Doing Poorly on Purpose James R. Delisle,2018-01-16 With Doing Poorly on Purpose veteran educator James R Delisle dispels the negative associations and stereotypes connected to underachievement By focusing on smart kids who get poor grades not because they re unable to do better in school but because they don t want to Delisle presents a snapshot of underachievement that may look far different from what you envision it to be There is no such thing as a classic underachiever Students and their reasons for underachieving are influenced by a wide range of factors including self image self concept social emotional relationships and the amount of dignity teachers afford their students Helping smart students achieve when they don t want to is not an easy task but you can reengage and inspire students using Delisle s insights and practical advice on these topics Autonomy Access Advocacy Alternatives Aspirations Approachable Educators Smart underachieving students need the reassurance that they are capable valuable and worth listening to despite their low academic performance If these students who are otherwise academically capable don't feel they are getting respect from those in charge of their learning then the desire to conform and achieve is minimized In a word they want dignity Don't we all

Exit Narratives Nathalis G. Wamba, Ursula Foster, Elena Davis, 2010-06-14 a definite major contribution to our understanding of what makes great teachers and how to structure a student centered classroom that excites and engages students and their parents in learning

Dynamic Learning Spaces in Education Veena Kapur, Sudipta Ghose, 2018-08-14 This volume discusses the need for a major paradigm shift in educational practice in the current digital and globalized world It establishes a bridge between theory and praxis and revisits the objectives of learning and its modalities within the context of a rapidly evolving global world order This volume includes perspectives from different countries on creating a dynamic and adaptive education system that encourages creativity leadership flexibility and working in virtual as well as inclusive environments The four sections include chapters that discuss creating meaningful learning environments preparing teachers for new age classrooms the digital learning space fostering change in classrooms and importantly also includes cases and experiments from schools The authors are teacher educators teachers and researchers and each chapter while being deeply rooted in theory is juxtaposed with informed practice making the suggestions easy to implement in different settings This is an important resource for researchers and practitioners associated with education systems in creating engaging meaningful and future ready education practices

Just a Minute Wess Stafford, 2013-12-17 How long does it take to make a difference in the life of a child For good or for ill individual moments in a young person's life can make all the difference in their future It may be something said or done by an adult who hardly thinks about it a hug a compliment an intriguing question a sincere applause But in that moment the child discovers who they are what is important to them why they matter and sometimes even what their destiny will be Most of us want to help encourage and build into this next generation most of us see the need all around but we just have no idea where to begin Now with this book you know where to begin and you know that it only takes Just a Minute Follow along as Dr Wess Stafford president of Compassion International shares stories and experiences to introduce you to the difference you can actually make anywhere on the spectrum of child development From helping meet physical needs to breaking down emotional barriers and from discovering latent talents to equipping with spiritual insights these stories are a catalyst for action You don't have to be a teacher a parent a pastor or a doctor to make a difference in the life of a child You only have to be willing
