Transnational Spaces and Identities in the Francophone World Hafid Gafa ti, Patricia M. E. Lorcin, David G. Troyansky, 2009-07-01 The dissolution of the French Empire and the ensuing rush of immigration have led to the formation of diasporas and immigrant cultures that have transformed French society and the immigrants themselves Transnational Spaces and Identities in the Francophone World examines the impact of this postcolonial immigration on identity in France and in the Francophone world which has encompassed parts of Africa the Middle East Southeast Asia and the Americas Immigrants bear cultural traditions within themselves transform host communities and are in turn transformed These migrations necessarily complicate ideals of national literature culture and history forcing a reexamination and a rearticulation of these ideals Exploring a variety of texts informed by these transnational conceptions of identity and space the contributors to this volume reveal the vitality of Francophone studies within a broad range of disciplines periods and settings They remind us that the idea and reality of Francophonie is not a late twentieth century phenomenon but something that grows out of long term interactions between colonizer and colonized and between peoples of different nationalities ethnicities and religions Truly interdisciplinary this collection engages conceptions of identity with respect to their physical geographic ethnic and imagined realities

Signposts Rajeswari Sunder Rajan, 2001 The essays in this volume map the concerns of gender onto the terrain of nation finding significant connections disjunctions and tensions between them The authors argue that for any cultural analysis to be performed in the context of the decolonized nation space gender must take centre stage

Apocalypse in Crisis Christopher Palmer, 2021-10-15 Apocalypse is traditional and familiar and it is an actual threat it is feared desired and banal Apocalypse in Crisis discusses fictions from the 1940s to the present examining shifts in the imagination of apocalypse from the postwar British disaster novels through novels of the countercultural sixties feminist interventions and recent revisions and critiques As empire fades ideas of sexuality shift and attitudes to nature and to the city change so apocalyptic fictions change The individual subject is asserted immolated transcended abandoned individual deaths are substituted for mass death death is faked or erased The subjects and survivors of catastrophe set about re establishing civilization or they abandon it finding new ways of being and of dying they respond to it when it comes from outside as an invasion or they are immersed in it as it shifts from being an event to being a condition They flee the city for the country or accept that they must draw on the energies of the world city in order to survive The book includes detailed discussion of novels by H G Wells George M Stewart Nevil Shute John Wyndham Arthur C Clarke J G Ballard Brian Aldiss Doris Lessing Angela Carter Anna Kavan Arno Schmidt Anthony Burgess Ursula K Le Guin Tom Perrotta Douglas Coupland Don DeLillo China Mi ville Jeff VanderMeer and Kim Stanley Robinson Postmodernism and The Other Ziauddin Sardar,1998

Postmodernism has often been presented as a new theory of liberation that promotes pluralism and gives representation to the marginalised peoples of the non west and other cultures In this major assessment of postmodernism from a non western perspective Ziauddin Sardar offers a radical critique of this view Covering the salient spheres of postmodernism from architecture film television and pop music to philosophy consumer lifestyles and new age religions Sardar reveals that postmodernism in fact operates to further marginalise the reality of the non west and confound its aspirations By tracing postmodernism s roots in colonialism and modernity Sardar demonstrates that the dominant contemporary intellectual fashion peddling an insidiously oppressive and subtle revisionism is the most comprehensive onslaught on the non west ever experienced In stern retort the author offers ways in which the peoples of the non west can counter the postmodern assault and survive with their identities histories and cultures intact Out of This World Rachel S. Cordasco,2021-12-28 The twenty first century has witnessed an explosion of speculative fiction in translation SFT Rachel Cordasco examines speculative fiction published in English translation since 1960 ranging from Soviet era fiction to the Arabic language dystopias that emerged following the Iraq War Individual chapters on SFT from Korean Czech Finnish and eleven other source languages feature an introduction by an expert in the language s speculative fiction tradition and its present day output Cordasco then breaks down each chapter by subgenre including science fiction fantasy and horror to guide readers toward the kinds of works that most interest them Her discussion of available SFT stands alongside an analysis of how various subgenres emerged and developed in a given language She also examines the reasons a given subgenre has been translated into English An informative and one of a kind guide Out of This World offers readers and scholars alike a tour of speculative fiction s new globalized era Unnatural Selection Mara Hvistendahl,2011-06-07 A shocking expose of the causes of Asia s massive gender imbalance and its consequences across the globe Disordered World Amin Maalouf,2012-01-01 A dazzling and ultimately hopeful exploration and analysis of our disordered and volatile post 9 11 world by one of the leading international writers and thinkers of our times The Demographic Masculinization of China Isabelle Attané,2013-06-26 This book describes the shortage of girls and women in present day China and focuses on two important features the sex imbalance in childhood and youth and the excess mortality of women at various stages of their life The author analyzes the causes and the processes of a strong preference for sons which generates discrimination toward females and results in a shortage of girls and women China s higher proportion of men than women is a population characteristic that is shared by very few countries in the world This demographic masculinity is unprecedented in the documented history of human populations both in scale and its lasting impact on the numbers and the structure of the population Despite the economic boom of recent years many families in China still consider girls to be less important than boys Although Chinese women have become largely emancipated since the 1950s they still do not have the same opportunities for social achievement as men and Chinese society remains fundamentally rooted in highly gendered social and family roles As a consequence Chinese girl babies who have the misfortune to be born instead of a long awaited son go by various names such as Pandi literally awaiting a son Laidi a son will follow or Yehao she ll do too The book provides a comprehensive review of the situation of women in China s society and shows that discrimination against girls and women is part of a system of norms and values that traditionally favours males

Our First Century Richard Miller Devens, 1878 History and Memory in the Abbasid Caliphate Letizia Osti, 2022-05-19 Abu Bakr al Suli was an Abbasid polymath and table companion as well as a legendary chess player He was perhaps best known for his work on poetry and chancery which would have a long lasting influence on Arabic literature His decades of service at the court of at least three caliphs give him a unique perspective as an historian of his own time although he is often valued as an observer rather than an interpreter of events for posterity Letizia Osti here provides the first full length English language study devoted to al Suli illustrating how investigating the life times and works of such a complex individual can serve as a fil rouge for tackling broader contested concepts such as biography autobiography court culture and written culture The result is an exploration of the ways in which the Abbasid court made sense of the past and in general of what historiography means in a medieval Arabic context
