fiction It is entertaining and perceptive The storyline and characters are very relatable Her writing is detailed descriptive and humorous so that it is thoroughly engaging What a brilliant follow on the life of the main character Love the sense of humour the author has Can t wait to start the next instalment This book touches on adjusting to a new life of not just being married but living in a new city and away from family and friends Away from everything that married people knew before tying the knot There s a lot of nuances on post marriage traditions and experiences ranging from dawats chores comments on how soon to have children moving jobs visiting the maternal home and dynamics with in laws even if you live separately As with the previous two books the cultural stuff is what I enjoyed the most especially as you don t get Bengali proverbs and things like that in books and TV shows It felt like home throughout and I think I ve got a new favourite author added now There s been so many moments where I forgot it s fiction but what else is fiction if not snippets of our reality Overall I love how the protagonist develops since the first book You really see how her outlook on friendship family work love really
