Europe is one of the main challenges facing economics in the 1990s Combining the detached analysis of a Western specialist with the detailed knowledge of two Eastern European academics Economic Transition in Eastern Europe avoids a priori assumptions and superficial description to give a rigorous empirical analysis of the process of transition Professor Ellman begins with a discussion of the general aspects of transition He explains the difference between the current transition and the former reform and examines the reasons for the collapse of the old system He also discusses different approaches to
