First Into Action:

First Into Action Duncan Falconer, 1998 The SBS was first into battle a month before the SAS in the Falklands War and again in the Gulf War yet hitherto it is the SAS that has had by far the higher profile The SBS draws its manpower solely from the Marine Commando Units and the Royal Marines are the oldest and most battle honoured regiment in the world FIRST INTO ACTION is the first Special Boat Services memoir written from the inside It tells how Duncan Falconer trained with the Royal Marines in Deal before being recruited into the SBS at Poole in Dorset The regimen of ruthless training is graphically described and the book also includes revelatory accounts of SBS operations in Ulster Bosnia and the Gulf War and of the intense rivalry between the SAS's individualist mentality and the more team based marine ethos of the SBS Duncan Falconer's grippingly detailed memoir is sure to command the attention of anyone interested in the Special Forces and how they operate

First Into Action Duncan Falconer, 2015-04-02 A must for military buffs MANCHESTER EVENING NEWS Duncan Falconer was born in London and raised in an orphanage until he was ten At 18 with the UK in an economic slump Falconer joined the Royal Marines to get away from the city for a few years But a series of unusual events saw him attend SBS selection at 19 which he passed to become the youngest man in his day to join British Special Forces This unusual opportunity was never to be repeated The SBS faced with a neophyte in their employ immediately sent him away to gain experience with the military elite It was to be the beginning of a great adventure spanning four decades that saw him involved in practically every major conflict on this earth in one form or another This book is about Falconer's formative years working with the SBS SAS and British military Intelligence
