Ein Beitrag Zur Geschichte Der Koniglich:

Itinerant Kingship and Royal Monasteries in Early Medieval Germany, C.936-1075 John W. Bernhardt, 2002-08-22 In examining the relationship between the royal monasteries in tenth and eleventh century Germany and the German monarchs this book assimilates a great deal of European scholarship on a central problem that of the realities and structures of power It focuses on the practical aspects of governing without a capital and while constantly in motion and on the payments and services which monasteries provided to the king and which in turn supported the king's travel economically and politically Royal monastic relations are investigated in the context of the itinerant kingship of the period to determine how this relationship functioned in practice It emerges that German rulers did in fact make much greater use of their royal monasteries than has hitherto been recognised Journal of the Royal Asiatic Society of Great Britain and Ireland Royal Asiatic Society of Great Britain and Ireland, 1921 Bulletin of the New York Public Library New York Public Library, 1914 Includes its Report 1896 1945 Journal of the Royal Statistical Society Royal Statistical Society (Great Britain), 1909 Published papers whose appeal lies in their subject matter rather than their technical statistical contents Medical social educational legal demographic and governmental issues are of particular concern J. S. Bach at His Royal Instrument Russell Stinson, 2012 In J S Bach at His Royal Instrument author Russell Stinson delves into various unexplored aspects of the organ works of Johann Sebastian Bach Drawing on previous research and new archival sources he sheds light on many of the most mysterious aspects of these masterpieces and their reception and shows how they have remained a fixture of Western culture for nearly three hundred years Die wahrhaft königliche Stadt Daniela Kah, 2017-11-13 English In Eine wahrhaft königliche Stadt Daniela Kah describes how contemporary residents and visitors were able to experience and perceive the presence of the Holy Roman Empire or its representatives e.g. the king in three late medieval cities Augsburg Nürnberg and Lebeck After receiving privileges from the king these cities initiated large construction projects designed to assert their imperial status These projects had a major impact on everyday life and made the Empire visible and graspable within the city However in the 13th century the cities increasingly deployed symbols and signs to represent their self-understanding as imperial Being immediate to the Empire or being privileged provided important political economic and social benefits Therefore it became very important to the cities to represent their status in visible form For this reason the Empire achieved a permanent and lasting presence in free imperial cities Deutsch In Eine wahrhaft königliche Stadt beschreibt Daniela Kah wie das mittelalterliche Reich oder seine Repräsentanten wie zum Beispiel der König in den Reichsstädten Augsburg Nürnberg und Lebeck für die zeitgenössischen Bewohner und Besucher erfahrbar war und wahrgenommen wurde Zunächst führte die Vergabe von königlichen Privilegien zu groß angelegten repräsentativen Bauprojekten in den Städten die das Reich so im städtischen Alltag erkennbar werden ließen Ab dem 13. Jahrhundert kam es dazu dass die Städte vermehrt Symbole und Zeichen im Stadtraum anbrachten die ihr Selbstverständnis visualisieren Der Status unmittelbar dem Reich zugehörig beziehungsweise vom Reich privilegiert zu sein wurde aufgrund seiner politischen wirtschaftlichen und prestigesteigernden Bedeutung ein wichtiger Bezugspunkt der zur dauerhaften Prsenz des Reichs in den Reichsstädten führte

Schooling German Girls and Women James C. Albisetti, 2014-07-14 James Albisetti provides the first comprehensive study in any language of the development of secondary schools for girls in the various German states during the nineteenth century and of the struggles waged by women after 1865 to gain access to higher education and the liberal professions Through comparisons with contemporaneous developments in other European countries he points out what was typical and what unique in the German experience in such areas as the operation and curricula of girls schools the opportunities for women teachers the debates over increased educational and employment opportunities for women and the strategies and tactics adopted by feminist organizations The work is based on a wide variety of published sources and on the previously unexplored archives of the Prussian Ministry of Education Topics discussed include the divisions between feminists interested in separate educational institutions for women and those wanting coeducational study at both the secondary and the university levels and the impact of feminists on the major educational reforms introduced in Prussia and other German states between 1900 and 1910 Acknowledging that German women gained the right to matriculate at domestic universities later than did their sisters in most other European countries the author suggests that an examination of the entire spectrum of educational and employment opportunities for women reveals no discernable German Sonderweg or special path of modernization in this area Originally published in 1989 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Supplement to the Alphabetical Catalogue of the Library of the Royal Geographical Society John Murray, 1871 Catalogue of Scientific Papers (1800-1863) ; Compiled and Published by the Royal Society of London , 1867 The Archaeology of Phrygian Gordion, Royal City of Midas C. Brian Rose, 2013-03-16

Some of the most dramatic new discoveries in Asia Minor have been made at Gordion the Phrygian capital that controlled much of central Asia Minor for close to two centuries The most famous ruler of the kingdom was Midas who regularly negotiated with Greeks in the west and Assyrians in the east during his reign Excavations have been conducted at Gordion over the course of the last 60 years all under the auspices of the University of Pennsylvania Museum of Archaeology and Anthropology In spite of the economic and political importance of Gordion and the Phrygians the site is consistently omitted from courses in Old World archaeology primarily because Gordion lies too far to the west for many Near Eastern archaeologists and too far to the east for classical archaeologists Moreover there is no book that offers a comprehensive and up to date assessment of the material culture of Gordion during the Phrygian period a gap that will be filled by this volume The chapters cover all aspects of Gordion s Phrygian settlement topography from the arrival of the Phrygians in the tenth century B C through the arrival of Alexander the Great in 333 B C focusing on the site s changing topography and the consistently fluctuating interaction between the inhabitants and the landscape A reexamination of the material culture of Phrygian Gordion is particularly timely given the dramatic recent changes in the site s chronology wherein the dates of many discoveries have changed by as much as a century The authors are among the leading experts in Near Eastern archaeology historic preservation paleobotany and ancient furniture and their articles highlight the interdisciplinary nature of the Gordion project A significant component of the book is a new color phase plan of the site that succinctly presents the topography in diachronic perspective University Museum Monograph 136 Journal of the Royal Institute of British Architects Royal Institute of British Architects, 1913 Proceedings of the Royal Society of Edinburgh Royal Society of Edinburgh, 1872 List of fellows for 1908 in v 25
