Eight London Households:

Eight London Households Sandra Wallman, 1984-01-01      Family budgets: income and expenses of twenty-eight British households, 1891-1894 Family budgets, 1896      The Household Economy Richard R Wilk, 2019-07-11 This book focuses on the economic decisions that must be made in the household It states that domestic activities are commonly grouped into two primary types one having to do with social reproduction the other with the production and consumption of foods      The Blackwell Companion to the Sociology of Families Jacqueline Scott, Judith Treas, Martin Richards, 2008-04-15 Tackling issues relevant to family life today this authoritative Companion shows why studying social change in families is fundamental for understanding the transformations in individual and social life across the globe Contains original essays by expert contributors on a wide range of topics relating to the sociology of families Includes coverage of social inequality parenting practices children's work the changing patterns of citizenship and multi cultural families Gives special attention to European and North American examples Discusses previously neglected groups including immigrant families and gays and lesbians Explores how revolutionary changes in aging longevity and sexual behavior have radically affected the experience of different generations and the relationships between them      Consuming Technologies Eric Hirsch, Roger Silverstone, 2003-09-02 Consuming Technologies opens for analysis some crucial but rarely examined areas of social cultural and economic life At its core is a concern with the complex set of relationships that mark and define the place of the domestic in the modern world and an explanation of the relationship between the domestic and public spheres as they are mediated by consumption and technology      Social Relations and Social Exclusion Peter Somerville, 2012-10-12 Examining the rational individual this book develops a new approach to the theory of social relations It explores how far we make sense of society on the assumption that people act as independent and free individuals exercising rational choice Re examining the family community workplace and state the author offers a thorough and original critique of the social policies of New Labour

Servicing the Middle Classes Nicky Gregson, Michelle Lowe, 2005-08-03 Investigates the rise of a new servant class in response to demands by the middle class and the socio economic trends which have led to this and profound change this reflects in our concepts of motherhood class and gender relations      The Creolisation of London Kinship Elaine Bauer, 2010 In the last 50 years the United Kingdom has witnessed a growing proportion of mixed African Caribbean and white British families With rich new primary evidence of mixed race in the capital city The Creolisation of London Kinship thoughtfully explores this population Making an indelible contribution to both kinship research and wider social debates the book emphasises a long term evolution of family relationships across generations Individuals are followed through changing social and historical contexts seeking to understand in how far many of these transformations may be interpreted as creolisation Examined too are strategies and innovations in relationship construction the social constraints put upon them the special significance of women and children in kinship work and the importance of non biological as well as biological notions of family relatedness P 4 of cover      Home Territories David Morley,2000 Home Territories examines how traditional ideas of home homeland and nation have been destabilised both by new patterns of migration and by new communication technologies which routinely transgress the symbolic boundaries around both the private household and the nation state David Morley analyses the varieties of exile diaspora displacement connectedness mobility experienced by members of social groups and relates the micro structures of the home the family and the domestic realm to contemporary debates about the nation community and cultural identities He explores issues such as the role of gender in the construction of domesticity and the conflation of ideas of maternity and home and engages with recent debates about the territorialisation of culture      Race and Racism Peter Jackson,2003-09-02 First Published in 1987 In September 1985 the Social Geography Study Group of the Institute of British Geographers held a three day conference at Coventry Lanchester Polytechnic on the subject of Race and Racism The present volume is a selection of essays derived from some of the papers that were given at the conference together with one newly commissioned paper by Susan Smith and an introductory essay      Many Pathways to Literacy Eve Gregory,Susi Long,Dinah Volk,2004-02-19 This unique and visionary text is a compilation of fascinating studies conducted in a variety of cross cultural settings where children learn language and literacy with siblings grandparents peers and community members Focusing on the knowledge and skills of children often invisible to educators these illuminating studies highlight how children skilfully draw from their varied cultural and linguistic worlds to make sense of new experiences The vastly experienced team of contributors provide powerful demonstrations of the generative activity of young children and their mediating partners family members peers and community members as they syncretise languages literacies and cultural practices from varied contexts Through studies grounded in home school community school nursery and church settings we see how children create for themselves radical forms of teaching and learning in ways that are not typically recognised understood or valued in schools This book will be invaluable reading for teachers teacher educators researchers and policy makers who seek to understand the many pathways to literacy and use that knowledge to affect real change in schools      Designing Research in Education Jon Swain,2016-11-08 This is a clear introduction to the methodological and philosophical debates in the field of education research It sets out the key ideas questions and dilemmas which inform all research and then through the careful use of case studies and practical advice from experienced researchers grounds them in the specific concerns of education and educational studies Written by experienced academics and teachers the book links broad philosophical principles with practical strategies for designing and conducting ethical and effective research Perfect for postgraduate students planning their own research in education this book will help you to Understand the philosophical foundations of your work Conceptualise and refine your research question Pick the right methodology for your research Embed ethical considerations throughout your research This book is an ideal companion for any postgraduate student or early career academic conducting research across education and educational studies      Method in Social

Science Andrew Sayer, 2010-12-31 In its second edition Method in Social Science was widely praised for its penetrating analysis of central questions in social science discourse This revised edition comes with a new preface and a full bibliography The book is intended for students and researchers familiar with social science but having little or no previous experiences of philosophical and methodological discussion and for those who are interested in realism and method      Analysing Families Alan Carling, Simon Duncan, Rosalind Edwards, 2005-07-05 With contributions from the UK and North America this book directly addresses the social processes responsible for the changes in the family role looking at how social policy interacts with what families actually do      Theories of Race and Ethnic Relations John Rex, David Mason, 1986 This book brings together internationally known scholars from a range of disciplines and theoretical traditions In setting out the various theories it demonstrates the range and diversity of approaches to race and ethnic relations current in the field As well as identifying important and persistent points of controversy however the collection also reveals much complementarity and indicates the potential for a multi faceted approach to theorization The theories represented include contributions from the perspective of sociology social anthropology sociobiology and social psychology      Married Women and Property Law in Victorian Ontario Anne Lorene Chambers, Osgoode Society for Canadian Legal History, 1997-01-01 A meticulously researched and revisionist study of the nineteenth century Ontario s Married Women s Property Acts They were important landmarks in the legal emancipation of women      Birthrights Robert Lee, 2003-09-02 Should surrogacy be allowed What guidelines are needed to control in vitro fertilization programmes What should we tell the children born in the wake of the reproduction revolution about their origins These are typical of the many issues addressed in a book which seeks to challenge the ethical basis for much of the legal regulation of matters surrounding birth First published in hardback in spring 1989 Birthrights deals with a controversial area which continues to be at the centre of much public debate The editors new preface especially written for the paperback edition surveys important developments in legislation since the book s first publication      The Public Life of Friendship Jennifer Wilkinson, 2019-01-09 This book is about friendships in public settings today Wilkinson examines friendships in the public settings of neighbourhoods civil society and at work Identifying the unique relevance which public friendships have to contemporary social problems the chapters cover a range of topics including work life balance women s double burden and their leisure deficit and contemporary neighbouring initiatives Wilkinson shows how friendship time at work provides solutions to new social problems including privacy with the modern workplace being hyper public and emphasizing visibility monitoring and 24 7 availability friendship s combination of voluntarism and trust enable a private refuge even in an open plan office The book also explores the way in which friendships in public settings like work and neighbourhood provide community to those in society who are more likely to be excluded from private familial intimacy The Public Life of Friendship will be of interest to students and scholars across a range of social science disciplines with an interest in friendship and the sociology of personal life      Understanding Community Peter Somerville, 2016-04-25 This substantially revised edition of a highly topical text draws upon theory from Marx and Bourdieu to offer a clearer understanding of community in capitalist society The book takes a more critical look at the literature on community development and the politics of community and applies this critical approach to themes introduced in the first edition on economic development learning health and social care housing and policing taking into account the changes in policy that have taken place particularly in the UK since the first edition was written It will be a valuable resource for researchers and students of social policy sociology and politics as well as areas of housing and urban studies

Local Civil Society Robin Mann,David Dallimore,Howard Davis,Graham Day,Marta Eichsteller,2024-08-13 Epdf and ePUB available Open Access under CC BY NC licence Drawing on place based field investigations and new empirical analysis this original book investigates civil society at local level The concept of civil society is contested and multifaceted and this text offers assessment and clarification of debates concerning the intertwining of civil society the state and local community relations Analysing two Welsh villages the authors examine the importance of identity connection with place and the impact of social and spatial boundaries on the everyday production of civil society Bringing into focus questions of biography and temporality the book provides an innovative account of continuities and changes within local civil society during social and economic transformation
