Fiscal Management:

Fiscal Management World Bank, 2005 Accountability of government to citizens is the foundation for good governance Unfortunately many developing countries suffer the results of dysfunctional governance systems that fail to provide even minimal levels of vital public services The key message of the New Institutional Economics is that incentives matter In the public sphere the countries accountability frameworks rewards sanctions and measurement of performance shape public sector performance This book applies this fundamental insight to fiscal budgetary analysis and public service delivery giving the reader tools and around the globe examples of institutional arrangements that help citizens hold government accountable for their performance Fiscal management in the national government. 1. Financial control and accountability, by A.E. Buck. 2. The General accounting office, by H.C. Mansfield United States. President's Committee on Administrative Management, 1937 Information Systems for Government Fiscal Management Ali Hashim, Bill Allan, 1999 Ready access to accurate and timely information for decision making is a paramount requirement for public sector managers to function effectively in a political environment where fiscal management comes under close scrutiny This paper presents a methodology for use in developing an integrated network of systems to support the information requirements for economic management Of particular importance is the concept of developing an information systems architecture that provides an overview of the systems network required to support fiscal management The proposed architecture identifies the major component modules and the information linkages between these modules This information architecture can also serve as a road map for systems implementation Special Committee on Improving Wisconsin's Fiscal Management Report to the Legislature Wisconsin. Legislature. Legislative Council. Special Committee on Improving Wisconsin's Fiscal Management, 2003 Tools for State and Local Fiscal Management Hathaway, Alex, Martinez-Vazquez, Jorge, Thayer, Chris, 2021-12-14 Governments have always endured economic woes but the increasing severity of such challenges from the Great Recession starting in 2008 to the unprecedented impact of the COVID 19 pandemic highlights the need for better developed fiscal analysis capacity in governments of all sizes using the most practical yet robust techniques available This volume presents an array of real world analytical approaches in a variety of service areas at the core of state and local government Tax Expenditure Reporting and Its Use in Fiscal Management International Monetary Fund. Fiscal Affairs Dept., 2019-03-27 This note aims to inform governments on how to account for tax expenditures and use that information in fiscal management The emphasis is on developing and emerging market economies where the use of such accounts is in its infancy because of data constraints insufficient human and financial resources and weak fiscal institutions Most developing economies more over do not have tax policy units in their Ministry of Finance to provide analytical support to the government and legislature that integrates all revenue policy aspects As a result the tax policy framework can be fragmented line ministries compete in the provision of sectoral tax incentives but do not report on their cost The note is organized as follows The second section outlines the role that tax expenditure measurement and reporting can play in fiscal management The third section provides a step by step approach on how tax expenditure accounts can be built with emphasis on data methods and models and institutional requirements The section is concerned primarily with the direct cost of tax expenditures that is the revenue forgone because of them It does not deal with their indirect costs which could include economic efficiency losses and additional tax administration resources and it does not address assessment of the benefits of tax expenditures The fourth summarizes the current status of tax expenditure reporting in developing economies with some reference to advanced economies The last section concludes Federal financial management United States.
