Tselikis,Sabin Lomac,2018-04-17 Required Reading The New York Post From the co founders of the smash hit Cousins Maine Lobster food trucks comes a business book revealing to new entrepreneurs how the authors built their brand through integrity and authenticity In early 2012 Jim Tselikis visited L A and met up with his cousin Sabin Lomac Over a few drinks they waxed nostalgic about their childhood in Maine surrounded by family often elbow deep in delicious lobster while gathered around the picnic table From this strong memory was born the very first Cousins Maine Lobster food truck Smart authentic marketing and sustainable delicious ingredients helped turn that one food truck into an overnight sensation Then in just three years they went from a single food truck to a nationally franchised legion of trucks an online delivery service and a brick and mortar restaurant grossing over 15 million dollars in sales a year Start up fever has taken hold of America and there are hundreds of books to teach readers how to become an entrepreneur this is the first book to answer the question What s next At each step Jim and Sabin were faced with hard decisions opening each new food truck carefully instead of rushing to meet the demand turning down a six figure franchise offer because it came from someone who didn t support their vision turning down Shark Tank twice until they could insist on participating only if Barbara Corcoran was one of the Sharks Now Jim and Sabin teach readers how they too can reach the next level of success in their own businesses without having to
