Leadership Helen Rusak, 2023-08-01 Women Music and Leadership offers a wide ranging survey of women in musical leadership and their experiences highlighting women's achievements and considering how they negotiate the challenges of the leadership space in music. Women have always participated in music as performers, teachers, composers and professionals but remain underrepresented in leadership positions. Covering women's leadership across a wide variety of roles and musical genres, this book addresses women in classical music, gospel, blues, jazz, popular music, electronic music and non-Western musical contexts and considers women working as composers, as conductors and in music management and the music business. Each chapter includes several case studies of women's careers exploring their groundbreaking contributions to music and the challenges they faced as leaders. Connecting management theory and leadership research with feminist musicology, this book paints a new picture of women's major contributions as leaders in music and their ongoing struggles for equity. It will be relevant to students and scholars in arts and music management as well as all those studying music, gender or leadership and women music professionals.

Summary of Phil Collins's Not Dead Yet Everest Media, 2022-06-21T22:59:00Z Please note This is a companion version not the original book. Sample Book Insights 1 I went to see a medium in 1977 to ask about a naughty dog. She told me that it was my dad who was behind the antics and that he wanted me to have a few things: his watch, his wallet and the family cricket bat. 2 My father Greville Philip Austin Collins was not a faithful husband to my mother June Winifred Collins. He had used his mundane bowler-hatted nine-to-five suburban commuter life to maintain a secret life with an office girlfriend. 3 I am a divorcee and I have three children from my first two marriages. I have always tried to be honest with them about my personal history which affects them every day of their lives. 4 I was the first London child as both Carole and Clive had been born in Weston super Mare after the entire family had been relocated there by London Assurance prior to the Blitz. My father, born in 1907, came from then fashionable Isleworth, a riverside neighborhood on London's western edges. His family home was big, dark and musty.
