern challenges to education and instruction Section one provides a foundation for the book by discussing the evolving context of educational leadership and proposes a strategic orientation to leading educational organizations through continual cycles of appraisal analysis and action Section two delves into the important issues of governance politics finance and law as major contributors to the context of education and as levers by which school leaders can shape institutions Section three explores the various ways in which school leaders can assess and enhance the performance of their schools and educational organizations The final section of text provides students with information about educational leader strategies in the development of people partnering with communities and uses of power while the final two chapters give practical insights into the preparation for practicing strategic education leadership
