MacCadden, 1937 Education in Pennsylvania 1801 - 1835 and its debt to Roberts Vaux Joseph James MacCadden, 1937 Education in Pennsylvania, 1801-1835, and Its Debt to Roberts Vaux, Etc. [With a Portrait, Facsimiles, and a Bibliography]. Joseph J. Maccadden, Roberts VAUX, 1937 The Most Reverend Francis Kenrick, Third Bishop of Philadelphia, 1830-1851 Hugh Joseph Nolan, 1948 Bulletin - Bureau of Education United States. Bureau of Education, 1906 Reconstructing American Education Michael B. Katz, 2009-07-01 One of the leading historians of education in the United States here develops a powerful interpretation of the uses of history in educational reform and of the relations among democracy education and the capitalist state Michael Katz discusses the reshaping of American education from three perspectives First is the perspective of history How did American education take shape The second is that of reform What can a historian say about recent criticisms and proposals for improvement The third is that of historiography What drives the politics of educational history Katz shows how the reconstruction of America s educational past can be used as a framework for thinking about current reform Contemporary concepts such as public education institutional structures such as the multiversity and modern organizational forms such as bureaucracy all originated as solutions to problems of public policy The petrification of these historical products which are neither inevitable nor immutable has become Katz maintains one of the mighty obstacles to change The book s central questions are as much ethical and political as they are practical How do we assess the relative importance of efficiency and responsiveness in educational institutions Whom do we really want institutions to serve Are we prepared to alter institutions and policies that contradict fundamental political principles Why have some reform strategies consistently failed On what models should institutions be based Should schools and universities be further assimilated to the marketplace and the state Katz s iconoclastic treatment of these issues vividly and clearly written will be of interest to both specialists and general readers Like his earlier classic The Irony of Early School Reform 1968 this book will set a fresh agenda for debate in the field Bibliography of Research Studies in Education ,1934 Statistics of Land-grant Colleges and Universities United States. Office of Education, 1937 Thomas Henry Burrowes, 1805-1871 Robert Landis Mohr, 2016-11-11 This book is a volume in the Penn Press Anniversary Collection To mark its 125th anniversary in 2015 the University of Pennsylvania Press rereleased more than 1 100 titles from Penn Press s distinguished backlist from 1899 1999 that had fallen out of print Spanning an entire century the Anniversary Collection offers peer reviewed scholarship in a wide range of subject areas Pennsylvania History Studies Pennsylvania Historical Association, 1954 The American Model of State and School Charles L. Glenn, 2012-04-26 State and Schools argues that the American educational model represents a third way of organizing the provision of schooling and that this accounts for some of its strengths as well as some of its weaknesses Charles L Glenn looks closely at the tradition of democratic localism in the management of schooling and the powerful and anti democratic effect of the emerging education profession which has in some respects the characteristics of a religious movement more than of a true profession A sweeping chronological survey State and Schools includes chapters on the colonial background schooling in the New Republic the creation of an education profession and the progressive education movement among others Glenn s primary purpose in this authoritative and thoroughly researched book is to illustrate the deep roots of ways of thinking about schools that have made it difficult for policy makers and the public to do what needs to be done to enable schools to function as they should for our society and for future generations Education in Pennsylvania, 1801-1835, and Its Debt to Roberts Vaux, by Joseph J. McCadden,... With a Foreword by Edward H. Reisner,... Submitted... for the Degree of Doctor of Philosophy in the Faculty of Philosophy, Columbia University Joseph J. Mac Cadden,1937
