Teens in Crisis Frederic G. Reamer, Deborah H. Siegel, 2008-10-17 In recent years a dizzying array of programs has emerged to meet the needs of struggling teens and their families wilderness therapy programs therapeutic boarding schools alternative schools mentoring and court diversion programs independent living programs and myriad day treatment and partial hospitalization services Yet not all of these offerings employ mental health professionals or follow evidence based treatment protocols Some programs are licensed and accredited but many are not and some use techniques that are highly controversial even abusive resulting in injury and accidental death Frederic G Reamer and Deborah H Siegel have written the first scholarly book on this influential and controversial industry They begin with a time line of Americans changing attitudes toward challenging teens and the programs and schools established to handle this population Then they summarize reputable organizations including a selection of community based and residential programs and schools and provide brief descriptions of typical services The authors candidly discuss a number of troubling scandals and tragedies exposing the tragic consequences of emotionally and physically abusive practices and recommend a range of empirically sound interventions for the clinical challenges of adolescent depression bipolar disorder anxiety oppositional behavior eating disorders and attention deficit hyperactivity disorder The authors conclude with a blueprint for reform and twenty best practice principles relating to harm prevention program based discipline industry regulation quality assurance parental involvement staff education and after care services On the Line Eileen Edwards, 2016-10-14 ON THE LINE is a detailed autobiography written by Eileen Edwards about her tennis officiating career presented almost in diary format over four decades from 1972 Eileen tells of her initial interest in tennis when in 1987 she joined the British Tennis Umpires Association BTUA This game set and match narrative continues through until 2012 with the Association of British Tennis Officials ABTO as a top tennis official and having served as a member of the Committee of Management Eileen wrote everything down with meticulous detail throughout her distinguished officiating career reminiscing details of matches she officiated including pro celebrity tournaments and several conversations with officials players royalty celebrities and her beloved Cliff Richard What you do find in this book is a very revealing account of the tennis officiating industry You also get the distinct feeling that writing the book was actually cathartic for Eileen putting her concerns to print and righting some wrongs with those within the industry Her book reads like the history of British tennis over the last four decades and it is a revealing account of the camaraderie favouritism in fighting and back biting within the tennis association Sadly Eileen s exceptional and eventful career was tinged with bitterness and seems sad that her fantastic experiences and years of devotion to the tennis association would end in such a way There are stories she tells that will shock you However with her three children also as top tennis officials there are plenty of amusing stories Eileen tells that will make you laugh and even the odd words with her and her children s wonderful sense of humour and fun This book is a really interesting read for any tennis aficionado
