Educational Therapy In Clinic And Classroom:

The Clinical Practice of Educational Therapy Maxine Ficksman, Jane Utley Adelizzi, 2013-05-13 The Clinical Practice of Educational Therapy is the first book to provide a comprehensive review of the interdisciplinary profession and practice of educational therapy as it exists today. It describes the scope and practice of educational therapy from its European roots to its growing presence in the United States and provides case studies to illustrate the work of educational therapists. Key Features: Interdisciplinary Perspective. Other books focus on either educational or therapeutic interventions but rarely discuss the blend and synergy of disciplines that are the hallmark of the profession. Illustrative Cases. The text draws heavily on case studies as a means of understanding the practice of educational therapy, especially the relationship between therapist and client. Expertise. Chapter authors are either experienced educational therapists or allied professionals who have made scholarly contributions to the profession, such as Dorothy Ungerleider, Patricia Waters, Roslyn Arnold, and George McCloskey. In addition to educational therapy students and practitioners, this book is appropriate for those working in related fields including special education, school psychology, school counseling, and social work in educational settings.

In addition to educational therapists and students, this book is appropriate for professionals who work in related fields such as special education, regular education, school and educational psychology, school counseling, psychology, speech and language pathology, art therapy, occupational therapy, and social work, as well as in medicine and psychiatry.

Educational Therapy in Clinic and Classroom Muriel Barrett, Ved P. Varma, 1996 Educational Therapy Marshall B. Rosenberg, William C. Rhodes, Matthew J. Trippe, Helen F. Gofman, Mary Engel, Frances P. Connor, Icchok Ignacy Goldberg, Carl Fenichel, Norris G. Haring, Jean E. Lukens, Beth H. Slingerland, 1973 Virtual Educational Therapy Marion E. Marshall, 2022-06-20 Virtual Educational Therapy presents a board-certified educational therapist's year-long case study of clinical supports and advocacy for a student with learning disabilities who is attending school remotely during the COVID-19 pandemic. With online and blended learning now the norm in K-12 education, educational therapists need new models of intervention, treatment, and relationship building for their child-age clients. This book offers detailed single-case research focused on a middle school student who is learning virtually while challenged with ADHD as well as visual and verbal memory issues but who is nonetheless found ineligible for special education services. Across eight chapters, author and renowned educational therapist Marion E. Marshall describes the neuropsychological principles, research-based techniques, personal interactions, clinical approaches, and advocacy efforts that led to a vulnerable student's significant gains in academic skills and outcomes.

Reinstein,2013-05-13 Drawing on the teachings of D W Winnicott and John Bowlby who helped revolutionize thinking about relational psychology To Hold and Be Held integrates the concepts of the holding environment and attachment theory and describes how they are applied in a clinical setting It also uses metaphor to both derive meaning from the language of the therapeutic process and to apply that meaning within a systems framework to effect significant therapeutic change As the number of children with complex problems increases and the facilities to treat and manage them decrease schools are left with few resources to cope Professionals such as teachers psychologists social workers and counselors need a new framework in which to think about and advocate for services for these children To Hold and Be Held describes the creation of a system of working that not only holds the child and his family but also holds the larger system as well a system in which therapeutic services are integrated at all levels and implemented in public schools in a way that supports all those involved This is not only a unique and successful way of working with children and their families but a timely one as well Skill Training for Community Living Arnold P.
