

REPORT

THE COMMISSIONER OF INDIAN AFFAIRS.

DEPARTMENT OF WAR,
Office Indian Affairs, November 25, 1844.

SIR: The number of Indians who have been removed to the West has not changed for the last twelve months by any active movement of the department, nor at all, except that sixty Chickasaws have been added to the number, by self-emigration from the State of Mississippi. They are receiving subsistence out of their own funds, according to the treaty of 1834. Any other increase or (which is more probable) diminution of those east or west has been occasioned by births or deaths. Contracts have been made for the removal of the Miami Indians now in the State of Indiana, and of the Choctaws, who, under the provisions of the treaty of 1830, have remained until now in the State of Mississippi. A small party of the New York Indians, it has been said, desired to emigrate to the West. This has been met by counter representations, restricting the number of those having such a wish and entitled to participate in the benefits of the treaty to very few; and I believe that neither the interests of the State of New York nor of the United States will be promoted in any degree by the emigration of as many as wish to go, while the United States will be burdened with an expenditure utterly unproductive of benefit in any quarter, and of probable positive injury to the Indians. The best information I possess, moreover, leads to the belief that the idea of emigration has been or will be abandoned. (Appendix 1.)

You will find herewith a tabular statement, (2,) showing the number of Indians indigenous to the country beyond the Mississippi river, how many have been removed to the west, how many are now there, and how many remain east; how many have emigrated within one year, and are now on subsistence, and at what cost.

In my last report, a difficulty very improperly raised, and utterly without foundation, in relation to the cession of Isle Royale, in Lake Superior, by the treaty of 1842 with the Chippewas, was mentioned, and the views of this office given respecting it. As the subject is one of interest, and the property involved is very valuable, I again present these views, in which the commissioner who negotiated the treaty concurred, (3.) Plainly correct as they appeared to be, it was important to adjust the matter, and at once, lest it should fester, and be made important by the ill feeling it might engender. Robert Stuart, Esq., acting superintendent of Indian affairs in Michigan, was instructed on the 5th of April last to attend to this duty, which he performed very satisfactorily, enclosing me, under date of 21st September, from Detroit, a compact with the Chippewas, by which they confirmed the cession, and expressed themselves satisfied that Isle Royale was included in it. This acknowledgment cost the United States $400 worth of gunpowder and $100 worth of fresh beef, (4.) I am
