social movements The book challenges students to see themselves as global citizens whose consumption decisions have real social and ecological implications Key Features a world historical perspective that situates globalization in the declining fortunes of the postwar development project and considers current global limits and possibilities a political perspective that views development and globalization as discursive practices managed by historic elite groupings as mechanisms of power and world ordering an ecological perspective drawing attention to the environmental consequences of development and attempts to reintegrate social life in ecological cycles an emphasis on resistance and social movements as actors shaping the meaning and direction of these projects in addition to building alternatives a series of case studies that allow in depth examination of development globalization dilemmas and paradoxes to interrupt the idea of a linear process New to the Fifth Edition developmental impacts of the rise of the BRICS structural adjustment and new inequalities come to the global North de growth philosophies the re centering of agriculture in light of the food energy and climate crises land grabbing and biofuels green technologies and climate proofing transition towns and re localization new democratic movements Taboo Memories, Diasporic Voices Ella Shohat, 2006-07-17 Since September 11 public discourse has often been framed in terms of absolutes an age of innocence gives way to a present under siege while the United States and its allies face off against the Axis of Evil This special issue of Social Text aims to move beyond these binaries toward thoughtful analysis The editors argue that the challenge for the Left is to develop an antiterrorism stance that acknowledges the legacy of U S trade and foreign policy as well as the diversity of the Muslim faith and the dangers presented by fundamentalism of all kinds Examining the strengths and shortcomings of area race and gender studies in the search for understanding this issue considers cross cultural feminism as a means of combating terrorism racial profiling of Muslims in the context of other racist logics and the homogenization of dissent The issue includes poetry photographic work and an article by Judith Butler on the discursive space surrounding the attacks of September 11 This impressive range of contributions questions the meaning and implications of the events of September 11 and their aftermath Contributors Muneer Ahmad Meena Alexander Lopamudra Basu Judith Butler Zillah Eisenstein Stefano Harney Randy Martin Rosalind C Morris Fred Moten Sandrine Nicoletta Yigal Nizri Jasbir K Puar Amit S Rai Ella Shohat Ban Wang The Fishbowl Principle Gendelman, Miller, Taus, 2009-12 At the core it doesn't matter what you believe governs the fate of man and Earth what matters is that humans as a global society build a future that is sustainable and peaceful This is the ultimate human evolutionary development this is our challenge By tracing our existence from where we began to what we have become today this book explores the evolution and should we continue on our current path the subsequent possible obsolescence of human beings Far from a doomsday tome The Fishbowl Principle challenges readers to expand their worldview We need to change our measure of a successful life from simply existing to prospering The authors refuse to accept that life as we exist today is as good as it gets We argue that humans have reached a fragile tipping point and that instead of fragmenting and isolating ourselves in a future of despair we can and will work together to an even higher apex As a human race we examine what can be achieved if we look to our similarities instead of our differences If we could harness communication as a powerful and cost effective tool to bring us together and educate ourselves in a way that fosters sustainable and responsible population growth the positive transformation to our lives would be immeasurable Whether you exist today as a peasant in a tribal setting or as an urban dweller we explore fostering a sense of global community based on common ground not just niche existence We present tangible alternatives and pose thought provoking questions Our vision is a collaborative one and requires your participation A path back to evolution starts with you and includes all of us

Family Matters Marisel C. Moreno, 2012 Adopting a comparative and multidisciplinary approach to Puerto Rican literature Marisel Moreno juxtaposes narratives by insular and U S Puerto Rican women authors in order to examine their convergences and divergences By showing how these writers use the trope of family to question the tenets of racial and social harmony an idealized past and patriarchal authority that sustain the foundational myth of la gran familia she argues that this metaphor constitutes an overlooked literary contact zone between narratives from both sides Moreno proposes the recognition of a transinsular corpus to reflect the increasingly transnational character of the Puerto Rican population and addresses the need to broaden the literary canon in order to include the diaspora Drawing on the fields of historiography cultural studies and gender studies the author defies the tendency to examine these literary bodies independently of one another and therefore aims to present a more nuanced and holistic vision of this literature The Wild West Will Wright,2001-08-09 Will Wright explores the continuing popularity of the myth of the Wild West demonstrating how as a cultural icon it speaks deeply to a desire for individualism and liberty The author discusses the myth through market and social theory International Health Statecraft Ulysses B. Livingston, 2013-11-06 David Bosch 1929-1992 was one of the foremost mission theologians of the twentieth century at once a prolific scholar committed church leader and active participant in the global conciliar and evangelical mission movements. Less well known is Bosch's distinctive role in the South African church's struggle against apartheid. After reviewing Bosch's background and exploring key themes in his understanding of mission and evangelism, Livingston explores Bosch's legacy from the perspective of the missionary nature of the church. The church is God's kingdom community acting as a witness to and instrument of the coming reign of God. The church is God's alternative community simultaneously set apart from the world but also for the sake of the world, exemplifying the radical implications of Christ's new community. The church is God's reconciled and reconciling community serving as a sign and embodiment of God's love in Christ. For those acquainted with Bosch only as the author of his magisterial Transforming Mission, Livingston shows how Bosch integrated his theology and practice in a faithful, contextually relevant way within South Africa and the global church.
