Ancient Jewish Prayers and Emotions Stefan C. Reif, Renate Egger-Wenzel, 2015-11-13 Given the recent interest in the emotions presupposed in early religious literature it has been thought useful to examine in this volume how the Jews and early Christians expressed their feelings within the prayers recorded in some of their literature Specialists in their fields from academic institutions around the world have analysed important texts relating to this overall theme and to what is revealed with regard to such diverse topics as relations with God exegesis education prophecy linguistic expression feminism happiness grief cult suicide non Jews Hellenism Qumran and Jerusalem The texts discussed are in Greek Hebrew and Aramaic and are important for a scientific understanding of how Rabbinic Judaism and Early Christianity developed their approaches to worship to the construction of their theology and to the feelings that lay behind their religious ideas and practices The articles contribute significantly to an historical understanding of how Jews maintained their earlier traditions but also came to terms with the ideology of the dominant Hellenistic culture that surrounded them Prayers that Avail

Much 40th Anniversary Revised and Updated Edition Germaine Copeland, 2019-12-17 Do you long to pray powerful prayers that impact Heaven and shake earth Do you want to partner with God to deliver victory in challenging circumstances Do you want to see God move powerfully in the lives of your loved ones For more than 40 years Germaine Copeland author of the Prayers That Avail Much Series has been helping Prayers of Jewish Women Markus H. McDowell, 2006 Markus McDowell examines how the literature of the Second Temple period portrays women at prayer through an examination of the literary context and character of those prayers The goal of this work is a greater understanding of how women were portrayed in literary sources and an offering of some fresh insights for the study of women's religious and social roles in the ancient world

The texts are analyzed and categorized within five areas social location content form occasion and gender perspective The prayers are also compared and contrasted with men s prayers in the same sources The analysis includes locating as much as possible the historical literary and cultic context of each document in which these prayers appear By examining all prayers in these texts uttered by women not just prayers of named or prominent women and then comparing them with all the prayers of men in those same texts certain patterns appear This study adds to our knowledge of women and religion in Second Temple Judaism by primarily exploring patterns that appear among the prayers in the literature of the Second Temple period While there are fewer prayers by women than men in this literature the prayers of women are not portrayed as significantly different from those of men in terms of social location content form or occasion At the same time the prayers of women exhibit other patterns of language and in a minor way form and occasion that differ from the prayers of men
