Weeks,2022-04-19 Adult Bible Studies Summer 2022 Theme Transform The lessons this quarter begin with a look at the ministry of the Holy Spirit that brings new life to us as members of the body of Christ Jesus tells the disciples in John's Gospel that he must leave so that the Comforter or Holy Spirit could come The Spirit will lead and guide us into all truth and bring gifts and graces to all who will receive them This transforming power prepares us for ministry in the world The Holy Spirit's work in empowering us to be the church and carry out its mission is not limited to time and space The lessons in Unit 2 take us through a series of events in the context of Jewish and Gentile hostility in which we see how the Holy Spirit moved the church forward to serve others The final four lessons in this quarter explore a problem that has plagued humankind throughout the ages violence How do we as the people of God confront and overcome this menace to the faith Unit 1 The Fruit of the Spirit Paul used the metaphor of fruit to help us understand that our lives are like the firstfruits of offering

Through participation in Christ's crucifixion through baptism we have offered our lives to God's service. The Holy Spirit then gives us gifts to display. Scriptures: Acts 2:1-4, 17-21, 33-38, 39-1; Corinthians 2:10-16; Galatians 5:13-21; Galatians 5:22-26. Spiritual Practice: Silence. Unit 2: The Work of the Church. These lessons take us through a series of events in the Book of Acts in which the activity of the Holy Spirit drives the action forward. The lessons in Unit 1 identify the gifts granted to us by the Spirit; these lessons look at the path on which the Spirit directs our lives and how the Spirit is already active before we arrive at our destination. Scriptures: Acts 4:23-31; Acts 8:26-39; Acts 11:1-18; Acts 15:1-21; Acts 16:25-34. Spiritual Practice: Service. Unit 3: The Pursuit of the People. God's word established a created order that depends on fruitfulness and cultivation rather than violence to maintain it, but humanity through its rivalries brings violence into God's created order. It is clear from Scripture that God's intent is to reestablish shalom, the Hebrew word that means a shared well-being and abundance. While violence remains a part of the created order, God does not quietly sanction the human use of violence and calls us to imitate God's love and work toward shalom. Scriptures: 1 Chronicles 22:6-10, 17-19; Matthew 5:9, 38-48; Ephesians 2:11-22; Matthew 26:47-56. Spiritual Practice: Remembering.

in the Balance Robert N. Wennberg,1985 In this book Robert N Wennberg looks at all the major arguments from the whole spectrum of positions on the abortion issue He does so both earnestly and fairly taking care to point out that most of the arguments follow soundly from their premises and that most of the parties to the debate are altruistically motivated Cutting through the sensationally prejudicial language often used in arguments about abortion Wennberg clearly lays out what merit the various arguments have individually so readers can compare them sensibly Writing out of the evangelical Protestant tradition Wennberg nevertheless looks fairly and with an open mind at all of the arguments The book will be valuable to anyone who wants a noncrusading presentation of this crucial issue      Books in Series ,1985 Vols for 1980 issued in three parts Series Authors and Titles      The Abingdon Bible Commentary Frederick Carl Eiselen,1939      Promises to Keep Yael Ziegler,2008-07-31 While many studies explore the literary role of the oath in general literature none have contended with the role of the oath in the biblical narratives This study seeks to fill that vacuum The first section of this study examines the literary significance of the various oath formulae that appear in biblical narratives focusing on anomalous formulations of the respective oath formulae The second section of this study explores the narratives surrounding two characters Saul and David both of whom frequently engage in oath making The oaths taken by to and about these characters mirror the narrative itself and function as a prism through which the character s career is refracted This study demonstrates that by perceiving the oath as a literary device for plot and character development additional or more precise meanings may be revealed in the biblical stories      Here We Stand Craig L. Nesson,Victor I. Vieth,2025-07-17 Although the life and writings of Martin Luther and other reformers have a great deal to say about children and our need to protect them from maltreatment this legacy of the Lutheran churches and of Christianity as a whole has largely been forgotten Here We Stand reclaims the Lutheran heritage as it sets forth a Lutheran theological and ethical foundation for the church s response to child abuse The book models rooting our response to child abuse in fertile biblical and theological soil Written by Lutheran theologians and child abuse prevention experts the groundbreaking book provides practical direction for the pastoral ministry of clergy and for congregations that wish to develop robust policies and practices in order to protect children Part 1 Lutheran Theological Foundations for Addressing Child Abuse explores core Lutheran commitments by retrieving historical confessional and theological sources Part 2 Lutheran Interpretation of Challenging Biblical Texts addresses misinterpretations of Scripture and the Lutheran traditions Part 3 Lutheran Theology Addressing the Sin of Child Abuse provides practical instruction for ministry challenges related to child abuse      Victorious Substitution Vee Chandler,2025-05-20 Aspiring to understand the theories concerning the necessity of Christ s death and what it accomplished is a challenging and exciting undertaking that every Christian should pursue This book guides the way with a fair presentation of different atonement theories an extensive analysis of relevant biblical texts and a presentation of the author s conclusions from her personal quest for understanding Throughout there is a careful determination not to blur the lines between what is fact and what remains theory Equally significant to understanding the mechanics of Christ's atoning work is contemplating the nature of the rescue and liberation that he provided through his sacrifice May this book's readers delight in thinking through these issues and in living out the possibilities      Union Seminary Quarterly Review ,1958
