Dark Writing Paul Carter, 2008-10-31 We do not see empty figures and outlines we do not move in straight lines Everywhere we are surrounded by dapple the geometry of our embodied lives is curviform meandering bi pedal Our personal worlds are timed inter positional and contingent But nowhere in the language of cartography and design do these ordinary experiences appear This Dark Writing argues is a serious omission because they are designs on the world architects and colonizers use their lines to construct the places where we will live But the rectilinear streets squares and public spaces produced in this way leave out people and the entire environmental history of their coming together How this book asks can we explain the omission of bodies from maps and plans And how can we redraw the lines maps and plans use so that the qualitative world of shadows footprints comings and goings and occasions all essential qualities of places that incubate sociality can be registered In short Dark Writing asks why we represent the world as static when our experience of it is mobile It traces this bias in Enlightenment cartography in inductive logic and in contemporary place design This is the negative critique Its positive argument is that when we look closely at these designs on the world we find traces of a repressed movement form Even the ideal lines of geometrical figures turn out to contain traces of earlier passages and there are many forms of graphic design that do engage with the dark environment that surrounds the light of reason How can this dark writing so important to reconfiguring our world as a place of meeting of co existence and sustaining diversity be represented And how therefore can our representations of the world embody more sensuously the mobile histories that have produced it Dark Writing answers these questions using case studies the exemplary case of the beginnings of the now world famous Papunya Tula Painting Movement Central Australia and three high profile public place making initiatives in which the author was involved as artist and thinker These case studies are nested inside historical chapters and philosophical discussions of the line and linear thinking that make Dark Writing both a highly personal book and a narrative with wide general appeal

The Ghostly and the Ghosted in Literature and Film Lisa B. Kröger, Melanie

Anderson,2013-03-14 The Ghostly and the Ghosted in Literature and Film Spectral Identities is a collection of essays expanding the concepts of ghost and haunting beyond literary tools used to add supernatural flavor to include questions of identity visibility memory and trauma and history Using a wide scope of texts from varying time periods and cultures including fiction and film this collection explores the phenomenon of social ghosts What does it mean for example to be invisible to be a ghost particularly when that ghost is representative of a person or group living on the margins of society Why do specific types of ghosts tend to haunt certain cultures and or places What is it about a people s history that invites these types of hauntings The essays in this book like pieces of a puzzle approach the larger questions from diverse individual perspectives but taken together they offer a richly detailed composite discussion of what it means to be haunted Placing the Border in Everyday Life Reece Jones,Corey Johnson,2016-04-22 Bordering no longer happens only at the borderline separating two sovereign states but rather through a wide range of practices and decisions that occur in multiple locations within and beyond the state s territory Nevertheless it is too simplistic to suggest that borders are everywhere since this view fails to acknowledge that particular sites are significant nodes where border work is done Similarly border work is more likely to be done by particular people than others This book investigates the diffusion of bordering narratives and practices by asking who borders and how Placing the Border in Everyday Life complicates the connection between borders and sovereign states by identifying the individuals and organizations that engage in border work at a range of scales and places This edited volume includes contributions from major international scholars in the field of border studies and allied disciplines who analyze where and why border work is done By combining a new theorization of border work beyond the state with rich empirical case studies this book makes a ground breaking contribution to the study of borders and the state in the era of globalization Cities and Cultures Malcolm Miles,2007-04-26 Cities and Cultures is a critical account of the relations between contemporary cities and the cultures they produce and which in turn shape them The book questions received ideas of what constitutes a city s culture through case studies in which different kinds of culture the arts cultural institutions and heritage distinctive ways of life are seen to be differently used in or affected by the development of particular cities The book does not mask the complexity of this but explains it in ways accessible for undergraduates The book begins with introductory chapters on the concepts of a city and a culture the latter in the anthropological sense as well as denoting the arts citing cases from modern literature The book then moves from a critical account of cultural production in a metropolitan setting to the idea that a city too is produced through the characteristic ways of life of its inhabitants The cultural industries are scrutinised for their relation to such cultures as well as to city marketing and attention is given to the European Cities of Culture initiative and to the hybridity of contemporary urban cultures in a period of globalisation and migration In its penultimate chapter the book looks at incidental cultural forms and cultural means to identify formation and in its final chapter examines the permeability of urban cultures and cultural forms Sources are introduced positions clarified and contrasted and notes given for selective further reading Playing on the two meanings of culture Miles takes an unique approach by relating arguments around these meanings to specific cases of urban development today The book includes both critical comment on a range of literatures being a truly inter disciplinary study and the outcome of the author s field research into urban cultures Radical Traditions Andrew Clay McGraw,2013-11 In Radical Traditions author Andrew Clay McGraw shows how music kontemporer embodies the tensions between culture as represented and lived Through a highly interdisciplinary approach this book presents an all encompassing social and musical history of musik kontemporer The Elgar Companion to the Arts and Global Multiculturalism Sneja Gunew,Nikos Papastergiadis,Fazal Rizvi,Paula Muraca,2025-04-09 This Companion examines the evolution of multiculturalism as a political philosophy public policy and cultural practice Demonstrating the key role of artists activists and migrants in the inception of multiculturalism it explores how to renew the concept for the modern world extending the possibilities of social belonging and communal relations

Art in the Asia-Pacific Larissa Hjorth,Natalie King,Mami Kataoka,2014-02-18 As social locative and mobile media render the intimate public and the public intimate this volume interrogates how this phenomenon impacts art practice and politics Contributors bring together the worlds of art and media culture to rethink their intersections in light of participatory social media By focusing upon the Asia Pacific region they seek to examine how regionalism and locality affect global circuits of culture The book also offers a set of theoretical frameworks and methodological paradigms for thinking about contemporary art practice more generally The Routledge Companion to Art in the Public Realm Cameron Cartiere,Leon

Tan,2020-10-19 This multidisciplinary companion offers a comprehensive overview of the global arena of public art It is organised around four distinct topics activation social justice memory and identity and ecology with a final chapter mapping significant works of public and social practice art around the world between 2008 and 2018 The thematic approach brings into view similarities and differences in the recent globalisation of public art practices while the multidisciplinary emphasis allows for a consideration of the complex outcomes and consequences of such practices as they engage different disciplines and communities and affect a diversity of audiences beyond the existing art world The book will highlight an international selection of artist projects that illustrate the themes This book will be of interest to scholars in contemporary art art history urban studies and museum studies Handbook on the Geographies of Creativity Anjeline de Dios,Lily Kong,2020-09-25

How can the where of creativity help us examine how and why it has become a paradigmatic concept in contemporary economies and societies Adopting a geographically diverse theoretically rigorous approach the Handbook offers a cutting edge study of creativity as it has emerged in policy academic activist and cultural discourse over the last two decades To this end the volume departs from conventional modes of analyzing creativity by industry region or sector and instead identifies key themes that thread through shifting contexts of the creative in the arts media technology education governance and development By tracing the myriad spatialities of creativity the chapters map its inherently paradoxical features reinforcing persistent conditions of inequality even as it opens avenues for imagining and enacting more equitable futures Turns of the Global, The Anna Maria Guasch, 2019-11-26 When we talk about the geographical ecological ethnographic historical documentary and cosmopolitan turns in relation to the work of practitioners of contemporary art what exactly do we mean Are we talking about a reading strategy About an interpretive model as would be derived from the linguistic turn of the 1970s or rather about a stratigraphic structure that could be read across multiple cultural practices Do we wish to read one system by means of another system in a way that one nurtures the other so that it can open us up to other forms of being Or is it rather about a generative movement in which a new horizon emerges in the process leaving behind the practice that was its point of departure The recurrence of turn in place of style ism or tendency would ultimately respond to a clear urgency of the contemporary global world a movement characterised by aesthetic pluralism by the simultaneousness of various modi operandi and by a great multiplicity of languages that constantly change their state while having many features in common And turn would also allow within the space of the contemporary of here and now a great diversity of stories from all around the world that should be confronted simultaneously in an intellectual outlook that is continuous and disjunctive essential to understanding the present as a whole Cosmopolitanism and Culture Nikos Papastergiadis, 2013-05-09 Today more than at any other point in history we are aware of the cultural impact of global processes This has created new possibilities for the development of a cosmopolitan culture but at the same time it has created new risks and anxieties linked to immigration and the accommodation of strangers This book examines how the images of the terrorist and the refugee by being dispersed across almost all aspects of social life have resulted in the production of ambient fears and it explores the role of artists in reclaiming the conditions of hospitality Since 9 11 contemporary artists have confronted the issues of globalization by creating situations in which strangers can enter into dialogue with each other collaborating with diverse networks to forms new platforms for global knowledge Such knowledge does not depend upon the old model of establishing a supposedly objective and therefore universal framework but on the capacity to recognize and mutually negotiate situated differences From artworks that incorporate new media techniques to collective activism Papastergiadis claims that there is a new cosmopolitan imaginary that challenges the conventional divide between art and politics Through the analysis of artistic practices across the globe this book extends the debates on culture and cosmopolitanism from the ethics of living with strangers to the aesthetics of imagining alternative visions of the world Timely and wide ranging this book will be essential reading for students and scholars in sociology and cultural studies and will be of interest to anyone concerned with the changing forms of art and culture in our contemporary global age Rhetorics of the Americas D. Baca, V. Villanueva, 2009-12-07 This is the first work to begin to fill a gap an understanding of discourse aimed to persuade within the Pre Columbian Americas The contributors in this collection offer glimpses of what those indigenous rhetorics might have looked like and how their influences remain The reader is invited to recognize the invention of the Americas providing other ways to contemplate material life prior to contemporary capitalism telling us about the global from long ago to current global capitalism This book is the drop that will ripple creating new lines of inquiry into language use within the Americas and the legacies of genocide conquest and cultural survival Confronting the Machine Boris Magrini, 2017-03-20 Artists who work with new media generally adopt a critical media approach in contrast to artists who work with traditional art media Where does the difference lie between media artists and artists who produce modern art Which key art objects illustrate this trend The author investigates the relationship between art and technology on the basis of work produced by Edward Ihnatowicz and Harald Cohen and on the basis of the pioneering computer art exhibition at Documenta X in 1997 His line of argument counters the generally held view that computer art straddles the gap between art and technology Instead he is seeking a genuine interpretation of the origin of media art and to develop new perspectives for it The SAGE Handbook of Film Studies James Donald, Michael Renov, 2008-04-16 Written by a team of veteran scholars and exciting emerging talents The SAGE Handbook of Film Studies maps the field internationally drawing out regional differences in the way that systematic intellectual reflection on cinema and film has been translated into an academic discipline It examines the conversations between Film Studies and its contributory disciplines that not only defined a new field of discourse but also modified existing scholarly traditions It reflects on the field's dominant paradigms and debates and evaluates their continuing salience Finally it looks forward optimistically to the future of the medium of film the institution of cinema and the discipline of Film Studies at a time when the very existence of film and cinema are being called into question by new technological industrial and aesthetic developments Art and the City Jason Luger, Julie Ren, 2017-05-18 Artistic practices have long been disturbing the relationships between art and space They have challenged the boundaries of performer spectator of public private introduced intervention and installation ephemerality and performance and constantly sought out new modes of distressing expectations about what is construed as art But when we expand the world in which we look at art how does this change our understanding of critical artistic practice This book presents a global perspective on the relationship between art and the city International and leading scholars and artists themselves present critical theory and practice of contemporary art as a politicised force It extends thinking on contemporary arts practices in the urban and political context of protest and social resilience and offers the prism of a critical artscape in which to view the urgent interaction of arts and the urban politic The global appeal of the book is established through the general topic as well as the specific chapters which are geographically socially politically and professionally varied Contributing authors come from many different institutional and anti institutional perspectives from across the world This will be valuable reading for those interested in cultural geography urban geography and urban culture as well as contemporary art theorists practitioners and policymakers Cosmopolitan Borders C. Rumford, 2014-05-16 Cosmopolitan Borders makes the case for processes of bordering being better understood through the lens of cosmopolitanism Borders are cosmopolitan workshops where cultural encounters of a cosmopolitan kind take place and where entrepreneurial cosmopolitans advance new forms of sociality in the face of global closure Creative Frictions Cecelia Cmielewski, 2021-08-17 Creative Frictions explores the relationship between visionary aspects of practice and policy Despite over 30 years of arts and cultural policy attention there remains a widespread view among the general public and artists alike that creative production does not reflect Australia's culturally diverse population Australia's increasingly complex society can no longer be confined to essentialised or traditional definitions of ethnic communities While this diversity and its emerging complexity can be celebrated as a source of creativity and innovation it can also give rise to social political and creative challenges A key challenge that remains for the arts sector is its ability to support the creative expression of cultural difference One measure of inclusive creative production is to look at the participation of artists of non English speaking backgrounds NESBs a problematic term discussed in the book There are half as many NESB artists compared to those of other professions participating in the workforce and while under representation is an issue for management in the arts sector the question of representation also benefits from being understood more broadly beyond the narrow sense of multiculturalism as a tool to manage cultural difference This book explores the crucial role of creative leaders and how they work with the mainstream while maintaining their creative integrity and independence to generate a virtuous circle of change Creative Frictions argues that it is the NESB artists who lead change in the arts sector and that creative and organisational leadership working in partnership make creative use of friction and develop the necessary trust to generate the traction for a supportive multicultural arts milieu Cultures and / of Globalization Barrie Axford, Richard Huggins, 2011-07-12 This book explores the ways in which study of culture as the realm of meaning and identity can inform current debates about globalization and thus afford greater understanding of emergent globalities By drawing on a range of disciplinary and sub disciplinary expertise from across the social sciences and also promoting areas of cross disciplinary research the book contributes to the development of theory on globalization and also provides some significant illustrations of cultural globalization in practice through attention to novel empirical sites and issues These include eminently cultural realms such as music film and architecture and those that are invested with a strong cultural component such as migration and education Contributions emphasise the soft features of globalization and globality and most look to marry theoretical abstraction with everyday aspects of global processes focusing on those routine and sometimes conscious connections and accommodations that make up daily life in a globalized world In doing so the book itself can be seen as a contribution to critical and multidimensional studies of globalization and as engaging in a form of global practice Interstices Alexander Alberro, 2025-06-17 An exploration of innovative practices flourishing at the margins of Western art With this book Alexander Alberro engages decolonial theory to explore the dynamic exchanges that occur where the ideals and values of different artistic frameworks meet Resisting notions of a singular art world and global contemporary art Alberro explores what lies outside of Western art's hegemonic presence recognizing the rich multitude of art formations at its periphery each with its own artistic narratives and conventions Alberro brings into focus the complex negotiations that are cultivating innovation and transformation at the margins of Western art showing how this seemingly monolithic framework is both crucial to and insufficient for a comprehensive understanding of contemporary art His examples include artists and collectives from around the world including Iosu Aramburu Subhankar Banerjee Yto Barrada Mabe Beth nico El Colectivo Maria Galindo and Mujeres Creando Bouchra Khalili Multiplicity Lucy Orta Raqs Media Collective Tracey Rose Doris Salcedo Yinka Shonibare World of Matter and Yin Xiuzhen As notions of transculturation and decoloniality continue to drive conversations about contemporary art Interstices offers a critical explanation of what is at stake showing how the tensions at the edges of the Western art framework are pushing it toward its discursive limits
