Black-Arab Encounters in Literature and Film Touria Khannous,2021-08-27 This book investigates how representations of Black Africans have been negotiated over time in Arabic literature and film The book offers direct readings of a representative selection of primary texts shedding light on the divergent ways these authors understood race across different genres including pre Islamic classical poetry polemical essays travel narratives novels and films Starting with the first recognized Black Arab poet Antara Ibn Shaddad 580 C E and extending right up to the present day the works examined illuminate the changes in consciousness that attended Black Africans as they negotiated their position in Arab society In a twist to Edward Said s Orientalism the book argues that scholars in the Middle East and North Africa generated a hierarchical representational discourse themselves one equally predicated on the Self Other binary However it also demonstrates that Arab racial discourse is not a linear rhetoric but changes according to history political circumstances and ideologies such as tribal politics the Shu ubiyya movement nationalism and imperialism Blacks and Arabs have had tangled relationships that are based not only on race but also on kinship and solidarity due to trade and other types of connections Challenging fundamental assumptions of Black Diaspora studies and postcolonial studies this book will be of interest to scholars of the African diaspora Arabic literature Middle East studies and critical race studies Urban Growth in Ethiopia, 1887-1974 Getahun Benti, 2016-12-20 This book highlights the positive achievements that Imperial Ethiopia made in its journey towards urbanization into the modern era and undertakes a critical assessment of the economic political and social impediments that prevented the country from transitioning into a truly fully fledged modern urbanization It provides a comprehensive history of the growth of towns between 1887 and 1974 It is organized chronologically regionally and thematically divided into three distinct time periods during which Ethiopian towns saw progresses and exposures to limited modern urban features First during 1887 1936 the country saw the creation and growth of a national capital 1887 that coordinated the country s economic and political activities and facilitated the growth of other towns in the empire It introduced new towns the railway modern schools and health centers Rudimentary factories were established in Addis Ababa and Dire Dawa along with motor cars and modern roads which increased trade between cities The next era was the Italian occupation from 1936 1941 which shook the pre existing process of urban growth by introducing a modern European style urbanization system Ethiopian cities saw a qualitatively different way of urban growth in both form and content The Italians introduced modern economic and physical planning administration and internal organization People were introduced to modern life in urban areas exposed to modern wage labor system and thus moved to towns to take advantage of the opportunity The Italian occupation left behind many features of modern urbanization and this influenced population exposed to modern consumptive tastes was determined to retain what the Italians introduced Finally the post Italian period saw a new era of urban growth Due to economic and organizational problems resulting from destructions caused by the war the process of urban growth was slowed down in the early 1940s Although the government did not introduce a clear urban policy in the immediate aftermath of the Second World War towns continued to grow progressively from the early 1950s to 1974

The Oxford World History of Empire Peter Fibiger Bang,C. A. Bayly,Walter Scheidel,2020-12-02 This is the first world history of empire reaching from the third millennium BCE to the present By combining synthetic surveys thematic comparative essays and numerous chapters on specific empires its two volumes provide unparalleled coverage of imperialism throughout history and across continents from Asia to Europe and from Africa to the Americas Only a few decades ago empire was believed to be a thing of the past now it is clear that it has been and remains one of the most enduring forms of political organization and power We cannot understand the dynamics and resilience of empire without moving decisively beyond the study of individual cases or particular periods such as the relatively short age of European colonialism The history of empire as these volumes amply demonstrate needs to be drawn on the much broader canvas of global history Volume Two The History of Empires tracks the protean history of political domination from the very beginnings of state formation in the Bronze Age up to the present Case studies deal with the full range of the historical experience of empire from the realms of the Achaemenids and Asoka to the empires of Mali and Songhay and from ancient Rome and China to the Mughals American settler colonialism and the Soviet Union Forty five chapters detailing the history of individual empires are tied together by a set of global synthesizing surveys that structure the world history of empire into eight chronological phases
