Rhetoric and Galatians Philip H. Kern,1998-12-03 This monograph challenges the accepted notion that Galatians is either a sample of classical rhetoric or should be interpreted in light of Graeco Roman rhetorical handbooks It demonstrates that the handbooks of Aristotle Cicero et al discuss a form of oratory which was limited with respect to subject venue and style of communication and that Galatians falls outside such boundaries The inapplicability of ancient canons of rhetoric is reinforced by a detailed comparison of Galatians with the handbooks a survey of patristic attitudes towards Paul s communicative technique and interaction with twentieth century discussions of the nature of New Testament Greek Dr Kern concludes that rhetorical handbooks were never a tool of literary criticism and that they cannot assist the search for a distinctly Pauline rhetoric Thus this study has implications not only for Galatians but also for other New Testament epistles

A Cyclopedia of Education Paul Monroe, 1913 Gender and Rhetorical Space in American Life, 1866-1910 Nan Johnson, 2002 Nan Johnson demonstrates that after the Civil War nonacademic or parlor traditions of rhetorical performance helped to sustain the icon of the white middle class woman as queen of her domestic sphere by promoting a code of rhetorical behavior for women that required the performance of conventional femininity Through a lucid examination of the boundaries of that gendered rhetorical space and the debate about who should occupy that space Johnson explores the codes governing and challenging the American woman's proper rhetorical sphere in the postbellum years While men were learning to preach practice law and set political policies women were reading elocution manuals letter writing handbooks and other conduct literature These texts reinforced the conservative message that women's words mattered but mattered mostly in the home Postbellum pedagogical materials were designed to educate Americans in rhetorical skills but they also persistently directed the American woman to the domestic sphere as her proper rhetorical space Even though these materials appeared to urge the white middle class women to become effective speakers and writers convention dictated that a woman's place was at the hearthside where her rhetorical talents were to be used in counseling and instructing as a mother and wife Aided by twenty one illustrations Johnson has meticulously compiled materials from historical texts no longer readily available to the general public and in so doing has illuminated this intersection of rhetoric and feminism in the nineteenth century The rhetorical pedagogies designed for a postbellum popular audience represent the cultural sites where a rethinking of women's roles becomes open controversy about how to value their words Johnson argues this era of uneasiness about shifting gender roles and the icon of the quiet woman must be considered as evidence of the need for a more complete revaluing of women's space in historical discourse The Invention of Judaism John J.

Collins, 2017-02-21 Judaism is often understood as the way of life defined by the Torah of Moses but it was not always so This book identifies key moments in the rise of the Torah beginning with the formation of Deuteronomy advancing through the reform of Ezra the impact of the suppression of the Torah by Antiochus Epiphanes and the consequent Maccabean revolt and the rise of Jewish sectarianism It also discusses variant forms of Judaism some of which are not Torah centered and others which construe the Torah through the lenses of Hellenistic culture or through higher apocalyptic revelation It concludes with the critique of the Torah in the writings of Paul Provided by publisher Judah's Desire and the Making of the

Abrahamic Israel Hong Guk-Pyoung, 2024-07-01 In this refreshing exploration of Judah's identity formation the emphasis is placed on the psychological underpinnings of Judah's sentiments towards Israel aiming to illuminate the significance of Judah's appropriation of Israel Richly contextual this book draws parallels observed in Asian contexts notably those of North and South Korea and China with its marginal Others Central to the thesis is that Judah's perceived inferiority to Israel played a crucial role in its quest to appropriate Israel's legacy and identity Adopting a functionalist lens Judah's rewriting of Israel's ancestral past is examined The Abraham and Jacob traditions are understood as competing identity narratives serving as critical discursive tools to construct their pasts The study scrutinizes how the southern Abraham tradition fundamentally reoriented the Jacob tradition North Israel's standalone ancestral myth Set against the broader canvas of continued efforts to redefine and embody Israel within the history of Judeo-Christian religions this exploration underscores how Judah's pivotal appropriation of Israel has established a paradigm for all future endeavors of becoming Israel New Nation-States and

National Minorities Julien Danero Iglesias, Nenad Stojanović, Sharon Weinblum, 2013-03-01 The twentieth century saw the emergence of new states shaped on the classic nation state model How has this model been moulded and implemented What have been the implications for minorities in these new nation states And how have minorities responded to nationalising processes Following a discussion by Rogers Brubaker of his concept of nationalising state contributions to this volume examine the dynamic relations between national minorities and nation states established in the course of the last century including Ukraine Moldova Turkey Malaysia and Israel This book's original theoretical framework and comparative approach offer a new understanding of the complex interactions between the formulation of a state identity and the aspirations of those who do not fit in the proclaimed core nation In light of recent developments in notably Ukraine and Israel this book is essential reading for all those interested in the rights and protection of national minorities and more broadly in the debates over the definition of the polity in a tense environment The Science of Rhetoric David Jayne Hill, 1877 The House of

My Sojourn Jane S. Sutton, 2010-11-30 Envisions the relationship between women and rhetoric as a house a structure erected in ancient Greece by men that historically has made room for women but has also denied them the authority and agency to speak from within White Horizon Jen Hill, 2009-01-08 Bridging historical and literary studies White Horizon explores the importance of the Arctic to British understandings of masculine identity the nation and the rapidly expanding British Empire in the nineteenth century Well before Coleridge s Ancient Mariner and Mary Shelley s Frankenstein polar space had come to represent the limit of both empire and human experience Using a variety of texts from explorers accounts to boys adventure fiction as well as provocative and fresh readings of the works of Mary Shelley Charlotte Bront Charles Dickens and Wilkie Collins Jen Hill illustrates the function of Arctic space in the nineteenth century British social imagination arguing that the desolate north was imagined as a pure space a conveniently blank page on which to write narratives of Arctic exploration that both furthered and critiqued British imperialism
