King* Leonard William King, 1918 Legends of Babylon and Egypt in Relation to Hebrew Tradition Leonard W. King, 2014-05-22 The interconnected influences of different traditions of ancient mythology on one another consumed the archaeological efforts of the late 19th and early 20th century though much work in Britain and Europe was interrupted by the outbreak of World War I. This fascinating 1918 study, adapted from a series of lectures delivered to the British Academy in 1916, rings with the frustration of its British author. A renowned classical scholar, King incorporates the then latest research from American academics into his intriguing analysis of the impact of Babylonian and Egyptian mythology on the foundations of Judaism. Drawing on newly discovered five thousand year old texts, he weaves a narrative of the folklore of human origins unbroken from our earliest collective memories. His comparison of the creation and deluge stories from a range of ancient Old World civilizations remains compelling today. British classical scholar LEONARD W KING 1869-1919 was Assistant Keeper of Egyptian and Assyrian Antiquities at the British Museum and professor of Assyrian and Babylonian archaeology at the University of London King's College. He also wrote Babylonian Magic and Sorcery 1896 and A History of Sumer and Akkad 1910 Egypt the Cradle of Ancient Masonry Norman Frederick De Clifford, 1907 Oklahoma Genealogical Society Quarterly, 1993
