The World We Make N. K. Jemisin, 2022-11-01 Four time Hugo Award winning and New York Times bestselling author N K Jemisin crafts a glorious tale of identity resistance magic and myth All is not well in the city that never sleeps Even though the avatars of New York City have temporarily managed to stop the Woman in White from invading and destroying the entire universe in the process the mysterious capital E Enemy has more subtle powers at her disposal A new candidate for mayor wielding the populist rhetoric of gentrification xenophobia and law and order may have what it takes to change the very nature of New York itself and take it down from the inside In order to defeat him and the Enemy who holds his purse strings the avatars will have to join together with the other Great Cities of the world in order to bring her down for good and protect their world from complete destruction N K Jemisin's Great Cities Duology which began with The City We Became and concludes with The World We Make is a masterpiece of speculative fiction from one of the most important writers of her generation The Great Cities Duology The City We Became The World We Make Quarterly Essay 54 Dragon's Tail Andrew Charlton, 2014-06-21 In Dragon's Tail Andrew Charlton explores the supercharged rise of China and considers Australia's future as the Chinese dragon stirs and shifts China's rise has been perhaps the most significant economic event in two centuries occurring 100 times more quickly and on a scale 1000 times larger than Britain's Industrial Revolution Since 2000 Australia has been an essential part of this transformation providing the raw materials to feed China's frantic manufacture of steel vertebrae for everything from cars and trucks to railways apartments and office towers China's appetite for resources has made us richer than ever before but it has also drained the competitiveness from many parts of our economy leaving us vulnerable In Dragon's Tail Andrew Charlton shows that China's growth model is now reaching its limit and the world's most populous economy faces a challenging transition Whether China crashes or crashes through this will have dramatic implications for Australia slowing the demand for our resources and forcing us to reassess the foundations of our wealth Charlton looks at ways to revitalise the Australian economy and secure our prosperity in a changing world Understanding China's growth model helps explain why Australia has done so well in the twenty first century But it also explains why at the same time our economic anxiety is reaching a zenith why Holden is leaving why the budget is in such an apparent quagmire why house prices are soaring why the dollar is so volatile China's growth has brought us a windfall but it is a precarious sort of prosperity Andrew Charlton Dragon's Tail Andrew Charlton is the author of Ozonomics Fair Trade for All written with Nobel laureate Joseph Stiglitz and Quarterly Essay 44 Man Made World which won the 2012 John Button Prize From 2008 to 2010 he was senior economic adviser to Prime Minister Kevin Rudd He previously worked for the London School of Economics and the United Nations and received his doctorate in economics from Oxford University where he studied as a Rhodes Scholar The Oxford Handbook of Victorian Literary Culture Juliet John, 2016 The Oxford Handbook of Victorian Literary Culture is a major contribution to the dynamic field of Victorian studies This collection of 37 original chapters by leading international Victorian scholars offers new approaches to familiar themes including science religion and gender and gives space to newer and emerging topics including old age fair play and economics Structured around three broad sections on Ways of Being Identity and Ideology Ways of Understanding Knowledge and Belief and Ways of Communicating Print and Other Cultures the volume is sub divided into nine sub sections each with its own lead essay on subjectivity politics gender and sexuality place and race religion science material and mass culture aesthetics and visual culture and theatrical culture The collection like today's Victorian studies is thoroughly interdisciplinary and yet its substantial Introduction explores a concern which is evident both implicitly and explicitly in the volume's essays that is the nature and status of literary culture and the literary from the Victorian period to the present. The diverse and wide-ranging essays present original scholarship framed accessibly for a mixed readership of advanced undergraduates, graduate students and established scholars.

Chamber of the Dragon's Soul Thomas Everill, 2011. What if everything you ever knew was a lie? Your whole life conjured by another? Would you know the truth if you saw it? Could you believe the impossible? Embrace a world just beyond your dreams. A place of mystery, wonder. John and Tom were lost in a world Tom felt was never their own. Their peaceful, secluded lives would become chaos in a flash of memories long buried in the mind of a child on the verge of an awakening. Across the void, Lynkara must reach out to her brothers and bring them to an unimaginable homecoming on the eve of annihilation by the darkest powers her world has ever known. Together with a band of new-found friends, they must search out and acquire the twelve SWORDS OF POWER bestowed to the ruling families of all the countries on their world by the Creator himself. A few brave souls will join the quest to save themselves and their world from the coming darkness. However, Lord Camas of Jahanna refuses to give up his power and forges an unlikely alliance with Prince Reven of Amador. For a deadly price, he will unleash his monstrous hordes upon the rest of the world. Together, they will wage an unending war that will encompass the face of Astridia in chaos and bloodshed for years to come. With the uneasy alliance in place, Lord Camas calls on the Dark magic of old and the Ancient dragon TOPHET, whose very name means Death. He was conjured by the black warlock Kemmal in the bowels of Hell itself to conquer the entire world.

Re-reading The Alexandria Quartet of Lawrence Durrell (Durrell Studies 8) Richard Pine, 2023-08-25. Lawrence Durrell's The Alexandria Quartet is regarded as the central work in his fiction. It has provoked critical commentary ever since the appearance of its individual volumes: Justine (1957), Balthazar (1958), Mountolive and Clea (1959), and the publication in a one-volume edition in 1962. Scores of Master's and PhD dissertations have been written since the 1960s on this most compelling and provocative novel. Today The Alexandria Quartet stimulates critical discussion in works addressing the city, Durrell's representation of Alexandria, the theory of relativity, the role of memory, the recurring feature of the doppelgänger and the presence of the Gothic, uncanny, his frequent references to D. H. Lawrence, his treatment of women characters, his interest in Gnosticism, and his own description of the Quartet as a strange mixture of sex and the secret service. This volume of essays addresses all these themes and brings together the mature work of four scholars on this central work of Durrell's fiction, together with two essays on its sequels Tunc Nunquam (1968-70) and The Avignon Quintet (1974-85).

London in Cinema Charlotte Brunsdon, 2019-07-25. Charlotte Brunsdon's illuminating study explores the variety of cinematic Londons that appear in films made since 1945. Brunsdon traces the familiar ways that film-makers establish that a film is set in London by use of recognisable landmarks and the city's shorthand iconography of red buses and black taxis, as well as the ways in which these icons are avoided. She looks at London weather, fog and rain, and everyday locations like the pub and the housing estate, while also examining the recurring patterns of representation associated with films set in the East and West Ends of London from Spring in Park Lane 1948 to Mona Lisa 1986 and from Night and the City 1950 to From Hell 2001 Brunsdon provides a detailed analysis of a selection of films exploring their contribution to the cinematic geography of London and showing the ways in which feature films have responded to and created changing views of the city. She traces London's transformation from imperial capital to global city through the different ways in which the local is imagined in films ranging from Ealing comedies to Pressure 1974 as well as through the shifting imagery of the River Thames and the Docks. She addresses the role of cinematic genres such as horror and film noir in the constitution of the cinematic city as well as the recurrence of figures such as the cockney, the gangster and the housewife. Challenging the view that London is not a particularly cinematic city, Brunsdon demonstrates that many London set films offer their own meditation on the complex relationships between the cinema and the city.

Cityscapes of the Future, 2018-02-27 Cityscapes of the Future: Urban Spaces in Science Fiction offers an examination of the central role played by urban spaces in science-fictional narratives in various media forms from the literary to the ludic to the cinematic. Our contributors reflect on the ways diverse urban scenarios are central to the narratives' science-fictional imaginary and consider the pivotal roles cityscapes play in underscoring major thematic concerns such as political struggles, social inequality and other cultural epistemologies. The chapters in the collection are divided into three sections examining the city and the body, cities of estrangement and cities of the imagination.

Wandering Women Laura Di Bianco, 2022-12-06 Wandering Women: Urban Ecologies of Italian Feminist Filmmaking explores the work of contemporary Italian women directors from feminist and ecological perspectives. Mostly relegated to the margins of the cultural scene and concerned with women's marginality, the compelling films Wandering Women sheds light on tell stories of displacement and liminality that unfold through the act of walking in the city. The unusual emptiness of the cities that the nomadic female protagonists traverse highlights the absence of and their wish for life-sustaining communities. Laura Di Bianco contends that women's urban filmmaking while articulating a claim for belonging and asserting cinematic and social agency brings into view landscapes of the Anthropocene where urban decay and the erasure of nature intersect with human alienation. Though a minor cinema, it is also a powerful movement of resistance against the dominant male narratives about the world we inhabit. Based on interviews with directors, Wandering Women deepens the understanding of contemporary Italian cinema while enriching the field of feminist ecocritical literature.
