Hofman,2000 This book provides an assessment of Latin American 20th century economic performance from a comparative and historical perspective The author uses growth accounting methods and previously unavailable long term series data to present a comprehensive analysis of Latin American development over the course of the century The performance of Latin American economies over this period is compared to that of three groups of countries the advanced capitalist economies of France Germany Japan The Netherlands UK and USA the newly industrialised economies of Korea and Taiwan and Spain and Portugal with which Latin America has historical ties This presents a long run comparative perspective of growth acceleration and slow down in Latin America The reasons for the comparatively poor or negative economic growth in the Lost Decade of the 1980s are examined as is the apparent economic recovery in the 1990s The author also reviews other problems associated with the Latin American economies including debt problems income inequality high inflation cyclical instability and political and policy instability and measures the ability of various countries to combat these challenges Finally the author analyses major stabilisation policies over the period and assesses their success This book will prove a valuable asset to students and scholars of Latin American economics international economics and development economics Economic and Social Progress in Latin America, 1991 Report Inter-American Development Bank,1991 Targeting the Foreign Direct Investor Edward J. Coyne, Sr.,2012-12-06 Foreign Direct Investment FDI is one avenue for offering assistance to developing countries in their efforts to grow Small countries typically have limited resources to direct toward investment attraction programs so the ability to segment the market of Multinational Corporations looking to invest is a crucial skill This book develops and employs an investment preference analysis model to give evidence that homogenous groups of investors can be identified Once these groups are identified their needs specific preference requirements for laws regulations incentives and
