Congress,1974      The Labour Gazette ,1916      Firefighting the Blitz Aylmer Firebrace CBE KPM,2021-11-24 The former Chief Officer of London Fire Brigade offers his account of life in fire services in London and around Britain during World War II War was coming Everyone knew that confrontation with Nazi Germany was inevitable and that London was likely to be a prime target of Hitler s bombers So in January 1939 Aylmer Firebrace the Chief Officer of London Fire Brigade was seconded to the Home Office to plan for the capital s fire defence Before joining the Fire Brigade Aylmer Firebrace had been a Royal Navy officer who had fought in the Battle of Jutland during the First World War It was following the Armistice that in 1919 he became principal officer in the London Fire Brigade He was promoted to deputy chief and finally chief officer in June 1938 That war struck London soon enough but it was on 7 September 1940 that Firebrace s preparations were truly tested with the start of the Blitz For the next fifty seven days and nights London was subjected to the longest continuous bombing campaign in history Then as the Luftwaffe ranged wider and further across Britain s towns and cities Firebrace was tasked with toured the nation to see the effects of the bombing at which point he saw the need for a national response The result was the creation of the National Fire Service Formed in August 1941 by the amalgamation of some 1 600 separate brigades this remarkable organisation had at its peak a strength of 370 000 men and women It was led for its entire existence by Aylmer Firebrace As the war continued Firebrace became Chief of the Fire Staff and Inspector in Chief of the Fire Services being the first and to date only person to head all the fire fighting services in Britain This body had to deal with the expansion of the Blitz as well as the so called Baedeker raids the tip and run attacks Baby Blitz and V1 and V2 offensives of the later years of the war In his fascinating account written immediately the war Firebrace reflects on the functioning of the fire service at its most testing time This book is an essential addition to the understanding of the Blitz and how London and the rest of the country survived its darkest hour

Houston Fire Department Fire Museum of Houston and Tristan Smith,2015 Houston s firefighting service began in 1838 with the founding of Protection Fire Company No 1 As the city of Houston grew throughout the early and mid 19th century volunteer companies formed and grew along with it By 1895 city leaders decided to form the Houston Fire Department as a city department culling the volunteer forces for men stations apparatus and horses The city grew in leaps and bounds swallowing up neighborhoods communities and smaller cities along the way with the fire department nipping at their heels This brave force battled devastating fires throughout the years most notably the Great Fifth Ward Fire in 1912 the 1943 Gulf Hotel Fire the Woodway Square Apartment Conflagration in 1979 and the Southwest Inn Fire in 2013 What was once a smattering of volunteer fire brigades has grown into an imposing force of over 3 000 firefighters protecting over two million people in the fourth largest city in the United States

Fire Engineering's Handbook for Firefighter I and II Glenn P. Corbett,2009 Corbett technical editor of Fire Engineering magazine has assembled more than 40 accomplished fire service professionals to compile one of the most authoritative comprehensive and up to date basics book for Firefighter I and II classes

History of Service ,2001-08-17

Hot Zone Christopher Teale Howes,2012-10-10 This memoir is a riveting account of what it s like to be a professional firefighter from rookie to chief officer over the course of a 31 year career The anecdotes are funny sad and grim all serve to educate readers about a profession that many dreamed about when they were children but would never pursue or truly understand Chief Howes provides a better understanding of the profession and respect for the men and women who protect our communities by relating his own experiences as well as those of other firefighters in some of the busiest stations in the country The author is donating 10% of royalties to the National Fallen Firefighters Foundation the nonprofit group dedicated to the development and expansion of programs to honor our fallen fire heroes and assist their families and coworkers
