The Politics of Fishing Tim S. Gray, 2016-07-27 A topical and authoritative examination of the current crisis in the fishing industry offering a political analysis of the reasons for the crisis and suggesting ways in which this might be overcome The contributors include fishery officials and scientists as well as academics The focus is mainly on the European fishing industry with issues including political bargaining in the EU the working of quota arrangements the status of marine scientific knowledge and the industry's management structures in different countries Sessional Papers Great Britain. Parliament. House of Lords, 1995 Frontiers in International Environmental Law: Oceans and Climate Challenges Richard Barnes, Ronán Long, 2021-03-15 Frontiers in International Environmental Law explores how law and legal scholarship has responded to some of the most important oceans and climate governance challenges of our time Using the concept of the frontier each contributor provides a unique perspective on the way that we can understand and can shape the development of law and legal institutions to better protect our marine environment and climate system and reduce conflicts in areas of legal uncertainty The authors show how different actors influence legal development and how legal transitions occur in marine spaces and how change influences existing legal regimes They also consider how change creates risks for the protection of vulnerable environment but also opportunities for creative thinking and better ways of governing our environment HMSO Monthly Catalogue Great Britain. Her Majesty's Stationery Office, 1996 The Stationery Office Annual Catalogue Stationery Office (Great Britain), 1996 Stationery Office Annual Catalogue Stationery Office Staff, 1997 Understanding the Cultures of Fishing Communities James R. McGoodwin, Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2001-01-01 Small scale fishing accounts for almost 95% of the world's fishing and it has been estimated that small scale fishing activities support the livelihoods of more than 200 million people worldwide The purpose of this document is to help fisheries officials gain a clearer understanding of the cultures of small scale fishing communities It is hoped this will enable the development of more successful management policies and practices and empower people in such communities to improve their livelihoods The document highlights the importance of sustaining the rights of access to resources and the integration of cultural considerations into fisheries management policies It includes six case studies from distinct cultural regions of the world Collective Volume of Scientific Papers, 1998 The Parliamentary Debates (Hansard).
