First Steps in Ballet Thalia Mara,1972 To Dance, to Live Carolyn J. Brown,2023-04-25 Thalia Mara's story spans the history of dance in the twentieth century and the rise of the arts in her adopted city of Jackson Mississippi As an adolescent Mara 1911-2003 studied with renowned Russian teacher Adolph Bolm who recommended she go at age sixteen to Paris for further study During a tour in Europe and South America she met her partner in dance and life Arthur Mahoney and they dazzled the world with their breathtaking performances during the 1930s and 40s The two were named codirectors of Jacob's Pillow in 1947 gracing the cover of Life magazine that year Later they started two schools of dance in New York City but despite much success they closed due to lack of funding That misfortune however was Jackson's boon as it led Mara to the second phase of her career reviving the Jackson Ballet Company and bringing the USA International Ballet Competition IBC to the state Thalia Mara was recognized at the end of her life not only for the USA IBC's decision to locate in Jackson but also for her efforts as a patron of the arts Her extraordinary fundraising and planning attracted international performers to the city in the 1980s and 90s To Dance to Live A Biography of Thalia Mara gives the first full account of a life devoted to the arts
