Choreographing Difference Ann Cooper Albright, 2010-06-01 The choreographies of Bill T Jones Cleveland Ballet Dancing Wheels Zab Maboungou David Dorfman Marie Chouinard Jawole Willa Jo Zollar and others have helped establish dance as a crucial discourse of the 90s These dancers Ann Cooper Albright argues are asking the audience to see the body as a source of cultural identity a physical presence that moves with and through its gendered racial and social meanings Through her articulate and nuanced analysis of contemporary choreography Albright shows how the dancing body shifts conventions of representation and provides a critical example of the dialectical relationship between cultures and the bodies that inhabit them As a dancer feminist and philosopher Albright turns to the material experience of bodies not just the body as a figure or metaphor to understand how cultural representation becomes embedded in the body In arguing for the intelligence of bodies Choreographing Difference is itself a testimonial giving voice to some important political moral and artistic questions of our time Ebook Edition Note All images have been redacted

Jewish Men and the Holocaust: Sexuality, Emotions, Masculinity Florian Zabransky, 2024-10-21 During the Holocaust amid death and violence Jewish men were not mere powerless victims Linking gender studies with a history of sexuality and emotions will highlight intimate agency power struggles negotiations of relationships social dynamics and representations of masculinities Considering the agency and vulnerability will further convey intimate choices the representation of masculine ideals intimate violence and the expression of various emotions such as honour and love As research on the Holocaust often links women with sexuality or portrays women as gendered beings it is crucial to excavate the intimate hidden lives of Jewish men and their specific intimate experiences as men The analysis not only demonstrates how Jewish men remember and make sense of their experiences but also how they chose to form the narrative and how they represented their ordeal in four chapters namely ghettos concentration camps Jewish resistance in the countryside and finally DP camps in the aftermath of the Holocaust The consideration of these four spaces allows a nuanced innovative understanding of the intimate history of Jewish men during the Holocaust i e how some men established male dominated structures and established intimate strategies to find solace and pleasure
