First We Have Coffee Life Lessons From Mama:

A Nail in a Sure Place Margaret T. Jensen, 1989      Miss Lillie's Home Training: Life Lessons for Your Soul M Kirby Toombs, 2020-01-08 Miss Lillie made a conscious choice at a young age to not only survive her father's abusive alcoholism but to excel. Spending her formative years as a ward of the state she graduated valedictorian from TIS TPS in Nashville Tennessee and was awarded a full scholarship to George Peabody College now a division of Vanderbilt University. She chose however to raise a family and make sure her family had what she didn't growing up stability and love. She never met a stranger and never stopped learning. These memories and her teachings are full of joy, imagination and humor. The Coffee Mom's Devotional Celeste Palermo, 2009-03-02 What do moms thirst for even more than coffee? Moms want to know they matter that they make a difference. They want to know they are not alone in their parenting experience and that their lives have purpose. They want to see their children prosper. They want a full cup. Celeste Palermo gives moms more than a jolt of caffeine with these humorous yet poignant brief devotions easily read while on the run. Moms juggling cups of coffee will relate to her coffee-related stories and insights on such basic needs as affirmation, purpose, good health and eternal life. Coffee Talk, Common Grounds and A Perfect Cup sections provide quotes, Scripture references and interviews with coffee drinking moms offering insight and inspiration. Soul Sip Solutions offer questions to encourage reflection and response. After reading The Coffee Mom's Devotional moms will be reminded that caffeine can never sustain us only Jesus can. When Love & Culture Collide Jenny Ripatti, 2010-12 As recent college graduates and childhood best friends Sophie and Sadie start their new chapter of life with a trip to Spain. However their girly vacation quickly turns into a lover's paradise when Sophie lays eyes on a handsome Brit Dylan. Now after two years of struggling to settle in comfortably in England Sophie begins to worry whether or not Dylan's love is enough and if their cultural differences will slowly eat away at her and threaten their strong bond. Then Dylan pops the question. Sophie is quick to put all her worries behind her. At their engagement party Sophie finally feels like she is fitting in and England is looking promising. But suddenly Dylan breaks off the engagement and before she knows it she is back on a plane headed for America without Dylan or an explanation. Distraught and traumatized Sophie struggles to cope with the unexpected breakup and tries to fit back into her own culture instantly realizing that all the things she didn't like about England were exactly what she missed the most. Back in the States the fast pace of life and the open skies seemed to swallow her whole. Will Sophie and Sadie get back to where they left off before Spain? Or will Sophie and Dylan's strong bond bring them back together? The pain threatens to change Sophie forever. Could it also threaten any chance of a reunion? My First 65 Years Ellen M. Levy, 2014-10-10 Many of Ellen's intimate playful stories will make you laugh. Her natural exuberance and fascination with life is contagious. She rivaled her grandmother's catering career with a love of cooking fine foods and gluttony. Her Brownie camera pictures led her collecting enough photographs to fill this book and many others. Stories of her love of travel will make you want to hop on a plane. Her passions chocolate sex cats the arts etc may become your temptations Even her most painful experiences the deaths of her beloved aunt and brother her infertility and the loss of her business gave her strength Ellen s unique perspective will encourage you to value your own precious memories Ellen M Levy B S M A C A G S grew up in Newton Massachusetts She has worked in non profit management for over 30 years This is her first full length book Otto, the Boy at the Window Peter Abeles; Tom Hicks,2004-07-13 As sixty eight year old Peter Abeles confronts his ambivalence over his mother s recent death he laces together his childhood memories of the prewar Austrian aristocracy his Jewish family belonged to the rising tide of hate that engulfed them and their decision to flee and the story of his life in America In trying to come to terms with his personal history and family Abeles looks beyond the immediate horrors of the Holocaust and the Diaspora to some of the more subtle effects on the reconstructed lives that followed He gives a hard honest account of his upbringing by a cold demanding father and an embittered materialistic mother but he frames that account in forgiveness and redemption imagining his dead mother as she receives a treasure box of Sefirot the ten Hebrew words that allow an individual to know Kabbalah or wisdom Peter Abeles and Tom Hicks have produced an intelligent and edifying memoir that has much to say about exile and immigration about class money love and forgiveness In Otto the Boy at the Window they offer readers some hard earned shreds of Kabbalah Praise for Otto the Boy at the Window This unforgettable book opens with the death of Abeles mother in Long Island when he was 68 which prompts him to reflect on his Viennese childhood in the 1930s His mother was strict and possessive and his father was unyielding The father owned a thriving wholesale shoe business and the family had servants and tutors Abeles relives the Anschluss of March 12 1938 when the Nazis took control of Austria and he remembers mobs of Nazi sympathizers destroying synagogues and Jewish owned properties during Kristallnacht in November of that year In November 1939 the family sailed from Rotterdam to New York with only 10 left from their fortune They went to Chicago where two sponsoring families met them Abeles recounts his subsequent service in the U S Air Force his success in the business world and his love of family life in this story of reconciliation and forgiveness which is told with grace and insight Lessons From My Parents Ashley Nance,2013-05-01 Have you ever experienced a moment in your life when you began to appreciate the stories and lessons your parents might have shared with you Perhaps it was a moment quietly working when your father told you of his painful experience during WWII or when your mother taught you about beauty while picking daffodils for her neighbor or when in a moment of tragedy you recall how your parents handled something so difficult with such poise and strength that it helped you go on Our culture and our history is created through stories personal stories whether funny or sad light or difficult poignant or profound Lessons From My Parents has collected 100 such stories from writers from across the world and shares them in this seminal work celebrating the life lessons we learn without even realizing it Braiding Histories Susan D. Dion,2009-05-01 This book proposes a new pedagogy for addressing Aboriginal subject material shifting the focus from an essentializing or othering exploration of the attributes of Aboriginal peoples to a focus on historical experiences that inform our understanding of contemporary relationships between Aboriginal and non Aboriginal peoples Reflecting on the process of writing a series of stories Dion takes up questions of representing the lived experiences of Aboriginal people in the service of pedagogy Investigating what happened when the stories were taken up in history classrooms she illustrates how our investments in particular identities structure how we hear and what we are willing to know Braiding Histories illuminates the challenges of speaking listening and writing reading across cultural boundaries as an Aboriginal person to communicate Aboriginal experience through education It will be useful to teachers and students of educational and Native studies and will appeal to readers seeking a better understanding of colonialism and Aboriginal non Aboriginal relations
