Ecology Into Economics Wont Go Or Life Is Not A Concept:

Ecology Into Economics Won't Go, Or, Life is Not a Concept Stuart McBurney, 1990 Main Currents in Western Environmental Thought P. R. Hay, 2002 Topics covered include the roots of environmental philosophy the development of ecophilosophy deep ecology and ecofeminism how religion relates to environmental values environmentalists writings on science and epistemology animal liberation the role of place the economic dimensions of environmental thought environmental writing in various political traditions and green writers critiques of political movements The work draws from the disciplines of philosophy political science psychology sociology and cultural studies Cleaner Production and Industrial Ecology Leenard Willem Baas, Leo Baas, 2005 A Commodified World Colin C. Williams, 2005-03-04 This volume provides a critique of the assumption of increasing commodification in the modern economy The Fading of the Greens Anna Bramwell, 1994-01-01 In this sequel to her successful Ecology in the 20th Century Anna Bramwell provides a witty and controversial analysis of the failure to create a new politics Neither a Green text nor a political history it focuses on the development of Green parties and ideology since 1945 and on the cultural context in which they developed in England Germany and the USA An environmental expert and policy maker Bramwell examines the shift from lonely conservative ecologists fighting a losing battle against the emphasis on growth and reconstruction to the emergence of deep ecologism and a revulsion against the increasing industrialisation of the West She explores the paradox of a movement hostile to orthodox science yet inextricably bound to science for its justification its rationale and its values Poverty and the Third Way Colin C Williams, Colin C. Williams, Jan Windebank, 2003-08-29 The subject of poverty and how it can be tackled is a significant issue at the moment both in the UK and the US This book provides a thought provoking new approach to the subject developing a method which transcends capitalism and socialism Wide ranging audience human geography social policy sociology economics etc also practitioners in fields of community development and local economic development International market written as much for the North American market as for the UK and European Theology of Money Philip Goodchild, 2009-06-22 Theology of Money is a philosophical inquiry into the nature and role of money in the contemporary world Philip Goodchild reveals the significance of money as a dynamic social force by arguing that under its influence moral evaluation is subordinated to economic valuation which is essentially abstract and anarchic His rigorous inquiry opens into a complex analysis of political economy encompassing markets and capital banks and the state class divisions accounting practices and the ecological crisis awaiting capitalism Engaging with Christian theology and the thought of Carl Schmitt Georg Simmel Karl Marx Adam Smith and many others Goodchild develops a theology of money based on four contentions which he elaborates in depth First money has no intrinsic value it is a promise of value a crystallization of future hopes Second money is the supreme value in contemporary society Third the value of assets measured by money is always future oriented dependent on expectations about how much might be obtained for those assets at a later date Since this value

when realized will again depend on future expectations the future is forever deferred Financial value is essentially a degree of hope expectation trust or credit Fourth money is created as debt which involves a social obligation to work or make profits to repay the loan As a system of debts money imposes an immense and irresistible system of social control on individuals corporations and governments each of whom are threatened by economic failure if they refuse their obligations to the money system This system of debt has progressively tightened its hold on all sectors and regions of global society With Theology of Money Goodchild aims to make conscious our collective faith and its dire implications

Immersive Systemic Knowing

Raghav Rajagopalan, 2020-10-16 This book advances systems thinking by introducing a new philosophy of systemic knowing It argues that there are inescapable limits to rational understanding Humankind has always depended on extended ways of knowing to complement the rational analytic approach The book establishes that the application of such methods is fundamental to systemic practice The author advocates embracing two modes of consciousness intentionality which Western philosophy has long recognized and non intentional awareness which Eastern philosophy additionally highlights The simultaneity of these two modes of consciousness and the variety of knowings they spawn are harnessed for a more holistic systemic knowing Four practices from fields related to systems thinking are examined two contemporary action research methodologies from the US and the UK the Sumedhian Indian approach to inquiry about processes within groups and a technique of group psychotherapy originating in Eastern Europe Each of these systematically harnesses knowing using both modes of consciousness Therefore the author insists such approaches must be included in systemic practice in purposeful and methodical juxtaposition to rational analytic ways The book provides examples and guidelines for deployment All researchers and practitioners of systems thinking and action research must read this book Raghav has craftfully blended Eastern and Western wisdom He uses his immersion into Eastern ways of knowing practically to elaborate the systems philosophy in rich detail He has incorporated from cooperative inquiry as action research the idea of four ways of knowing practical propositional presentational and experiential to bolster the foundations of systems thinking SHANKAR SANKARAN Professor University of Technology Sydney Australia President International Society of Systems Sciences ISSS 2019 2020 This is a book with the potential to stimulate the emergence of a new paradigm Raghav shows that systems thinking can transcend rational analysis and incorporate other ways of knowing such as arts based methods also rather than be overly preoccupied with striving for change there is value in simply abiding which comes with a deep appreciation of the ecological relationships we are part of It is not that rational analysis is wrong it is that it is only part of a genuinely transformative practice GERALD MIDGLEY Co Director Centre for Systems Studies University of Hull former President ISSS 2013 14 Raghav Rajagopalan's writing on generating deep appreciation for the social and ecological interdependencies ties in closely with my own work The philosophical ideas he develops contain the tracings and essential tones of Gregory Bateson's idea of Mind as a process of living complexities reaching well beyond the notion of the body This book demonstrates outstanding erudition and deep compassion at the same time It should delight the adventurous reader unafraid of big questions NORA BATESON President of the International Bateson Institute Community Self-Help D. Burns,C. Williams,J.

Windebank,2004-03-24 This book explores the dynamics of community self help in local neighbourhoods It shows how widespread it is and argues that it should be considered as the third major sector of social and economic organization alongside the state and market Danny Burns Colin C Williams and Jan Windebank examine community self help as a springboard into the mainstream a complement to it and an alternative Finally the book opens out a vision of social organization with self help and mutual aid at its heart A Companion to Environmental Thought Peter Hay,2002 This book provides a comprehensive overview of the complex and endlessly transforming state of western environmentalism surveying the main strands of thought from the fields of politics philosophy religion and economics Locating Value Samantha Saville,Gareth Hoskins,2019-11-21 This book considers the concept of value at the root of our actions and decision making Value is an ever present yet little interrogated aspect of everyday life This book explores value as it is theorised practiced and critiqued from a variety of disciplinary perspectives It examines how value is operationalized endorsed and contested in contemporary society With international insights from leading scholars chapters offer a diverse and vibrant geographical engagement with value to showcase its conceptual flexibility The book explores value s eclectic epistemic foundations it s roll out and legitimation across a range of policy fields and its challenges and opportunities The book draws on global examples of value in practice from forest conservation in Indonesia protected area management in arctic Norway a state park in the US certification schemes for biodiversity in the UK protection of the international night sky heritage planning in East Taiwan a re developed airport site in Norway a local food networks in Canada and the UK a market in the US and urban development in China The book will be of interest to human geographers political ecologists heritage scholars and practitioners planners and those working in public policy as well as practitioners and policy makers interested in how valuation processes work

ECOS ,1990 Building the Critical Anthropology of Climate Change Hans A. Baer,Merrill Singer,2024-08-14 This book applies a critical perspective to anthropogenic climate change and the global socio ecological crisis The book focuses on the critical anthropology of climate change by opening up a dialogue with the two main contending perspectives in the field namely the cultural ecological and the cultural interpretive perspectives Guided by these the authors take a firm stance on the types of changes that are needed to sustain life on Earth as we know it Within this framework they explore issues of climate and social equity the nature of the current era in Earth s geohistory the perspectives of the elite polluters driving climate change and the regrettable contributions of anthropologists and other scholars to climate change Engaging with perspectives from sociology political science and the geography of climate change the book explores various approaches to thinking about and responding to the existential threat of an ever warming climate In doing so it lays the foundation for a brave new sustainable world that is socially just highly democratic and climatically safe for humans and other species This book will be of interest to researchers and students studying environmental anthropology climate change human geography sociology and political science Rethinking Leadership for a Green World Andrew Taylor, 2022-03-20 First James Lovelock and recently Prince William and David Attenborough believe that we have reached a tipping point in the process of climate change Whether they are right or not it is certainly true that the impact of humankind upon the ecology of the earth has reached a point where real changes in human behaviour are required If managers are to be enablers of planetary survival then we need to develop a new approach to risk which explicitly includes ecological limits upon economic behaviour This implies a fundamental reorientation of their role in allocating resources to minimise risk and maximise reward This book brings together some of the brightest contemporary thinkers on leadership complexity and sustainability to consider the big ideas that we will need to make the changes required and to outline the major themes that can inform a new approach to constructing a green world It looks at how to ensure that local models of sustainability are able to flourish in the context of global networks and presents specific case studies of markets and organisations that offer insights into the development integrated solutions and the leadership lessons we can learn Combining both theory and practice this book serves to guide business managers and provides deeper insight and critical perspectives on some of the key issues facing leaders moving towards the green economy It also provides useful supplementary reading for students in business and environmental studies

Environment, 1992 Advances in Life Cycle Engineering for Sustainable Manufacturing Businesses Shozo Takata, Yasushi Umeda, 2007-07-26 Life cycle engineering deals with technologies for shifting the industry from mass production and mass consumption paradigm to closed loop manufacturing paradigm in which required functions are provided for customers with the minimum amount of production This subject is discussed from the various aspects such as life cycle design design for environment reduce reuse recycle life cycle assessment and sustainable business models Advances in Life Cycle Engineering for Sustainable Manufacturing Businesses gathers together papers from the 14th International CIRP Life Cycle Engineering Conference This conference is the longest running annual meeting in the field in which papers are presented regarding developments of leading edge technologies proposals of new concepts and prominent industry case studies Eco-Economy Lester R. Brown, 2013-10-31 In 1543 Polish astronomer Nicolaus Copernicus challenged the view that the sun revolved around the earth arguing instead that the earth revolved around the sun His paper led to a revolution in thinking In Lester Brown's brilliant and invigorating account of the industrial economy he shows how a rethink of its fossil fuel based throwaway ethos is necessary to ensure that it works with not against the natural environment The issue now is whether the environment is part of the economy or the economy is part of the environment Brown argues the latter pointing out that treating the environment as part of the economy has produced an economy that is destroying its natural support systems One of the foremost experts on the new economic opportunities Brown shows the vast economic potential and environmental gains that exist from eliminating the waste and destruction of current consumption He describes how the global economy can be restructured to make it compatible with the earth's ecosystem so that economic progress can continue with high standards of living and secure employment for all while conserving resources and restoring the environment. In the new economy wind farms replace coal mines, hydrogen powered fuel cells replace internal combustion engines, and cities are designed for people not cars. Eco Economy is a map of how to get from here to there. It is an essential guide to the economy of the 21st century and will be compelling reading for business readers and environmentalists alike looking for ways to build a better future.

Sustainability Principles and Practice Margaret Robertson, 2014-03-14

Sustainability Principles and Practice gives an accessible and comprehensive overview of the interdisciplinary field of sustainability. The focus is on furnishing solutions and equipping the student with both conceptual understanding and technical skills for the workplace. Each chapter explores one aspect of the field, first introducing relevant theory and presenting issues, then supplying tools for working toward solutions. Elements of sustainability are examined piece by piece and wide coverage ranges over ecosystems, social equity, environmental justice, food, energy, product life cycles, cities, and more. Techniques for management and measurement as well as case studies from around the world are provided. Chapters include further reading, discussion questions, and problems to foster quantitative thinking. The book is supported by a companion website with key website links, detailed reading lists, glossary, and additional case studies, together with numerous projects, research problems, and group activities, all of which focus on real-world problem solving of sustainability issues. The textbook is designed to be used by undergraduate college and university students in sustainability degree programs and other programs in which sustainability is taught.

Handbook of the Circular Economy Miguel Brandão, David

Lazarevic, Göran Finnveden, 2020-12-25. This crucial Handbook brings together the latest thinking on the circular economy, an area that has increasingly caught global attention. Contributors explore a broad range of themes such as recycling systems and new business models, as well as consolidating the many ways in which the topic has been dealt with in research, business, and policy making. The Handbook of the Circular Economy is not only relevant but also essential for students, academics, and policy makers trying to make sense of the plethora of ways in which the term has been applied and interpreted.

Knowledge Systems of Societies for Adaptation and Mitigation of Impacts of Climate Change Sunil Nautiyal, K.S.

Rao, Harald Kaechele, K.V. Raju, Ruediger Schaldach, 2013-07-09. Climate change is broadly recognized as a key environmental issue affecting social and ecological systems worldwide. At the Cancun summit of the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change's 16th Conference, the parties jointly agreed that the vulnerable groups, particularly in developing countries and whose livelihood is based on land use practices, are the most common victims, as in most cases their activities are shaped by the climate. Therefore, solving the climate dilemma through mitigation processes and scientific research is an ethical concern. Thus, combining the knowledge systems of the societies and scientific evidences can greatly assist in the creation of coping mechanisms for sustainable development in a situation of changing climate. International Humboldt Kolleg focusing on knowledge systems of societies and Climate Change was organized at ISEC This event was of unique importance as the year 2011 12 was celebrated as the 60th Anniversary of Diplomatic Relations between India and Germany with the motto Germany and India Infinite Opportunities This volume is the outcome of the papers presented during the IHK 2011 at ISEC India
