First World War Major New History Of The:

The British Army and the First World War Ian Beckett, Timothy Bowman, Mark Connelly, 2017-05-15 This is a major new history of the British army during the Great War written by three leading military historians Ian Beckett Timothy Bowman and Mark Connelly survey operations on the Western Front and throughout the rest of the world as well as the army's social history pre war and wartime planning and strategy the maintenance of discipline and morale and the lasting legacy of the First World War on the army's development They assess the strengths and weaknesses of the army between 1914 and 1918 engaging with key debates around the adequacy of British generalship and whether or not there was a significant learning curve in terms of the development of operational art during the course of the war Their findings show how despite limitations of initiative and innovation amongst the high command the British army did succeed in developing the effective combined arms warfare necessary for victory in 1918

The French Army and the First World War Elizabeth Greenhalgh, 2014-11-13 This is a comprehensive new history of the French army's critical contribution to the Great War Ranging across all fronts Elizabeth Greenhalgh examines the French army's achievements and failures and sets these in the context of the difficulties of coalition warfare and the relative strengths and weaknesses of the enemy forces it faced Drawing from new archival sources she reveals the challenges of dealing with and replenishing a mass conscript army in the face of slaughter on an unprecedented scale and shows how through trials and defeats French generals and their troops learned to adapt and develop techniques which eventually led to victory In a unique account of the largest Allied army on the Western Front she revises our understanding not only of wartime strategy and combat but also of other crucial aspects of France's war from mutinies and mail censorship to medical services railways and weapons development

The Outbreak of the First World War Jack S. Levy, John A. Vasquez, 2014-04-03 This volume brings together leading historians and international relations scholars to debate the causes of the First World War

A New History of the Isle of Man: The modern period 1830-1999 Richard Chiverrell, John Belchem, Dr. Geoff Thomas, Seán Duffy, Harold Mytum, 2000-01-01 A New History of the Isle of Man will provide a new benchmark for the study of the island's history In five volumes it will survey all aspects of the history of the Isle of Man from the evolution of the natural landscape through prehistory to modern times The Modern Period is the first volume to be published Wide in coverage embracing political constitutional economic labor social and cultural developments in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries the volume is particularly concerned with issues of image identity and representation From a variety of angles and perspectives contributors explore the ways in which a sense of Manxness was constructed contested continued and amended as the little Manx nation underwent unprecedented change from debtors retreat through holiday playground to offshore international financial center

A New History of England Jeremy Black, 2008-04-25 In this new and updated edition of A New History of England historian Jeremy Black takes a cool and dispassionate look at the vicissitudes of over two millennia of English history He identifies two central themes the lack of geographical and economic uniformity within England and the fact that from the Roman invasion onwards a united England was often politically associated with part of Europe from the Scandinavian Cnut to the German origins of the Hanoverians and their descendants Professor Black steers his way through the labyrinthine complexities of historical narrative with elegance and clarity providing a lively analysis of major events and personalities and important underlying themes taking his account right up to the Brexit controversy

Origins of the First World War Gordon Martel, 2016-10-04 Origins of the First World War summarizes the policies issues and crises that brought Europe to war in 1914 Examining the strategic and political problems that confronted each of the great powers and the way in which social and economic factors influenced the decision making process Martel discusses the position of each power and their place in the system of alliances which dominated international politics The fourth edition has been revised and updated throughout to incorporate the body of new scholarship that has appeared since the hundredth anniversary of the outbreak of war In a clear and accessible manner it explains how and why the alliance system was created how alliances led to a network of complicated strategic commitments how an escalating series of international crises from the turn of the century fuelled preparations for war why the peculiarities of the Balkan situation are essential in understanding the outbreak of war in 1914 This book also includes an updated Guide to Further Reading Who's Who of important figures and Glossary of key terms and the selection of documents has been expanded to include the key treaties as well as evidence of popular militarism and nationalism Concise accessible and analytical it is essential introductory reading for all students interested in the origins of the First World War

A New History of Documentary Film Betsy A. McLane, 2022-12-29 A New History of Documentary Film includes new research that offers a fresh way to understand how the field began and grew Retaining the original edition's core structure there is added emphasis of the interplay among various approaches to documentaries and the people who made them This edition also clearly explains the ways that interactions among the shifting forces of economics technology and artistry shape the form New to this edition An additional chapter that brings the story of English language documentary to the present day Increased coverage of women and people of color in documentary production Streaming Animated documentaries List of documentary filmmakers organized chronologically by the years of their activity in the field

The New History Alun Munslow, 2016-09-17 The notion of history has always been one strenuously debated by both academics and the wider population This deeply provocative re thinking of our engagement with the past by one of the world's leading post modern historians takes that debate one step further Alun Munslow re assesses history in the light of post modernism and other intellectual challenges which have questioned the primacy of the modernist epistemology of empiricism In an original and stimulating vision of history that will intrigue all those seriously interested in the subject Munslow argues that history is not only about the sources but a literary construction Munslow concludes that history as a cultural narrative about the past can never tell us what the past really means This far reaching conclusion is based on the radical idea that the content of history is defined as much by the nature of the language used to represent and interpret that content as it is by research into the sources This suggests that history does not produce the most likely meaning of the past but rather can only generate alternative meanings The lead volume in a major new series on historical thinking and practice this is an accessible yet absorbing study that breaks new ground in discussing the stage history is at now and perhaps most engagingly the direction it will take in the future The First World War Hew Strachan,2003-02-06 This is the first truly definitive history of the First World War the war that has done most to shape the twentieth century The first generation of its historians had access to only a limited range of sources and their focus was primarily on military events More recent approaches have embraced cultural diplomatic economic and social history In Hew Strachan s authoritative and readable history these fresh perspectives are incorporated with the military and strategic narrative The result is an account that breaks the bounds of national preoccupations to become both global and comparative To Arms the first of three volumes in this magisterial study examines not only the causes of the war and its opening clashes on land and sea but also the ideas that underpinned it and the motivations of the people who supported it It provides full and pioneering accounts of the war s finances of the war in Africa and of the Central Powers bid to widen the war outside Europe New Perspectives on the First World War Mandy Link,Matthew M.

Stith,2024-04-05 Taken collectively the chapters in New Perspectives on the First World War Beyond No Man s Land not only illuminate pieces of the Great War that remain in the shadow of the broader narratives but also and more importantly foster new perspectives pose distinct questions and suggest fresh directions from which future work might emerge Transnational approaches the cultural and environmental history of war and gender s ubiquitous but heretofore marginalized role in the larger conflict together merit fresh research and careful new interpretation A New History of Ireland, Volume VI W. E.

Vaughan,2010-04-01 A New History of Ireland is the largest scholarly project in modern Irish history In 9 volumes it provides a comprehensive new synthesis of modern scholarship on every aspect of Irish history and prehistory from the earliest geological and archaeological evidence through the Middle Ages down to the present day Volume VI opens with a character study of the period followed by ten chapters of narrative history and a study of Ireland in 1914 It includes further chapters on the economy literature the Irish language music arts education administration and the public service and emigration

Model Cases Monika Krause,2021-09-03 In Model Cases Monika Krause asks about the concrete material research objects behind shared conversations about classes of objects periods and regions in the social sciences and humanities It is well known that biologists focus on particular organisms such as mice fruit flies or particular viruses when they study general questions about life development and disease Krause shows that scholars in the social sciences and humanities also draw on some cases more than others selecting research objects influenced by a range of ideological but also mundane factors such as convenience historicist ideas about development over time schemas in the general population and schemas particular to specific scholarly communities Some research objects are studied repeatedly and shape our understanding of more general ideas in disproportionate ways The French Revolution has profoundly influenced our concepts of revolution of citizenship and of political modernity just like studies of doctors have set the agenda for research on the professions Based on an extensive analysis of the role of model cases in different fields Krause argues that they can be useful for scholarly communities if they are acknowledged and reflected as particular objects she also highlights the importance of research strategies based on neglected research objects and neglected combinations of research objects and scholarly concerns A New History of the Isle of Man, Vol. 5 John Belchem,2001-04-01 A New History of the Isle of Man will provide a new benchmark for the study of the island s history In five volumes it will survey all aspects of the history of the Isle of Man from the evolution of the natural landscape through prehistory to modern times The Modern Period is the first volume to be published Wide in coverage embracing political constitutional economic labour social and cultural developments in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries the volume is particularly concerned with issues of image identity and representation From a variety of angles and perspectives contributors explore the ways in which a sense of Manxness was constructed contested continued and amended as the little Manx nation underwent unprecedented change from debtors retreat through holiday playground to offshore international financial centre The Business of Emotions in Modern History Mandy L. Cooper,Andrew Popp,2023-01-12 The Business of Emotions in Modern History shows how businesses from individual entrepreneurs to family firms and massive corporations have relied on leveraged generated and been shaped by emotions for centuries With a broad temporal and global coverage ranging from the early modern era to the present day in Africa Asia Europe and North America the essays in this volume highlight the rich potential for studying emotions and business in tandem In exploring how emotions and emotional situations affect business and in turn how businesses affect the emotional lives of individuals and communities this book allows us to recognise the emotional structures behind business decisions and relationships and how to question them From emotional labour in family firms to affective corporate paternalism and the role of specific emotions such as trust fear anxiety love and nostalgia in creating economic connections this book opens a rich new avenue of research for both the history of emotions and business history A Companion to World War I John Horne,2011-11-23 A Companion to the First World War brings together an international team of distinguished historians who provide a series of original and thought provoking essays on one of the most devastating events in modern history Comprises 38 essays by leading scholars who analyze the current state of historical scholarship on the First World War Provides extensive coverage spanning the pre war period the military conflict social economic political and cultural developments and the war s legacy Offers original perspectives on themes as diverse as strategy and tactics war crimes science and technology and the arts Selected as a 2011 Outstanding Academic Title by CHOICE Disorderly Women and the Order of God Michele A. Connolly,2018-04-19 Michele A Connolly s postcolonial analysis links the Gospel of Mark produced in the context of the Roman Empire with contemporary Australia established initially as a colony of the British Empire Feminist analysis of texts from two foundational events in Australian colonial history reveal that women in such texts tend to be marginalised silenced and denigrated Connolly posits that imperialist sexism both ancient and modern perceives women as a threat to the order that males alone can impose on the world The Gospel of Mark portrays Jesus bringing the order of the Reign of God to combat the disorder of apocalyptic evil Jesus task is a markedly male project against which eleven female characters are portrayed as disorderly distractions who are managed by being marginalised silenced and denigrated contradicting Jesus message of mutual service and non domination In his death under apocalyptic power Jesus is likewise depicted as isolated silenced and denigrated subtly associating femininity with chaos failure and disgrace

Monty and Rommel Peter Caddick-Adams,2013-09-24 An accessible well honed study of two fascinating characters who famously fought each other in numerous battles during WWII from Egypt to D Day Kirkus Bernard Montgomery and Erwin Rommel faced one another in a series of extraordinary battles that established each man as one of the greatest generals in history Born four years apart their lives were remarkably similar Each came from provincial roots nearly died in WWI yet emerged from that great conflict with glowing records Through their many duels including their legendary conflicts in North Africa and later at the Normandy D Day invasion Peter Caddick Adams tracks and compares their military talents and personalities Monty and Rommel explores how each general was raised to power by their war leaders Churchill and Hitler and how the innovative military strategy and thought of both permeate down to today s armies

The Marine Corps Gazette ,1964 The Cambridge Companion to the Literature of the First World War Vincent Sherry,2005-01-20 The Great War of 1914 1918 marks a turning point in modern history and culture This Companion offers critical overviews of the major literary genres and social contexts that define the study of the literatures produced by the First World War The volume comprises original essays by distinguished scholars of international reputation who examine the impact of the war on various national literatures principally Great Britain Germany France and the United States before addressing the way the war affected Modernism the European avant garde film women s writing memoirs and of course the war poets It concludes by addressing the legacy of the war for twentieth century literature The Companion offers readers a chronology of key events and publication dates covering the years leading up to and including the war and ends with a current bibliography of further reading organised by chapter topics
