

The Three 'P's'

- Pause — let your child try by themselves first. Be patient.
- Prompt — when your child hesitates over a new word try asking questions such as: 'What does it begin with?' Then tell them the first letter/sound or re-read the sentence. It is important to give them the opportunity to work it out for themselves but it is also important not to let them get stuck for too long so they do not get disheartened.
- Praise — when your child gets a word right give them lots of praise and encouragement.
