

Short Wedding Vows For Him

1. I pledge to always catch you before you stumble, and lift you over every threshold. I'll also grow to fall in love with you every day.
2. I vow to make you happy, to make you laugh, and to always be there for you.
3. I vow to make my life forever yours and build my dreams around you.
4. I promise to be the man that I see now in your eyes, today, tomorrow, and for always.
5. I will take your love to give me hope, give me joy, and make me a better man.
6. I vow to love, honor, and cherish you, forsaking all others, as a faithful husband as long as we both shall live.
7. You are love more than any metaphor can ever try to express.
8. I give you the best of me, my heart, my soul, forever.
9. I promise to learn from you day by day in all things, with faithfulness and love.
10. I invite you to take all of me, to come into my life and share all I have to offer.

First Vows

First Vows:

The Mirror of My Self John Pulparampil, This is a revised version of an extraordinary autobiography first published in January 2017 by the Educreation Publishing House New Delhi under the title Gospel According to Myself with four new chapters added to it and also incorporating some changes in some parts the earlier chapters The new headings of the chapters reflect the new perspectives adopted on each of them with an emphasis on being a life long student even at the age of 71 The book contains four major parts a a comprehensive review of Jesuit training for priest hood based on personal experiences as a Jesuit trainee in the Madurai Province of Jesuits in India a a critical review of institution building for excellence in education and training in India focusing experiences in the Jawaharlal Nehru University New Delhi South Gujarat University Surat and Institute of Management in Government Thiruvananthapuram and c experiences in self management from the days of adolescence to the age of seventy and d a philosophy of life evolved by the author on the basis of his vast readings unique experiences in life and prolonged reflection and meditation on the deeper aspects of life lived in national and international contexts In all what he did value concerns have been central to his thinking and actions And nowhere was he ever free from conflicts due to his value concerns in life In his autobiography started in 1975 and completed in 2016 the author narrates and analyses his experiences in the different situations in which he had to take value based decisions and face the consequences for the actions The Philosophical perspectives on his religious experiences and value management conflicts outshine all other aspects of this extraordinary document The spirit of the author enters into a dialogue with those who read the story of his eventful life Dictionary of World Monasticism Steven Olderr,2020-08-10 The roots of monasticism may go back as far as 1700 BCE to ascetic practices in ancient India Since that time the monastic world has naturally developed its own extensive and distinct vocabulary Countless volumes have been written on monasticism yet many do not clearly define obscure or vernacular terms Some terms may be found in standard dictionaries but without in depth explanations This first comprehensive dictionary not a proselytizing work but a reference with historical and biographical focus fills the gap with a worldwide scope covering not only Christianity but all faiths that have monastic traditions including but not limited to Buddhism Jainism and Hinduism The Lives of the Primitive Fathers, Martyrs, and Other Principal Saints... by the Rev. Alban Butler... Alban Butler,1799 The Lives of the Primitive Fathers, Martyrs, and Other Principal Saints Alban Butler,1799 Another Nun's Story Beth Warren,2021-05-12 In 1947 author Beth Warren entered the convent because she believed God called her to a special life of service for His people She had a passionate love for nuns who combined their religious lives with outgoing compassion for others Warren wanted to be just like them She dreamed that answering her Call to religious life would help make the world a better place During the sixties Pope John XXIII asked nuns to look outside their convent walls to see where they were most needed Warren was drawn to working with disadvantaged people but she was told she was a teacher not a social worker She realized that to serve God s deprived people and live among them she would need to leave her religious Community In Another Nun s Story Warren chronicles her joys and difficulties during her religious life from the 1940s to the 1980s She discusses how being a rebel nun led her to break her vows and left her with unraveled feelings and some guilt But she came to understand she was saying goodbye to an impossible dream so she could pursue one that was possible for her Ignatian Mysticism Stephen J Costello,2024-06-27 This work explores the influential Spiritual Exercises of Ignatius Loyola the sixteenth century Spanish soldier saint mystic and founder of the Jesuit Order The Ignatian Exercises including the Examen are brought into dialogue with the psychologies of C G Jung and Viktor Frankl the philosophies of Eric Voegelin and Bernard Lonergan as well as the thought of Teilhard de Chardin von Balthasar and Eastern philosophy Their enduring relevance and implications for the Recovery and wellness movement are also articulated Drawing on key themes such as gratitude forgiveness and consciousness as a springboard for reflection and interpretation the mystical dimension of Ignatian spirituality is emphasised throughout This book will benefit the beginner serious scholar spiritual seeker and anyone intent on gaining an understanding of this unique way of proceeding Introduction to Religious Studies Harvey J. Sindima,2012-07-10 In Introduction to Religious Studies Harvey J Sindima provides an unconventional approach to the study of world religions Often books and courses on religious studies focus on the major world religions This approach however frequently ignores other religious experiences such as those of various African groups as well as the indigenous people of the Americas and Australia These less widespread religions are commonly described in pejorative terms such as primitive religions or non literate religions Focusing solely on well known religions is an approach that impoverishes religious studies and deprives students of the enormous wealth of religious knowledge of the world Introduction to Religious Studies pulls together the diverse religious experience of Africans Native Americans and the indigenous peoples of Australia in order to provide a comprehensive introduction to the study of religion and broaden the horizons of religious studies students Under each theme or topic examples are drawn from religions of salvation as well as African and Native American religious traditions This book provides students with a deep wide and very rich introduction to religious studies An Historical Inquiry into the Ancient Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction of the Crown ... Vol. I. The Reign of the Emperor Constantine the Great James Baldwin BROWN (the Elder.),1815 Heroes and Heroines Canonized in the Twentieth Centurybook II (1951 - 1999) O. C. D. S. Sister Marytherese,2009-07 From the Inside Out asks parents to take a closer look at the life they ve painted for their children After reading this book you ll have a deeper understanding of the phrase parental guidance suggested and you ll be eager to pick up the paintbrush of life and redesign your picture Spiritually motivated backed by scripture and enhanced by the author s experience as a police officer and a minister From the Inside Out will inspire and motivate you to become a better parent It s time to wake up If only I had this book when my children were young I plan to buy copies for friends and family members especially those who are raising stepchildren Pastor Larry effectively combines the temporal and the spiritual showing us how to put the Bible to work in our lives Sammie Justesen R N The author plays the part of an artist who paints a picture of our inner most thoughts and feelings Finally somebody said it The Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius Charles Coppens,2023-07-10 In The Spiritual Exercises of St Ignatius Charles Coppens offers a meticulous and engaging interpretation of Ignatius of Loyola s seminal work intended for spiritual transformation and discernment Coppens employs a thoughtful literary style that intertwines careful exposition with reflective meditations guiding readers through the structured pathways of Ignatian spirituality Situated within the broader context of Catholic mysticism and the Counter Reformation the text serves as both a manual for personal growth and a resource for spiritual directors elucidating the exercises profound psychological and theological dimensions Charles Coppens a Jesuit priest and scholar imbued his writing with rich theological insights shaped by his own educational journey and extensive experience in spiritual formation His dedication to Ignatian spirituality is reflected in his pastoral work aiming to bridge the ancient spiritual traditions with the contemporary seeker s quest for meaning and connection with the divine Coppens scholarly acumen is evident in his ability to present complex spiritual concepts in a clear and approachable manner The Spiritual Exercises of St Ignatius is recommended for anyone seeking a deeper understanding of Ignatian practices or aspiring to enhance their spiritual life This masterful work serves both novices and seasoned practitioners making it an invaluable resource for personal reflection and prayer In this enriched edition we have carefully created added value for your reading experience A succinct Introduction situates the work s timeless appeal and themes The Synopsis outlines the central plot highlighting key developments without spoiling critical twists A detailed Historical Context immerses you in the era s events and influences that shaped the writing An Author Biography reveals milestones in the author s life illuminating the personal insights behind the text A thorough Analysis dissects symbols motifs and character arcs to unearth underlying meanings Reflection questions prompt you to engage personally with the work s messages connecting them to modern life Hand picked Memorable Quotes shine a spotlight on moments of literary brilliance Interactive footnotes clarify unusual references historical allusions and archaic phrases for an effortless more informed read Nuns Across the Orange: A History of the Pioneering Anglican Community of St Michael and All Angels, Bloemfontein Michael Sparrow,2021-04-21 When Sister Emma and the five women who accompanied her from England crossed the Orange River early in 1874 they exchanged the comfortable mainstream of Anglican Church life for the rigours of pioneering new works in an undeveloped country Living conditions were primitive travel was hard and money was always in short supply The newly formed Community of St Michael and All Angels opened the first girls schools north of the Orange and the first hospital in the Free State At Kimberley Sister Henrietta achieved a world first through her successful campaign for the State Registration of nurses Four Sisters were besieged in Kimberley during the Anglo Boer War and in Bloemfontein their Mother House became a military hospital By faith and determination the Community recovered St Michael s School was raised to new standards of excellence while the Sisters expanded their mission to include Lesotho and the eastern Free State Decades of work with Bloemfontein's sick and deprived led to Sister Enid becoming known as Ma Mohau Mother of Mercy and to national acclaim in the 1970s as South Africa's Mother Teresa This book studies the development of the Community's religious life and charts the progress of their work among all races from their foundation until the death of the last Sister in 2016 Across the Orange their relative isolation from the strong centres of Anglicanism eventually contributed to their demise but not before they had established an enduring legacy The work they began in Lesotho is continued by the Community of the Holy Name while St Michael's School in Bloemfontein is recognised as one of the finest girls schools in South Africa Frances Molloy Jennifer M. Jeffers, 2025-09-30

Frances Molloy The Portrait of a Postwar Northern Irish Woman Writer is the story of Ann McGill Brady the woman who wrote herself into the history of the Irish novel as Frances Molloy It is also the story of a poor uneducated Catholic female in Northern Ireland in the 1960s she had few choices and they were the traditional ones marriage or work a dead end job For young Molloy marriage was out the question because she did not want to replicate her own mother's life Molloy believed that God did have a higher plan for her life and she believed that she would better serve the world as a nun than as a seamstress in a pajama factory Frances Molloy gives a voice to the poverty prejudice and violence the Catholic community endured in Northern Ireland under the Stormont Government in the post World War II era While identity is always at the forefront of society in Northern Ireland there is little record of the Catholic female bound by tradition and poverty in the North A group without a history is a group without an identity no one has yet written a history of the poor Northern Irish Catholic female in the latter half of the twentieth century Frances Molloy was a Catholic woman in a sectarian state and her story includes discrimination segregation and unjust incarceration in Northern Ireland in the latter half of the twentieth century St. Alphonsus Liguori Fr. D. F. Miller, Fr. L. X. Aubin, 1940 Bishop Confessor Founder of the Redemptorists Doctor of the Church author of 111 books the most published author in history The Catholic world stands in the shadow of this brilliant man who read everything significant written in the history of the Church His incredible life miracles and achievements St Alphonsus says He who prays will be saved he who does not will be lost A most inspiring life Diary of a Young Jesuit Barry Martinson, 2025-03-28 This diary of a young American Jesuit's vocation and first six years of seminary training in the early 1960s before being assigned as a missionary to Taiwan is full of youthful optimism It is the positive personal story of a vocation told in a relaxed often humorous voice It reveals the longing of a heart that finds fulfillment in giving up everything to follow Christ and serve others as a Jesuit At the Jesuit seminary in Los Gatos Calif the novice learns both the skill of harvesting grapes in the novitiate vineyard and the art of meditating on the life of Christ in prayer As he contemplates Jesus walking from village to village preaching healing the sick and announcing good news to the poor he wants to do the same in the foreign missions He is encouraged in his hopes to be a missionary by a saintly Jesuit who left the Chinese missions for health reasons and became his spiritual father Gifted in art music and writing the novice learns how to use his talents for the benefit of others During his long years of study he discovers happiness through sharing his life with the less fortunate working in the fields with migrant laborers This ever growing desire not only to serve the poor but also to be one of them is a recurring theme in Fr Martinson s diary As a gateway for anyone discerning his vocation or as manna for those already in religious life this diary reveals the secret garden of a Jesuit s formative years sharing many personal joyful and inspiring experiences which as the poet Gerard Manley Hopkins wrote are rife with beauty blooming Principles of Zen Training for Educational Settings Hugh Schuckman,2024-10-31 This book provides insights into new developments and persistent traditions in Zen teacher training and education through the use of historical archival research and original interviews with living Zen Masters It argues that some contemporary Euro American social values of gender equality non discrimination rationality ecumenicism and democracy permeate not only the organizational aspects of the Kwan Um School of Zen case study but soteriological processes and goals of the training more widely Each chapter showcases the ways important facets of Zen education from meditation to curriculum development to school management have absorbed Euro American cultural and social ideals in both community and educational practices Giving dedicated scholarly attention and conceptualising new adaptations in transnational Zen communities it constitutes an important and timely addition to the literature and will appeal to researchers and scholars of religion and education Asian pedagogies contemporary Buddhism transnational Zen and Zen education The Vow Kim Carpenter,Krickitt Carpenter,Dana Wilkerson,2012 Presents the true story of a couple who fell in love again after the wife Krickitt suffered a traumatic brain injury in an automobile crash and lost all memory of her previous life The Best for Last Paulette Camnetar Meeks,2009-12 In The Best for Last One Woman s Unusual Tale of Life and Love readers will follow author Paulette Camnetar Meeks as she shares how an ordinary life can be extraordinary You will laugh and you will cry as you walk through Paulette s journey from childhood to her wiser senior years As high school ended Paulette knew she was being called to leave her family and join the Daughters of Charity devoting her life fully to Christ But Paulette was not your stereotypical nun shut away in a convent Instead her heart of adventure caused her to take on many unexpected roles as a bilingual teacher motorcycle enthusiast translator and a single parent foster mom And when Paulette felt God leading her to leave the sisterhood and to begin the search for her soulmate she did not hesitate Readers will be inspired by this story of faith perseverance and love showing that we are never alone or without hope sometimes God saves The Best for Last The Vowed Life Matthew Bullimore,Sarah Coakley,2023-01-31 This landmark volume from an influential group of Anglican theologians explores baptism as the foundation for living out all forms of Christian vocation in confirmation marriage ordination and religious life It offers theological and pastoral perspectives on the centrality and significance of baptism for a Church that has perhaps lost a sense of the radical commitment that baptism calls for It explores the meaning of vows today as promise covenant oath Rule and explores the difference between religious and secular vows It considers the nature of the vows under which all Christians live and the particular vows such as marriage and ordination embraced by some Together these perceptive reflections offer a theological and pastoral resource for activating every Christian s the sense of call and response whatever their mode of life Priest and Patriot Cynthia

Hausmann,2008-10 Father Carl Hausmann SJ spent his life serving others leading a life of asceticism and holiness as a Jesuit priest in the Philippines He also wrote hundreds of letters to his devout German American family detailing his calling In this intimate biography Father Carl s niece Cynthia Joy Hausmann has translated an expansive collection of letters dating from her uncle s youngest days Through his letters we meet a youngster who buys candy instead of putting his pennies in the church collection Later as a Jesuit student he counsels his father not to take the day s prevalent anti German sentiment personally As a compassionate missionary Father Carl serves lepers on an isolated island Finally in World War II this self sacrificing man shares both the word of God and his meager rice ball with American soldiers imprisoned by the Japanese Up to the hour of his death by starvation Father Carl calms his family s worries about the dangers besetting him Clearly Father Carl s biography illustrates how letter writing is a personal endeavor one that has been virtually lost amid today s technology Father Carl s missives endure as a guidepost for future generations giving us a window into how deeply capable we can be in ministering to others Unequal Partners Casey Ritchie Clevenger,2020-05-15 When we think of Catholicism we think of Europe and the United States as the seats of its power But while much of Catholicism remains headquartered in the West the Church s center of gravity has shifted to Africa Latin America and developing Asia Focused on the transnational Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur Unequal Partners explores the ways gender race economic inequality and colonial history play out in religious organizations revealing how their members are constantly negotiating and reworking the frameworks within which they operate Taking us from Belgium and the United States to the Democratic Republic of the Congo sociologist Casey Clevenger offers rare insight into how the sisters of this order work across national boundaries shedding light on the complex relationships among individuals social groups and formal organizations Throughout Clevenger skillfully weaves the sisters own voices into her narrative helping us understand how the order has remained whole over time A thoughtful analysis of the ties that bind and divide the sisters Unequal Partners is a rich look at transnationalism s ongoing impact on Catholicism
