Empty Meeting Grounds The Tourist Papers:

Empty Meeting Grounds Dean MacCannell,2002-09-11 Empty Meeting Grounds continues Dean MacCannell's search for the cultural subject that is about to emerge from the encounter of the ex primitive and the post modern It contains fascinating chapters on Cannibal Tours The Desire to be Postmodern the Vietnam Memorial in Washington D C the Statue of Liberty Restoration Project and the urbanization of Yosemite Park Tourism, Mobility and Second Homes C. Michael Hall, Dieter K. Müller, 2004-07-27 Second homes the cottage the summer house the bach are an important part of the tourism and leisure lifestyles of many people in the developed world Second homes are therefore an integral component of tourism experiences in rural and peripheral areas Yet despite their significance not only for tourism but also for rural communities and the rural economy relatively little research has been undertaken on the topic until recent times This volume represents the first major international analysis and review of second homes for over 25 years It will provide a significant resource for those interested in changing patterns of tourism and leisure behaviour as well as the use of the countryside and peripheral areas The book describes the economic social and environmental impacts of second homes as well as their planning implications and places such discussions within the context of contemporary human mobility The volume represents essential reading for those interested in rural regional development processes and the development of new rural leisure landscapes

Tourism at the Grassroots John Connell, Barbara Rugendyke, 2008-03 This collection focuses on both the interactions between tourists and villagers and the impacts of tourism at the local level considering economic social cultural and environmental changes Cross-Cultural Consumption David Howes, 2002-11-01 Goods are imbued with meanings and uses by their producers When they are exported they can act as a means of communication or domination However there is no guarantee that the intentions of the producer will be recognized much less respected by the consumer from another culture Cross Cultural Consumption is a fascinating guide to the cultural implications of the globalization of a consumer society The chapters address topics ranging from the clothing of colonial subjects in South Africa and the rise of the hypermarket in Argentina to the presentation of culture in international tourist hotels Through their examination of cultural imperialism and cultural appropriation of the representation of otherness and identity Howes and his contributors show how the increasingly global flow of goods and images challenges the very idea of the cultural border and creates new spaces for cultural invention Marian Bredin Concordia University Constance Classen Jean Comaroff University of Chicago Mary Crain University of Barcelona Carol Handrickson Marlboro Colleg Mayas in the Marketplace Walter E. Little, 2010-07-05 2005 Best Book Award New England Council of Latin American Studies Selling handicrafts to tourists has brought the Maya peoples of Guatemala into the world market Vendors from rural communities now offer their wares to more than 500 000 international tourists annually in the marketplaces of larger cities such as Antigua Guatemala City Panajachel and Chichicastenango Like businesspeople anywhere Maya artisans analyze the desires and needs of their customers and shape their products to meet the demands of the market But how has adapting to the global marketplace reciprocally shaped the identity and cultural practices of the Maya peoples Drawing on over a decade of fieldwork Walter Little presents the first ethnographic study of Maya handicraft vendors in the international marketplace Focusing on Kaqchikel Mayas who commute to Antigua to sell their goods he explores three significant issues how the tourist marketplace conflates global and local distinctions how the marketplace becomes a border zone where national and international developed and underdeveloped and indigenous and non indigenous come together how marketing to tourists changes social roles gender relationships and ethnic identity in the vendors home communities Little s wide ranging research challenges our current understanding of tourisms negative impact on indigenous communities He demonstrates that the Maya are maintaining a specific community based sense of Maya identity even as they commodify their culture for tourist consumption in the world market

Innovative Perspectives on Tourism Discourse Bielenia-Grajewska, Magdalena, Cortes de los Rios, Enriqueta, 2017-08-10 The application of linguistic optimization methods in the tourism travel and hospitality industry has improved customer service and business strategies within the field It provides an opportunity for tourists to explore another culture building tolerance and overall exposure to different ways of life Innovative Perspectives on Tourism Discourse is a pivotal reference source for the latest research findings on the role of language and linguistics in the travel industry Featuring extensive coverage on relevant areas such as intercultural communication adventure travel and tourism marketing this publication is an ideal resource for linguists managers researchers economists and professionals interested in emerging Indigenous Tourism Michelle Aicken, Chris Ryan, 2010-02-17 In a world characterized developments in tourism and travel by an encroaching homogeneity induced by the growth of multi national corporations and globalization the causes of difference accrue new levels of importance This is as true of tourism as in many other spheres of life and one cause of differentiation for tourism promotion is the culture of Indigenous Peoples This offers opportunities for cultural renaissance income generation and enhanced political empowerment but equally there are possible costs of creating commodities out of aspects of life that previously possessed spiritual meaning This book examines these issues from many different perspectives from those of product design and enhancement of the aspirations of various minority groupings and the patterns of displacements that occur displacements that are not simply spatial but also social and cultural How can these changes be managed Case studies and analysis is offered derived from many parts of the globe including North America Asia and Australasia The contributors themselves have in many instances worked closely with groups and organizations of Indigenous Peoples and attempt to give voice to their concerns The book is divided into various themes each with a separate introduction and commentary The themes are Visitor Experiences Who manages Indigenous Cultural Tourism Product Events and Artifacts Conceptualisation and Aspiration In a short final section the silences are noted each silence representing a potential challenge for future research to build upon the notions and lessons reported in the book The book is edited by Professor

Chris Ryan from New Zealand and Michelle Aicken of Horwath Asia Pacific Tourists and Tourism Sharon Bohn Gmelch, Adam Kaul, 2018-01-29 Like earlier editions the Third Edition of Tourists and Tourism is organized for use in the classroom While several classic and popular articles from the second edition have been retained three guarters are new and cover important areas in tourism studies such as dark tourism medical tourism nonvisual sensory experiences of tourism and tourism as performance Several address issues that directly relate to the student experience including study abroad service learning social media and the ethics of travel Articles vary in length and style some provide deeper context while others are designed to spark debate in the classroom Finally an introduction to the use of film in teaching about tourism and a link to an important film resource are provided Tourism and Global Environmental Change Stefan Gössling, Michael C. Hall,2006-06-07 This fascinating book is the first comprehensive analysis of the economic social and political interrelationships between tourism and global environmental change one of the most significant issues facing humankind today Its contributors argue that the impacts of these changes are potentially extremely serious both for the tourism industry and for the communities dependent upon it Integrating knowledge from the social and physical sciences this significant book explores they key issues surrounding global environmental change as well as government and industry willingness to meet the challenges posed by it Divided into four main sections it investigates the tourism and global environmental change relationship in specific environments global issues related to environmental change differing perceptions of global environmental change held by tourists and the tourist industry Comprehensive in scope topical and integrative this key text is essential reading for students scholars and researchers in all aspects of tourism geography and environmental studies

Claiming Individuality Vered Amit, Noel Dyck, 2006-07-20 Individuality is often interpreted as a force for the separation and autonomy of the individual This book takes a different approach it explores the expression of individuality as a form of social action inextricably linked to questions of belonging Using case studies from North America Europe Africa and Asia the authors examine a wide range of topics Covering everything from studies of childhood and family relations to patterns of movement for tourism work and religious pilgrimage from the spinning of fashions to the sculpting of life narratives the contributors analyse the shifting forms of the cultural politics of distinction The book illustrates the variation and ingenuity with which people in various settings claim diverse forms of individuality their motivations for doing so and the outcomes of their actions Identity and Intercultural Exchange in Travel and Tourism Anthony David Barker, 2015 This book looks at the relationship between questions of identity formation and modern practices in travelling and tourism New and creative patterns of behaviour and self realisation are now emerging due to the enormous commercial interests that lie behind the modern travel and tourism industries The volume will consider these issues and the challenges they create

Interdisciplinary Measures Graham Huggan, 2008-02-01 Interdisciplinary Measures makes the case for a cross disciplinary but literature centred approach to postcolonial studies Despite the anxieties that interdisciplinarity brings with it a combination of different discontinuously structured disciplinary knowledges is arguably best suited to address the tangled concerns of both the globalised present and the colonial past The book looks specifically at the intersections between literary criticism history anthropology geography and environmental studies while arguing more specifically for a postcolonialism across the disciplines in the service of informed cross cultural critique Bringing together a wide range of literary material from Africa Australia Canada the Caribbean New Zealand and South Asia the book also considers the different but sometimes related cultural contexts within which the key debates in postcolonial studies e g those around globalisation North South relations and the new imperialism are currently taking place These debates suggest the need for a multi sited multilinguistic and not least multidisciplinary appraach to postcolonial studies that consolidates its status as a comparative field

Becoming "Japanese" Leo T. S. Ching, 2001-06-30 This book examines political and cultural identity formations in Taiwan during Japanese domination from the early 1920s to the end of Japanese rule in 1945 Making Time Memory Jockisch Holloway, 2006 Between March and October of 1968 Picasso produced 347 etchings in varying sizes and techniques Uncharacteristically he did very little drawing and almost no painting during that year He abandoned sculpture altogether Instead he turened his gaze almost entirely in the direction of the etchings His concentration on them to the exclusion of other media marks Suite 347 as a particularly condensed site for the construction of meaning One of the aims of this book is to establish how and under what conditions he contructed that meaning The Global Politics of Contemporary Travel Writing Debbie Lisle, 2006-11-02 To what extent do best selling travel books such as those by Paul Theroux Bill Bryson Bruce Chatwin and Michael Palin tell us as much about world politics as newspaper articles policy documents and press releases Debbie Lisle argues that the formulations of genre identity geopolitics and history at work in contemporary travel writing are increasingly at odds with a cosmopolitan and multicultural world in which everybody travels Despite the forces of globalization common stereotypes about foreignness continue to shape the experience of modern travel The Global Politics of Contemporary Travel Writing is concerned with the way contemporary travelogues engage with and try to resolve familiar struggles about global politics such as the protection of human rights the promotion of democracy the management of equality within multiculturalism and the reduction of inequality This is a thoroughly interdisciplinary book that draws from international relations literary theory political theory geography anthropology and history The Routledge Handbook of Tourism Geographies Julie Wilson, 2012-03-15 Geographical analysis of tourism spaces and places is advancing fast In terms of human geography the various recent academic turns have led to fresh examination of existing debates and have advanced new theoretical ideas in geography that are more salient than ever for tourism studies The Routledge Handbook of Tourism Geographies seeks to examine such recent developments by providing a state of the art review of the field documenting advances in research and evaluating different perspectives approaches techniques and contexts The Routledge Handbook of Tourism Geographies considers recent disciplinary developments including post disciplinarily in geography in relation to the study of tourism It also analyzes the fledging relationships of the new mobilities paradigm critical tourism studies and cultural political economy to tourism spaces and places as well as acknowledging a spatial turn in poststructuralist social sciences more generally In addition it evaluates how postcolonial feminist sensory performative and queer perspectives have diversified research in the tourism geographies field Spatial analysis time geography placemaking and landscape concerns are addressed and issues such as transport environmental discourses and development are also analyzed Finally the volume s contributions highlight key areas for advancing research and map out the dimensions of future trajectories in tourism geographies in different theoretical and thematic contexts Written by leading scholars in the tourism geographies field this text will provide an invaluable resource for all those with an interest in tourism geographies encouraging dialogue across disciplinary boundaries and areas of study Reading Tourism Texts Sabrina Francesconi, 2014-02-24 This volume explores the relationship between tourism and travel texts and contemporary society and how each is shaped by the other A multimodal analysis is used to consider a variety of texts including novels brochures blogs websites radio commercials videos postcards and authentic tourist pictures and their meaning making dynamics within the tourism discourse The book looks at the ways in which these different texts have influenced how tourists and travellers have been viewed over time and how we envision ourselves as tourists or travellers It puts forward multimodal analysis as the best framework for exploring the semiotic potential of these texts Including examples from the UK Malta Canada New Zealand India Jamaica and South Africa this volume will be useful for researchers and students in tourism studies communication and media studies and applied linguistics Heritage, Screen and Literary Tourism Sheela Agarwal, Gareth Shaw, 2017-11-15 This book examines the main issues and concepts relating to heritage screen and literary tourism HSLT and provides a comprehensive understanding and evaluation of these three forms of tourism in the context of global tourism development It analyses the demand and supply of HSLT within the frameworks provided by service dominant logic and value creation to enable a critical perspective on how HSLT tourist experiences are created produced and shaped The volume explores the challenges which relate to the role of the consumer in the co creation of the tourist experience and the implications this has for the development marketing interpretation consumption planning and management of HSLT It will appeal to researchers and students of heritage tourism film and literary tourism media driven tourism tourism planning and destination development and management Urban Caribbean in an Era of Global Change Robert B. Potter, 2017-03-02 Based on the author's first hand field research this book addresses the twin processes of urbanization and globalization as they affect the contemporary Caribbean region One of the key aims of the book is to focus attention on the fact that contrary to popular perceptions the Caribbean is highly urbanized Indeed statistics show that the region is more highly urbanized than the world taken as a whole In addition the fact that the Caribbean region has always been affected by processes of globalization in respect of its economy polity and society is central to the text The chapters cover pressing topics such as urban change and the evolution of mini metropolitan regions the importance of the mercantile and plantopolis frameworks tourism post modernity and the urban nexus economic change and the dual processes of global convergence and divergence and the nature of the relationships existing between the state the informal sector housing and environmental conditions In reality it is shown that the development of tourism and enclave manufacturing is leading to new forms of urban concentration and not spatial dispersal Bloodstained Narratives Matthew Edwards, Fernando Gabriel Pagnoni Berns, 2023-03-24 Contributions by Donald L Anderson Brian Brems Eric Brinkman Matthew Edwards Brenda S Gardenour Walter Andrew Grossman Lisa Haegele Gavin F Hurley Mikel J Koven Sharon Jane Mee Fernando Gabriel Pagnoni Berns milie von Garan Connor John Warden and Sean Woodard The giallo yellow film cycle characterized by its bloody murders and blending of high art and cinematic sleaze rose to prominence in Italy in the 1960s and 1970s Beginning with Mario Bava s The Girl Who Knew Too Much 1963 and Dario Argento s The Bird with the Crystal Plumage 1970 giallo films influenced the American slasher films of the 1980s and attracted an increasingly large fandom In Bloodstained Narratives The Giallo Film in Italy and Abroad contributors explore understudied aspects of gialli The chapters introduce readers to a wide range of films including masterpieces from Argento and overlooked gems all of them examined in close detail Rather than understanding giallo as focalized exclusively in Italy in the 1970s this collection explores the extension of gialli narratives abroad through different geographies and times This book examines Italian gialli of the 1970s as well as American neo gialli French productions Canadian horror films of the 1980s and Asian rewritings of this yellow cycle of crime horror films Bloodstained Narratives also features interviews with two giallo film directors including cult favorite Antonio Bido Rather than fading from the cinematic stage gialli serves as a precursor and steady accomplice to horror thriller films through the twenty first century
