Evangelism Mike Booker, Mark Ireland, 2005. This book will help church leaders lay and ordained locally and nationally to choose selectively from the resources available to develop a coherent and effective strategy for evangelism within the whole mission of the church. Back cover

The Living Church, 1976 Evangelism - Which Way Now? Mike Booker, Mark Ireland, 2010. Fully updated 2nd edition of this guide to today's evangelistic techniques designed to help churches find the most appropriate strategy for evangelism in their community. Encyclopedia of Christian Education George Thomas Kurian, Mark A. Lamport, 2015-05-07. Christianity regards teaching as one of the most foundational and critically sustaining ministries of the Church. As a result, Christian education remains one of the largest and oldest continuously functioning educational systems in the world, comprising both formal day schools and higher education institutions as well as informal church study groups and parachurch ministries in more than 140 countries. In The Encyclopedia of Christian Education contributors explore the many facets of Christian education in terms of its impact on curriculum, literacy, teacher training, outcomes and professional standards. This encyclopedia is the first reference work devoted exclusively to chronicling the unique history of Christian education across the globe, illustrating how Christian educators pioneered such educational institutions and reforms as universal literacy, home schooling, Sunday schools, women's education, graded schools, compulsory education of the deaf and blind and kindergarten. With an editorial advisory board of more than 30 distinguished scholars and five consulting editors, The Encyclopedia of Christian Education contains more than 1,200 entries by 400 contributors from 75 countries. These volumes cover a vast range of topics from Christian education history spanning from the church's founding through the Middle Ages to the modern day; denominational and institutional profiles; intellectual traditions in Christian education; biblical and theological frameworks; curricula; missions; adolescent and higher education; theological training and Christian pedagogy; biographies of distinguished Christian educators. This work is ideal for scholars of both the history of Christianity and education as well as researchers and students of contemporary Christianity and modern religious education

Following Jesus in Invaded Space Chris Budden, 2009-05-04 Christianity is never just about beliefs but habits and practices for better or worse Theology always reflects the social location of the theologian including her privileges and prejudices all the time working with a particular often undisclosed notion of what is normal Therefore theology is never neutral it defends particular constructions of reality and it promotes certain interests Following Jesus in Invaded Space asks what and whose interests theology protects when it is part of a community that invaded the land of Indigenous peoples Developing a theological method and position that self consciously acknowledges the church s role in occupying Aboriginal land in Australia it dares to speak of God church and justice in the context of past history and continuing dispossession Hence a Second people s theology emerges through constant and careful attention to experiences of invasion and dis location brought into dialogue with the theological landscape or tradition of the church      The Scottish sabbath school teachers' book.
