Byzantine influence was a key concept especially in art historical circles This concept has been increasingly criticised and what we now see emerging is a comparative methodology that relies on the concept of competitive sharing not blind copying but rather competitive appropriation The importance of the local is equally critical We need to talk more about what the Byzantines saw when they looked out and what others saw in Byzantium when they looked in and to think about how that impacted on our very post modern concepts of globalism Finally we need to think about the empire s strategic geographical position between the fourth and the thirteenth centuries if anyone was travelling internationally they had to travel across or along the coasts of the Byzantine Empire Byzantium was thus a crucial intermediary for good or for ill between Europe Africa and Asia effectively the glue that held the Christian world together and it was also a critical transit point between the various Islamic polities and the Christian world     The art of landscape painting in oil colours [by W.
