films is a collaborative production that can be understood only and only incompletely by being alert to the presence of its many participants and their contributions Each of these participants brings a voice to the execution ritual whether it is the judge and jury or the victim executioner sheriff and other authorities spiritual counselors printer or spectators and readers And each has at least one role to play No matter how powerful some institutions and individuals may appear none has a monopoly over authority and how the events take shape on and beyond the scaffold The centerpiece of the mid seventeenth century s theatre of death was the condemned man s last dying utterance This study focuses on the words and contexts of many of those final speeches including King Charles I s 1649 Archbishop William Laud s 1645 and the Earl of Strafford s 1641 as well as those of less well known royalists and regicides Where we situate ourselves to view hear and comprehend a public execution through specific participants eyes ears and minds or accounts shapes our interpretation of the ritual It is impossible to achieve a singular carefully indoctrinated meaning of an event as complex as a state sponsored public execution Along with the variety of voices and meanings the nature and purpose of the rituals of justice maintain a significant amount of consistency in a number of eras and cultural contexts Whether the focus is on the trial and execution of the Marian martyrs English royalists in the 1640s and 1650s or the Restoration s regicides the events draw on a set of cultural expectations or conventions Because rituals of justice are shaped by diverse voices and agendas with the participants scripts and counterscripts converging and colliding they are dramatic moments conveying profound meanings Published by University of Delaware Press Distributed worldwide by Rutgers University Press Literary Cold War, 1945 to Vietnam Adam Piette, 2009-05-25 This is a ground breaking study of the psychological and cultural impact of the Cold War on the imaginations of citizens in the UK and US The Literary Cold War examines writers working at the hazy borders between aesthetic project and political allegory with specific attention being paid to Vladimir Nabokov and Graham Greene as Cold War writers The book looks at the special relationship as a form of paranoid plotline governing key Anglo American texts from Storm Jameson to Sylvia Plath and Ted Hughes as well as examining the figure of the non aligned neutral observer caught up in the sacrificial triangles structuring cold war fantasy The book aims to consolidate and define a new emergent field in literary studies the literary Cold War following the lead of prominent historians of the period Surge of Cultivation Bei JiHai, 2019-11-12 This was an era where experts emerged in large numbers and experts gathered In the next era mankind finally stepped into the starry sky and was exposed before the eyes of the gods An ordinary youth carrying the hopes of countless lives walked out of the wasteland stepped on the skeletons of gods looked down at the endless starry sky and then returned to the flames of humanity Gods are not omnipotent and I am omnipotent Parliamentary Debates New Zealand.
