Death Rites & Ancestor Worship Dr. Reba Lahiri , Death is the ultimate truth of life All religions consider birth and death in the same package and have given importance to death rites and ancestor worship With death the non existence begins It is something common in all religions The central concern of all philosophies is not life but death Man knows that life is finite and the future beyond life is unknown So it is natural to ask is there any life after death If yes it is certainly a life without a body Death is the end of physical existence but it is not the end of a person So death rites and ancestor worship arose in all societies Ancestor worship is the belief that at the death of an individual his/her social personality is not erased but rather transformed The basis of ancestor worship lies in this belief found in all human societies It also creates a distance between the living and the dead while commemorating the dead and paying respect to them
