Contours of African American Politics John F. Knutson, 2017-07-05 Contours of African American Politics chronicles the systematic study of African American politics and its subsequent recognition as an established field of scholarly inquiry African American politics emanates from the demands of the prolonged struggle for black liberation and empowerment Hence the study of African American politics has sought to track codify and analyze the struggle that has been mounted and to understand the historic and changing political status of African Americans within American society This two volume set presents a selection of scholarship on African American politics as it appeared in The National Political Science Review from its initial launch in 1989 to the spring of 2009 Represented are contributions from some of the leading scholars of African American politics who have helped to establish and sustain the field The volumes are organized around themes that derive from the unfolding real life drama of African American politics and its subsequent scholarly treatment The result is a window into the political efforts that meld the historically disparate strands of black political expressions into a reconstructed and strategically nimble electoral based mass mobilization necessary for optimizing the impact of the African American vote Sections in the volumes also chronicle the evolution of the National Conference of Black Political Scientists as a professional organization The two volumes illuminate a pivotal epoch in black political empowerment and provide a context for the future of black politics

Covenant with Black America - Twenty Years Later Tavis Smiley, 2024-08-27 Twenty years after sparking a national dialogue The Covenant with Black America returns with renewed urgency weaving original insights with contemporary voices and reminding us that our collective liberation is essential for a more equitable society Two decades ago Tavis Smiley curated a pivotal national dialogue with the publication of The Covenant with Black America This groundbreaking manifesto swiftly captured the nation's attention by addressing the critical issues facing African Americans and became a 1 New York Times bestseller challenging America to confront systemic inequalities with extraordinary determination Today as we commemorate its 20th anniversary the urgency of these issues has only intensified Despite significant strides the disparities in health housing justice and economic opportunity continue to disproportionately affect Black communities underscoring the enduring relevance of our collective commitment This new edition intertwines original essays with powerful new contributions from today's leading voices presenting a compelling blend of historical insights and contemporary urgency These essays are not merely reflections but are calls to action reminding us that the path to equality is ongoing and demanding Through these pages we revisit the original ten covenants updated with new data and analysis that reveal both progress and the troubling persistence of inequality This edition also includes a new essay on the state of homelessness in the Black community as numbers have risen to an all time high With a special Afterword by the esteemed poet Nikki Giovanni this anniversary edition of The Covenant with Black America is a testament to the enduring spirit of advocacy and a beacon of light and hope for future generations It invites us all to partake in the crucial work of reshaping America into a more equitable society echoing the timeless truth that our collective liberation uplifts the entire nation As Smiley writes in the Introduction I am convinced in this critical moment of American history that our nation needs us now more than ever to confront the forces of extremism and extend the rich tradition of deep democracy in America as we expand justice and freedom for all Ethnic Politics and Civil Liberties Lucius J. Barker, 2017-09-29 The official publication of the National Conference of Black Political Scientists this annual publication includes significant scholarly research reflecting the diverse interests of scholars from various backgrounds who use a variety of models approaches and methodologies The central focus is on politics and policies that advantage or disadvantage groups because of race ethnicity sex or other such factors The research is performed in a variety of contexts and settings This third volume includes an introductory note by the editor Lucius J Barker in which he assesses the performance of the Journal in defining a different political science and a note by incoming editor Matthew Holden Jr outlining topics and agendas for future volumes Feature articles include Reconceptualizing Urban Violence Political Science and the Black Political Experience The Impact of At Large Elections on the Representation of Black and White Women State Responses to Richmond v Croson A Survey of Equal Opportunity Officers Media in Warsaw Pact States Explanations of Crisis Coverage and Presence of Immigrants and National Front Vote The Case of Paris 1984 1990 The Book Review Section includes review essays on East European research black urban politics and the political reincorporation of southern blacks and regular book reviews on minority groups and American political culture and other areas Conversions and Visions in the Writings of African-American Women Kimberly Rae Connor, 1994 The subsequent achievement of selfhood is then based on the interplay of individual and community identities Connor suggests that the distinctiveness of African American women's experiences and writings can transcend their immediate communities and be brought to bear on women's experiences in general making their individual stories more accessible and meaningful to the whole of humankind Black American Cinema Manthia Diawara, 2012-10-02 This is the first major collection of criticism on Black American cinema From the pioneering work of Oscar Micheaux and Wallace Thurman to the Hollywood success of Spike Lee Black American filmmakers have played a remarkable role in the development of the American film both independent and mainstream In this volume the work of early Black filmmakers is given serious attention for the first time Individual essays consider what a Black film tradition might be the relation between Black American filmmakers and filmmakers from the diaspora the nature of Black film aesthetics the artist's place within the community and the representation of a Black imaginary Black American Cinema also uncovers the construction of Black sexuality on screen the role of Black women in independent cinema and the specific question of Black female spectatorship A lively and provocative group of essays debate the place and significance of Spike Lee Of crucial importance are the ways in which the essays analyze those Black directors who worked for Hollywood and whose films are simplistically dismissed as sell outs to the Hollywood master narrative as well as those crossover filmmakers whose achievements entail a surreptitious infiltration of the studios Black American Cinema demonstrates the wealth of the Black contribution to American film and the complex course that contribution has taken Contributors Houston Baker Jr Toni Cade Bambara Amiri Baraka Jacquie Bobo Richard Dyer Jane Gaines Henry Louis Gates Jr Ron Green Ed Guerrero bell hooks Phyllis Klotman Ntongele Masilela Clyde Taylor and Michele Wallace

Blackening Britain James G. Cantres, 2020-12-10 Covering the period from the interwar years through the arrival of the steamship SS Empire Windrush from Jamaica in 1948 and culminating in the period of decolonization in the British Caribbean by the early 1970s this project situates the development of networks of communication categories of identification and Caribbean radical politics both in the metropole and abroad Blackening Britain explores how articulations of Caribbean identity formation corresponded to the following themes organic collective action political mobilization cultural expressions of shared consciousness and novel patterns of communication Blackening Britain shows how colonial migrants developed tools of resistance in the imperial center predicated on their racialized consciousness that emerged from their experiences of alienation and discrimination in Britain This book also interrogates the ways in which prominent West Indian activists intellectuals political actors and artists conceived of their relationship to Britain Ultimately this work shows a move away from British identity and a radical revolutionary consciousness rooted in the West Indian background and forged in the contentious space of metropolitan Britain
