The First Wife Erica Spindler, 2015 Originally published New York St Martin s Press 2015 Polygynous Marriages among the Kyrgyz Michele E. Commercio, 2022-12-06 During Soviet rule the state all but imposed atheism on the primarily Islamic people of Kyrgyzstan and limited the tradition of polygyny a form of polygamy in which one man has multiple wives Polygyny did continue under communism though chiefly under concealment In the decades since the fall of the Soviet Union the practice has reemerged Based on extensive fieldwork Polygynous Marriages among the Kyrgyz argues that this marriage practice has become socially acceptable and widely dispersed not only because it is rooted in customary law and Islamic practice but because it can also enable men and women to meet societal expectations and solve practical economic problems that resulted from the fall of the Soviet Union Michele E Commercio s analysis suggests the normalization of polygyny among the Kyrgyz in contemporary Kyrgyzstan is due both to institutional change in the form of altered governmental rules and expectations and to institutional endurance in the form of persistent hegemonic constructions of gender The First Wife Erica Spindler, 2015-02-10 An idealistic young woman marries a man she barely knows only to discover his first wife disappeared under mysterious circumstances Forbidden Intimacies Melanie Heath, 2023-02-21 A poignant account of everyday polygamy and what its regulation reveals about who is viewed as an Other In the past thirty years polygamy has become a flashpoint of conflict as Western governments attempt to regulate certain cultural and religious practices that challenge seemingly central principles of family and justice In Forbidden Intimacies Melanie Heath comparatively investigates the regulation of polygamy in the United States Canada France and Mayotte Drawing on a wealth of ethnographic and archival sources Heath uncovers the ways in which intimacies framed as other and offensive serve to define the very limits of Western tolerance These regulation efforts counterintuitively allow the flourishing of polygamies on the ground The case studies illustrate a continuum of justice in which some groups like white fundamentalist Mormons in the U S organize to fight against the prohibition of their families existence whereas African migrants in France face racialized discrimination in addition to rigid migration policies The matrix of legal and social contexts informed by gender race sexuality and class shapes the everyday experiences of these relationships Heath uses the term labyrinthine love to conceptualize the complex ways individuals negotiate different kinds of relationships ranging from romantic to coercive What unites these families is the secrecy in which they must operate As government intervention erodes their abilities to secure housing welfare work and even protection from abuse Heath exposes the huge variety of intimacies and the power they hold to challenge heteronormative Western ideals of love Women in Chinese Martial Arts Films of the New Millennium Ya-chen Chen, 2012-01-01 Women and Gender in Chinese Martial Arts Films of the New Millennium by Ya chen Chen is an excavation of underexposed gender issues focusing mainly on contradictory and troubled feminism in the film narratives In the cinematic world of martial arts films one can easily find representations of women of Ancient China released from the constraints of patriarchal social order to revel in a dreamlike space of their own They can develop themselves protect themselves and even defeat or conquer men This world not only frees women from the convention of foot binding but it also unbinds them in terms of education critical thinking talent ambition opportunities to socialize with different men and the freedom or right to both choose their spouse and decide their own fate Chen calls this phenomenon Chinese cinematic martial arts feminism The liberation is never sustaining or complete however Chen reveals the presence of a glass ceiling marking the maximal exercise of feminism and women s rights which the patriarchal order is willing to accept As such these films are not to be seen as celebrations of feminist liberation but as enunciations of the patriarchal authority that suffuses Chinese cinematic martial arts feminism The film narratives under examination include Crouching Tiger Hidden Dragon directed by Ang Lee Hero Zhang Yimou House of the Flying Daggers Zhang Yimou Seven Swords Tsui Hark The Promise Chen Kaige The Banquet Feng Xiaogang and Curst of the Golden Flower Zhang Yimou Chen also touches upon the plots of two of the earliest award winning Chinese martial arts films A Touch of Zen and Legend of the Mountain both directed by King Hu
