Roach Jr., 2010-08-31 CALIFORNIA The First 100 Years 1769 1869 Spain wanted a military presence in California to keep out the English French and Russians all of whom were beginning to pose threats to Spain s expansion to uncivilized California Four Spanish Exhibitions left New Spain today s Mexico in 1769 two by land and two by sea bound for San Diego More than one third participating lost their lives on these expeditions due to scurvy and starvation The survivors were expected to meet in San Diego to create Missions education centers and Presidios Forts to civilize the Indians at both San Diego and Monterey Travel to California for the next 100 years by land or by sea was a high risk dangerous trip for anyone Indians attacked the settlers who crossed the plains with covered wagons Weather and the severe elements took many more lives in the hot deserts and freezing High Sierras California s First 100 Civilized Years were governed by Spain then Mexico and finally The United States climaxing with Statehood as our Nations 31st State the Gold Rush and the Golden Spike Art of the Gold Rush Janice T. H. Hinsley, Francis Harry Hinsley, 1967-10 In the last years of the nineteenth century peace proposals were first stimulated by fear of the danger of war rather than in consequence of its outbreak In this study of the nature and history of international relations Mr Hinsley presents his conclusions about the causes of war and the development of men s efforts to avoid it In the first part he examines international theories from the end of the middle ages to the establishment of the League of Nations in their historical setting This enables him to show how far modern peace proposals are merely copies or elaborations of earlier schemes He believes there has been a marked reluctance to test these theories not only against the formidable criticisms of men like Rousseau Kant and Bentham but also against what we have learned about the nature of international relations and the history of the practice of states This leads him to the second part of his study an analysis of the origins of the modern states system and of its evolution between the eighteenth century and the First World War Iowa Artists of the First Hundred Years , 1939 American Portrait Miniatures in the Manney Collection Dale T. Johnson, 1990 California Kevin Starr, 2007-03-13 A California classic California it should be remembered was very much the wild west having to wait until 1850 before it could force its way into statehood so what tamed it Mr Starr s answer is a combination of great men great ideas and great projects The Economist From the age of exploration to the age of Arnold the Golden State s premier historian distills the entire sweep of California s history into one splendid volume Kevin Starr covers it all Spain s conquest of the native peoples of California in the early sixteenth century and the chain of missions that helped that country exert control

Shields, 2006-04-17 From 1875 to the first years of the twentieth century artists were drawn to the towns of Monterey Pacific Grove and then Carmel Artist at Continent's End is the first in depth examination of the importance of the Monterey Peninsula which during this period came to epitomize California art Beautifully illustrated with a wealth of images including many never before published this book tells the fascinating story of eight principal protagonists Jules Tavernier William Keith Charles Rollo Peters Arthur Mathews Evelyn McCormick Francis McComas Gottardo Piazzoni and photographer Arnold Genthe and a host of secondary players who together established an enduring artistic legacy prospectus

From Sea Charts to Satellite Images David Buisseret, 1990-06-22 The authors write authoritatively and crisply How to use maps in teaching is spelled out carefully but the authors also manage to sketch in the background of American mapping so the book is both a manual and a history Commentaries are sprinkled with stimulating new ideas for instance on how to use bird s eye views and country atlases in the classroom and there are didactic discussions on maps showing the walking city and the impact of the street car An extraordinarily wide range of maps is depicted which makes for good browsing pondering and close study This is a very good highly attractive and worthwhile book it will have great impact on the use of old and new maps in teaching As well this is a tantalizing survey of mapping the United States and will whet the appetites of students and encourage them to learn more about maps and their origins John Warketin Cartographica Rooted in Barbarous Soil
