The First Lady Wharncliffe and Her Family (1779-1856) Caroline Grosvenor, Charles Beilby Stuart-Wortley baron Stuart, Charles Beilby Stuart-Wortley Baron Stuart of Wortley, 1927      Mrs. Simcoe's Diary Elizabeth Simcoe, 2007-10-12 Elizabeth Simcoe's diary describing Canada from 1791 to 1796 is history written as it was being made an account instilled with excitement and delight      The Heiress vs the Establishment Constance Backhouse, Nancy L. Backhouse, 2005-01-31 In 1922 Elizabeth Bethune Campbell a Toronto born socialite unearthed what she initially thought was an unsigned copy of her mother's will designating her as the primary beneficiary of the estate The discovery snowballed into a fourteen year battle with the Ontario legal establishment as Mrs Campbell attempted to prove that her uncle a prominent member of Ontario's legal circle had stolen funds from her mother's estate In 1930 she argued her case before the Law Lords of the Privy Council in London A non lawyer and Canadian with no formal education or legal training Campbell was the first woman to ever appear before them She won Reprinted here in its entirety Campbell's self published account of her campaign Where Angels Fear to Tread is an eloquent first person view of intrigue and overlapping spheres of influence in the early twentieth century legal system Constance Backhouse and Nancy Backhouse provide extensive commentary and annotations to illuminate the context and pick up the narrative where Campbell's book leaves off Vibrantly written this is an enthralling read Not only a fascinating social and legal history it's also a very good story      The Toronto Book of Love Adam Bunch, 2021-01-19 Exploring Toronto's history through tantalizing true tales of romance marriage and lust Toronto's past is filled with passion and heartache The Toronto Book of Love brings the history of the city to life with fascinating true tales of romance marriage and lust from the scandalous love affairs of the city's early settlers to the prime minister's wife partying with rock stars on her anniversary from ancient First Nations wedding ceremonies to a pastor wearing a bulletproof vest to perform one of Canada's first same sex marriage ceremonies Home to adulterous movie stars faithful rebels and heartbroken spies Toronto has been shaped by crushes jealousies and flirtations The Toronto Book of Love explores the evolution of the city from a remote colonial outpost to a booming modern metropolis through the stories of those who have fallen in love among its ravines church spires and skyscrapers      The Toronto Book of the Dead Adam Bunch, 2017-09-16 Exploring Toronto's history through the stories of its most fascinating and shadowy deaths If these streets could talk With morbid tales of war and plague duels and executions suicides and ancestors Toronto's past is filled with stories whose endings were anything but peaceful The Toronto Book of the Dead delves into these from ancient First Nations burial mounds to the grisly murder of Toronto's first lighthouse keeper from the rise and fall of the city's greatest Victorian baseball star to the final days of the world's most notorious anarchist Toronto has witnessed countless lives lived and lost as it grew from a muddy little frontier town into a booming metropolis of concrete and glass The Toronto Book of the Dead tells the tale of the ever changing city through the lives and deaths of those who made it their final resting place      The Canada Year Book , 1904

America's First Ladies Nancy Hendricks, 2015-10-13 Meet the First Ladies of the United States sometimes inspiring sometimes tragic always fascinating women who though often unsung helped hold the nation together in its infancy and advance it as a world power More than simply serving as America's hostesses many of the nation's First Ladies played vital roles in shaping their husband's presidency and serving as political activists in their own right From Martha Washington to Michelle Obama their inspiring stories come alive in this handsomely illustrated encyclopedia Within its pages the First Ladies are revealed as human beings who one day awoke to find the eyes of the world upon them The book differs from others by showcasing America's First Ladies in their own words as flesh and blood individuals Readers will discover which First Lady held off Napoleon's army with a toy sword why women had to be pale frail and ailing and which First Lady was called Sunshine and which was Hellcat Each entry includes a biographical essay that details the life of the woman and places her within the political social and cultural context of her time Each also offers a related primary document that helps define the First Lady's legacy as well as a short bibliography for further information Written in a lively compelling style this highly readable volume is perfect for junior high high school and college students as well as the general public Royal Observations Arthur Bousfield, Garry Toffoli, 1991-01-12 These observations and quotations comprise a witty anthology of anecdotes by and about the royal family in Canada over the last 400 years Enhanced by drawings from the well known cartoonist Vince Wicks this book looks at the memorable encounters sometimes touching sometimes disconcerting sometimes hilarious that Canadians have had with their own and other royal families Arranged thematically Royal Observations covers such topics as Queen Victoria English French relations World War Two native peoples and royal tours Changing Women, Changing History Diana Pederson, 1996-10-15 Changing Women Changing History is a bibliographic guide to the scholarship both English and French on Canadian's women's history Organized under broad subject headings and accompanied by author and subject indices it is accessible and comprehensive The Judge and the Lady Marlyn Horsdal, 2012 When the beautiful and flirtatious Eleanor Wentworth is sent away from London in 1870 for her scandalous behaviour she arrives angry and rebellious in Victoria a town that falls far below her expectations of society Soon however she is befriended by Celia Turner the freethinking young wife of a conservative minister and unlikely though it seems they become lifelong friends When Eleanor meets the fascinating judge Matthew Baillie Begbie the first chief justice of BC life in the colony suddenly becomes much more attractive Discover life in vibrant late nineteenth century Victoria and meet the characters who helped build the province's rich history Who's who in Canada Charles Whately Parker, Barnet M. Greene, 1922 Women Who Give Away Millions Iris Nowell, 1996-10-22 This book pays tribute to 14 women who donated millions of dollars to causes close to their hearts Iris Nowell is the author of five books Writing her 1996 book Women Who Give Away Millions has given her a solid foundation of philanthropy the not for profit sector and the wealthy She has also written a memoir of Canadian artist Harold Town and a biography of artist filmmaker and impassioned feminist Joyce Wieland The Canadian

Annual Review of Public Affairs John Castell Hopkins,1924      Margaret Addison Jean O'Grady,2001-02-26 O Grady presents Addison in several different lights as a woman learning to assert herself in the hitherto male world of university governance as an administrator dealing with questions of individual freedom and group standards at a time when the permissible limits of behaviour were expanding as a former Methodist who learned to modify her beliefs while retaining her core Christianity and as an advocate for more fulfilling lives for women who was forced to deal with questions of co education the possibility of gender neutral studies and the nature of womanliness O Grady clearly shows that Addison wanted to make a difference in the world and did so B her innovations such as student government and lectures on careers and sex education were widely copied in other universities Drawing on archival material and writing in an accessible style O Grady captures the flavour of life in Annesley Hall under Addison s regime and uncovers part of the buried mosaic of the lives of Canadian women

Family Ties Andrea Terry,2015-06-01 House museums act as both sources and suppliers of history Functioning first as private residences they are then preserved as commemorative monuments and become living history museums offering theme based tours led by period costumed interpreters so that visitors might experience what it felt like to live back then In Family Ties Andrea Terry considers the appeal and relevance of domesticated representations of Victorian material culture in a contemporary multicultural context Through three case studies Terry examines Victorian homes that have been repurposed as living history museums that host speculative performances of the past The credibility of Dundurn Castle in Hamilton William Lyon Mackenzie House in Toronto and the Sir George tienne Cartier National Historic Site of Canada in Montreal Terry argues relies on the belief that architectural monuments and the objects they contain are evidence of the time culture nation or people that produced them Family Ties connects residential artifacts to performance by examining the Victorian Christmas programs offered annually at each site to demonstrate the complex nuances of living history Through a detailed exploration of the relationship between heritage living history and memory Family Ties illuminates the effects of institutional interpretations of the past that privilege nationalist myths
