Genesis Miguel A. De La Torre, 2011-10-23 This volume in the Belief series provides a new and interesting theological interpretation of Genesis through the themes of liberation and the concerns of the poor and marginalized De La Torre wrestles with Genesis texts remembering Jacob's wrestling at Peniel Gen 32 24 32 and finds that there are consequences when we truly wrestle with the biblical text struggling to see the face of God This commentary provides theological and ethical insights that enables the book of Genesis to speak powerfully today A Land Like Your Own Jason M.

Silverman, Amy Daughton, 2010-09-01 A land like our own explores the ways the Bible has reused previous traditions and has subsequently been reused by both Jews and Christians The editors employ the symbol of the Land as indicative of both loss and hope reflective of the ways in which the past is variously figured and re configured by the authors of both Testaments to the Revolution in 1688 David Hume, 1770 Back to Where We Came From B. Lising, 2020-05-21 What on earth are we doing here Why are we on this planet We would normally try to understand things by seeing their origin If we could know their beginning then we would know their purpose But how about humankind what is our starting point The Gospel is the one and only connection we have from Eternity This means that the only way we can know our origin and purpose is to see the whole account of the Gospel The author believes in the perfect consistency of the Scripture that all books of the Bible hold only a single message He is also convinced that the last book is the summary of the whole Bible the book of Revelation will connect all the dots and will reveal to us the big picture This manuscript will give readers a clear understanding about the origin of mankind before the beginning of time our foretold journey on earth and our new beginning after the ending of time This is the Big Picture of Our Great Restoration The System of Doctrines Samuel Hopkins, 1811 Chronicles
